BISHOP ASSAILS RACE HATE THREAT OF NEW KLAN HEAD

Atlanta, July 19 (CNA) Bishop Gerald P. O'Hara sharply attacked what he this week described as a revival of the KKK religious and racial prejudice propaganda.

Speaking from the pulpit of the Sacred Heart Church, Bishop O'Hara said that he took issue with the statement of James A. Colescott, recently elected Imperial Wizard, that the Klan would promote the interests of the "native born, white Protestant, Gentile population of the United States."

Colescott, 42-year-old former veterinarian of Terre Haute, Ind., was chosen Imperial Wizard of the Klan at a secret "Klonvocation" by representatives of the hooded order from thirty-four states. He immediately announced that "The fiery cross will again blaze on the hill-tops of America."

"It is a pity this sort of thing has started up again," Bishop O'Hara said.

Certain rumors, which I believe are substantiated, are being circulated to the effect that anti-Catholic literature is being distributed here and that the KKK has practically proclaimed through its newly elected head that there is no room in Georgia or America for Catholics."

The Bishop's statement were viewed with special interest here in view of the fact that some two months ago Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia, an ardent supporter of Generalissimo Franco in Spain, had been photographed with Dr. Hiram Wesley Evans, the outgoing Wizard.

ILD. WILL FIGHT CONVICTION IN BROOKLYN SCOTTSBORO CASE

New York, July 19 (CNA) The conviction of John Williams, Brooklyn youth, on a charge of "rape" will be appealed, the International Labor Defense announced this week. Williams was convicted last week by an all-white jury in Part 6, Special Sessions Court of Kings County. The John Williams Defense Committee of the ILD is handling the defense with Samuel A. Neuburger of the ILD legal staff as chief of counsel.

Williams, who had lived and worked in the enshrouded section of Brooklyn for more than five years and was well liked as honest and hardworking, according to character testimony at the trial, was arrested Dec. 29, '38, on "rape" charges brought against him by Irene Richards, a white maid in the home of J. Roth, whose services Williams had recently left. The young woman's cry of "rape" was not raised until three weeks after the alleged crime had been committed. Williams was not indicted until 78 days later and had been held in the Raymond St. Jail, Brooklyn, until put on trial last week.

It was brought out at the trial that Miss Richards and Williams had known each other intimately for four years and had seen each other during this period practically every day. In her testimony at the trial, however, the girl swore that she had been afraid of the youth.

When pressed as to why she had been afraid of a man she had known intimately and seen daily, she asserted that she was "afraid of all Negroes."

Negro Education Facilities Lag Gov't Finds

Washington, July 18 (CNA)—A government survey disclosed this week that Negro education made marked advances in the last 20 years but still lagged behind accepted standards.

Estimating the number of 1935-1936 graduates from Negro public high schools in 18 Southern States at 185,000, Office of Education experts said that number was 50 per cent more than all members of the group enrolled in high schools in 1915-1916. Then only 58 per cent of the Negro children 6 to 14 years old were attending. In 1930-1931 the percentage was 84 per cent.

Hosts to Nat'l Dental Association

Pictured above are the members of the North Harlem Dental Society, who are to be the hosts to the National Dental Association in their annual convention August 14 to 18 in New York city.

The convention headquarters is Public School 113 at 113th street, between 7th and 8th avenues. The exhibits will be on display at the headquarters. The general clinics will be given at the College of Oral and Dental Surgery of Columbia university and the surgical clinics at Harlem hospital. The New York World's Fair 1939 Committee on Special Events has set aside August 17th as National Dental Association Day to commemorate the progress of the Negro Dentist and prominent speakers from civic life and scientific pursuits will address the open air meeting of the society held on the Fair Grounds.

Entertainment for the visiting ladies includes sight-seeing tours to Radio City, Fifth Avenue shops, World's Fair and other places of interest as well as the business of the Ladies Auxiliary of the National Dental Association.
