Goodwin preached for us in our evening service. He delivered a stirring message from Genesis 1:1 verse ("In the beginning) God created Heaven and the earth.") Our visitors were Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Robinson of Chicago, Ill. We invite you to come and help us carry on the work of our Lord.

MT. CALVARY COMMUNITY CHURCH
Rev. R. W. Johnson, pastor
Romell Hatter, reporter

Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m. with Supt. and teachers in charge. Subject of lesson: Rehoboam: A man who made a foolish choice. Golden text: "A Man's Pride Shall bring Him Low." Proverbs 29-29. The attendance was nice and everyone enjoyed the lesson. You are invited to be with us next Sunday morning.

The morning service opened promptly at 11:00 a. m. with the choir singing "The Lord is in His Holy Temple. The procession was led by the assistant pastor, Rev. M. Jackson. A soul stirring message was brought to us by our pastor. Subject: "How Shall We Escape." Heb. 2 chapter 3rd verse. A spiritual feast was enjoyed by all.

The Spiritual Union opens at 6:30 P. M. with Sister Mickle presiding. The lesson was taken from Matthew. We are inviting you to come and help in these bible discussions.

At 7:30 P. M. devotional service and 8:00 P. M. the evening services started. After the universal prayer was offered for the sick. Our pastor delivered to us another fine message. Subject: "Dry Bones." Ezek. 37th chap. 3rd verse.

Everyone is invited to attend all services. Come and let us give God praise.

Don't forget the Hay-Ride given by the Pastor's Aid Club Saturday July 22. Trucks will leave the church at 8:45 P. M., from 2426 Grant St. You are invited to come and go to the park with us. See the members and get your tickets early. Refreshments free.
Sister Smith is still on the sick list.

ST JOHN AME CHURCH
Robye Maye Edmonson, reporter
Dr. R. A. Adams, pastor
"The Friendly Church"

Sunday school opened by Asst. Supt., 9:15. There was an unusual large Sunday school. The social which was given last Wednesday was a magnificent success. Mrs. R. L. Edmonson, Supt. of Primary Dept. is indisposed.

Rev. Adams spoke Sunday with his text the "Gentleness of God" Matt. 12:20. For members of St. John it was quite a reunion to have our pastor with us again. The Pew Rally was quite a success. The program was excellent. It was presided over by our own charming Mrs. T. H. Goodwin.

The Stewards are to duly complimented by their success. Don't forget tomorrow is the Fourth Sunday and the choir is presenting their usual Sunday requests. All requests should be turned in before Sunday. Speaking of the choir, they sing tomorrow morning over station KOWH at 9:15.

Don't forget Womens' Day, July 30. Men, watch out! The women are out to triumph over you. Because of many requests Mrs. L. S. Adams will serve as chairman of the Women's Day Effort.

The ACE League was well attended Sunday. Our pastor gave a very helpful discussion on the twelfth chapter of Ecclesiastes. Miss Rucker past president of the league who now resides in Nashville, Tennessee was our guest. Miss Rucker was quite active in the church before her departure from our city. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rucker. All visitors are welcome to St. John AME. You will find all church news in the Omaha Guide.

MOUNT NEBO CHURCH
Claudia Seay, reporter
Rev. Pruitt, pastor

Sunday school opened at 9:45 with our Supt. in charge. The opening song was "Rescue the Perishing." Prayer was led by our Supt. after which the teachers led their classes in a 15 minute period of discussion. The lesson was Rehoboam: "A Man Who Made A Foolish Choice." Our pastor reviewed the lesson by asking the school questions about the lesson. Our Supt. also gave us information about the Sunday School Picnic.

11 o'clock service opened with congregation singing "I Love The Lord." Prayer was led by brother McCarthy. Scripture reading was taken from the first verse of the book of John. Our pastor preached a spiritual sermon. Subject: "You Be Born Again." His text was taken from the third chapter of St. John third verse. Everyone enjoyed the sermon. Visitors for the morning sermon were Rev. Davis, Mr. Jones and Sister Barnes.

BYPU opened at 6:00 with our faithful Supt. brother Bradshaw. Opening song was "I Want To Be a Christian." Prayer was led by our Supt. The topic of the lesson was "Recreation for the Christian Youth." Mr. John Newton, a visitor discussed the lesson and gave us many facts about the bible. He gave us four rules to follow in order to lead a good christian life which all come under the world "Come." They are: "C" for confess; "O" for obey; "M" for Maintain; and "E" for endure. Our Supt. wants more children to attend the BYPU. He also enjoys having social outings for the young people. Recently we took the young people on a picnic at Elmwood Park and he is planning many other social trips. Visitors are always welcome to Mt. Nebo.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank my friends for expressions of sympathy at the death of my son, Andrew Reed. Especially do I thank Rev. J. W. Williams for his consoling remarks to me and his many friends.
Mrs. Anna Reed, mother

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
F. Burroughs, reporter

For the morning worship the second division of the subject "What Time Is It With You?" was discussed.

Sunday afternoon at the parsonage at 4 o'clock was the scene of a lovely wedding ceremony. Miss Vivian Billips of Los Angeles, California and Mr. Thomas Jones, son of Rev. and Mrs. Jones were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the bride grooms' father, Rev. F. P. Jones.

The bride was beautifully attired in white satin with a veil that trailed off into a lovely flowing train. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Florence Hutchinson also of Los Angeles. Mr. Floyd Brown was best man.

After the ceremony a dinner party for the bride and groom was served. Covers were laid for eight. A lovely cake was baked by Mrs. Holmes.

The reception is to be held at a later date.

BREWSTER THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

Two very enjoyable weeks of camp have just been completed by the girl reserves of the North side branch of the YWCA. The following spent the first week of July 2 through July 6. The Misses Elsie M. Mallory, Mardi M. Miller, Jean E. Rose, Velma Thomas, Betty Riggs, Evelyn Chue, Harriet Green and Delores Cadwell. During the week of July 6-July 16 these girls were at camp: the misses Elsie M. Mallory, Juanita Hanger, Dorothy Smith, Charlotte Preston, Jeanne Rudd, Ruth Norman and Juanita Agee. The counselor, Mrs. Charlotte Crawford, spent the two weeks with the girls.

The rising bell rang at 7:30 every morning and lights were out busy and complete days with a variety of outlets presented to them. During the two weeks, five girls were taught to swim and practically all could float before they left. Many like a five mile swim each day and Saturday of the second week, three girls went on an eighteen mile hike which they enjoyed immensely. The girls also went in for archery, tennis, ping-pong, and music. Four girls went in the choirs that sang at Sunday worship. The Misses Jean Rose and Charlotte Preston, respectively worked on the newspaper staff; and the Misses Mallory and Jean Rose, and Jeanne Rudd, respectively were members of the council. The council is the ruling body of the camp that decides on the camp rules and chooses the evening program. It is made up of a girl from each cabin. The newspaper staff accepted and printed the following poem written by Miss Elsie Mallory:

This is my chance to voice my praise
Of camp in summer time.
The things we do at Brewster Camp
Make ev'ryone feel fine.
To get away from city dust
From city smoke and heat,
You need to go to camp awhile,
It really can't be beat.

The girls you meet, the friends you make
Will broaden life for you,
The games you play, the songs you sing
Will make life merry, too.
A real cool place in which to swim
Helps much in keeping cool,
The water really does feel good,
When you are in the pool.
The clear blue skies above your head
Soft earth beneath your feet—
I'm sure you'll all agree with me
They really are a treat.
With all its merits and its faults
Camp Brewster's where you come
A place where you can enjoy life

HOW TO RECOVER STOLEN ITEM FREE FROM PAWNSHOP
If an article stolen from you is located in a pawnshop, go to municipal court for a replevis order and it will be returned to you.
This was Municipal Judge D. Depley of Mayor Butler and Police E. O'Brien's answer to the police Commissioner Jepsen Monday upon learning that Everett Huey, 2502 North Sixteenth street, had to pay a pawnbroker $4 to recover a $7 bicycle which had been stolen from him.
He invited Huey to come to his office this morning for a practical demonstration on how to recover his $4.
Municipal courts are the only ones in the state which have the option of waiving prepayment of filing fees and other costs where needy persons are involved, Judge O'Brien explained.

DEAN MAYS PERFORMS RITES AT NIECES WEDDING

Washington, July 19 (ANP) — Dean Benjamin Mays of Howard University performed the marriage ceremony which saw his niece, Miss Emma Lallage Burton become the bride of Mr. Amos Rye, Saturday evening, in the home of Dean and Mrs. Mays on the University campus.
Mid the usual bridal settings of palms and flowers and candles, the simple and dignified ritual was performed by Dean Mays as the bridal party assembled at the altar.
Attending the bride was Mrs. William Bell, matron of honor. The best man was Ezekiel Chappelle.

MRS. BETHUNE MAY GIVE UP NYA POST

SEEKS SECURITY FOR HER SCHOOL

Denies Rumors She May Become National Organizer for Democratic Party

Washington, July 19 (ANP) — Despite denials by Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, stories still persist regarding her resignation from the office she holds with the National Youth administration.

Stories to the effect that Mrs. Bethune would resign her position to work as organizer for the National Democratic party, gradually gaining wide circulation were, emphatically denied by Mrs. Bethune in an interview Thursday morning.

"I am not in politics. I am here as an educator. I am here as an interpreter of my people. I am here making contacts for them. I never made a political speech, I have never been asked to make one," Mrs. Bethune said.

"I believe very definitely in the program of the New Deal," she continued. "I believe it is helpful to the masses of my people. It gives an opportunity to the underprivileged. It helps to extend a most human program and I am trying to integrate my people in the set-up."

"My school comes first. I did not come here seeking a job, the job came seeking me. I carved my job 34 years ago. And now, if the people want me to stay on this job, then let them show it. Right now my school has got to be taken care of. There is a deficit of $7,000 to be met and an endowment of $135,000 to be raised before the school can meet the requirements for a Class A school.

"I am truly grateful for the gracious tribute paid me over the radio Sunday by the South-easterners. I am humbly grateful to them and I do pray that the song they dedicated to me be reflected in my life. The song was 'Soldier of God.'"

Negroes Waking Up

Asked about the recent demonstration in Miami, Fla. when Negroes participated in the primary voting, Mrs. Bethune said: "Negroes are waking up. They are tired of playing hide and seek, which was sufficiently long. Though the Chamber of Commerce and the president of that organization they came to the front and demonstrated to those people Negroes are not cowards. It was one of the finest demonstrations yet made, and Negroes should keep on doing those kind of things."

When asked about her political beliefs and whether or not she was in sympathy with the ideals of the Democratic party and its actions as expressed in the South, Mrs. Bethune declared: "I am in sympathy with the ideals of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, but as far as the Democratic party goes I don't believe in them. I am with Franklin Delano Roosevelt as long as he holds to his present ideals."

That some adjustments may be made and that conditions at Bethune-Cookman are not as favorable as she would like them was gathered from Mrs. Bethune's repetition of the school's name and place in her life. Earlier it had been reported that Mrs. Bethune would leave the NYA to return to manage the affairs of the school, which had missed her leadership since her affiliation with the NYA.
