

At the Races

Shown in the foreground the three figures are Mrs. Wm. Triplett, Mrs. Paul Barnett and Mrs. E. Gibson, enjoying a day at the recent races.
—Photo by Ray Wells

Elks Parade

Nat Hunter, Exalted Ruler Chas. F. Davis and Visiting Elk photographed during Elk parade.

Maxwell Butcher is shown leading Omaha band in Elks parade
—Photo by Brad

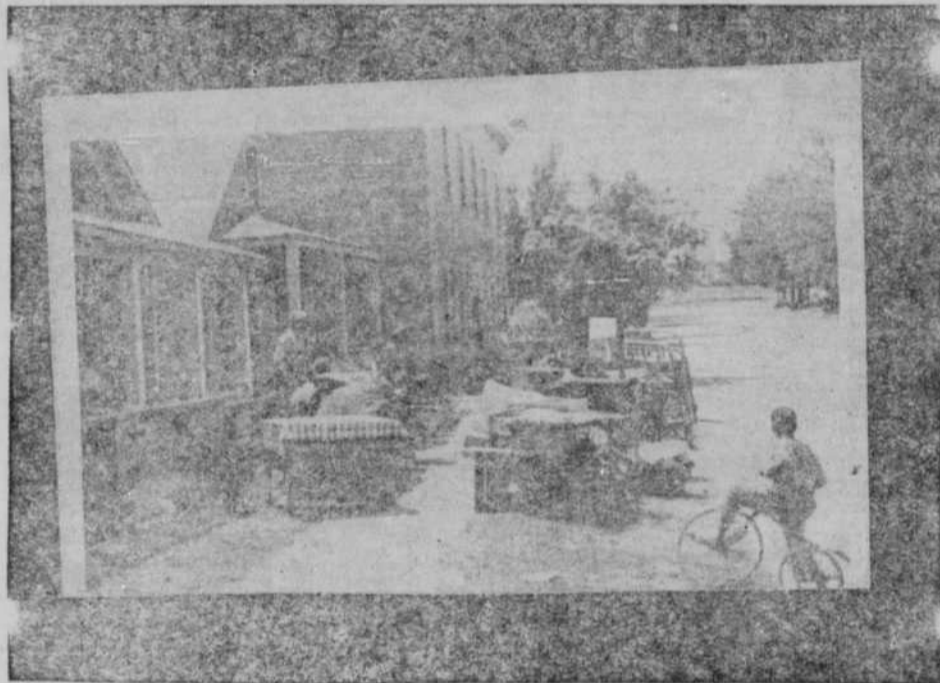

Jean Claxton and Dorothy Jackson leading the Omaha drum and bugle corp during Elks parade.
Photos by Brad—

Legion Drum Corp

The American Legion Drum Corp in a close-up— Commander Hamilton, leader is shown in action.
—Photo by Brad

SCENE FROM THE RECENT MOORE FAMILY EVICTION IN SOUTH OMAHA

—Photo by Brad

Recent O. U. Grad

EDNA BLAIR

—Photo by Stanley

Praised by President

G. JAMES FLEMING

Editor in Chief of the Kappa Journal, official organ of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, who received a letter of congratulation from President Franklin D. Roosevelt on the recent 25th anniversary of the Journal. Mr. Fleming, one of the best trained "working journalists" in the race, is pictured above "in action." He took a degree in journalism from the University of Wisconsin, where he also established a record as an orator. He was trained at Hampton Institute before going west. Mr. Fleming now lives in Philadelphia, Pa., where he has headquarters at 1504 Catherine street.

TEXAS WOMENS CLUBS MEET

TEXAS COLORED WOMEN'S CLUBS MEET

Top: Delegates to the 34th annual session of the Texas Federation of Colored Women's Clubs assembled before Rockefeller Hall Bishop college, Marshall Texas.

Lower right: Texas Junior Federation delegates who met with their elders.

Lower left: President Joseph J. Rhoads, host to the thirty fourth annual session of the Texas Federation of Colored Women's Clubs and the Federation's president, Mrs. W. E. Brackens of Fort Worth, Texas. They appeared before the Federation in a surprise fictitious "graduation hour," during its closing session at Bishop College recently and conferred the "Bachelor of Service degree" upon two hundred delegates and members of the local entertainment committee. The surprise was the climax of a program of brilliant entertainments, including a formal three course dinner, a reception, an ice melon supper, and a breakfast picnic in the State Park on Caddo Lake.

THE LARGEST ACCREDITED COLORED NEWSPAPER
West of Chicago and North of Kansas City
Read The Guide