

Co-eds of Central high

Photo by Stanley

Louise Grey, Joyce Blair, Inez Saunders, 3 co-eds of Central High school strolling home from school one sunny afternoon.

Can you guess who this is?

WE'LL GIVE YOU 100 GUESSES ANSWER ON PAGE 12

Charming Daughter

Miss Shirley Ann Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Curry. Photo by Stanley

Popular Matron

Mrs. Robbie T. Davis photo by Brad

Miss Irene Harreld

Photographed in her new Sunday Hat. photo by Brad

Centralites

Wins Scholarship

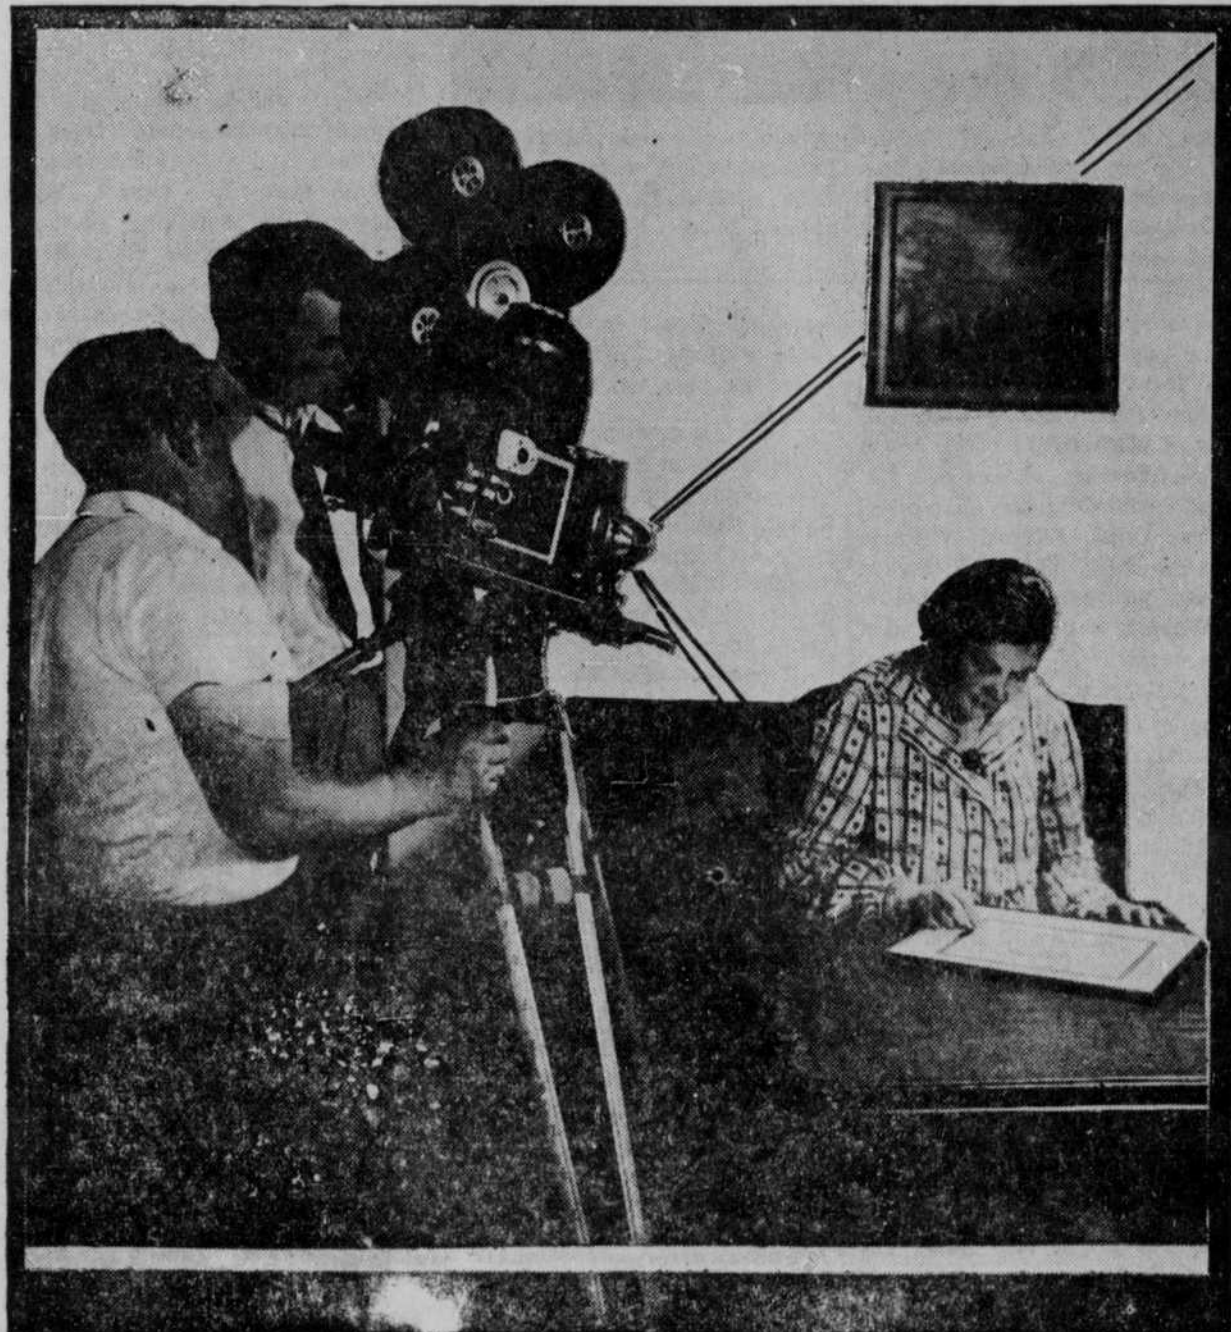

Misses Inas Sanders and Doris Ware, popular Central high students. photo by Brad

To Enter Central Hi

Miss Alice Simmons who will enter Central High school in Sept. Photo by Stanley

Hollywood Depicts Teachers Art

Mrs. C. Rosenberg Foster, teacher in Chicago's DuSable high school being photographed by cameramen from Paramount studios. They are making a movie "short" showing her working on the remarkable pictures which she makes from waste material. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who recently featured Mrs. Foster in her column "My Day", praising her discovery and recommending it for schools, ordered four of her pictures sent to the White House.

Mrs. Foster has just finished writing a book, "Trashcraft" describing the methods which she uses in teaching the technique to her high school students.

(ANP)

Recuperating

Mrs. Grace Stanley who is just recuperating from a serious illness. Photo by Stanley

Miss Sara Richardson, graduate, 1939 —class of Chester (Penn.) High school, who in a competitive test, won this year's scholarship awarded by National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, teacher's sorority. Miss Richardson plans to attend State Teachers College in West Chester, Penna. Mrs. Onaida Cockrell of Chicago, is grand basileus of Phi Delta Kappa. (ANP)