'The Lucky Bag was originally in custody of the Master-at-arms in which all articles of clothing, etc., picked up around the ship, were kept. Once each month, this bag was brought to the mainmast and the owners of the articles, if their names were on them, got them back with a few lashes on the bare back for their carelessness. The term 'Lucky' in this case, was sailor humo: for 'unfor-

Recently professors and psychologists have had much to say regarding the "character' 'revealed in a person's "Doodles" — those unconscious little scrawls and scribbles one makes on newspaper margins, telephone pads and the like. But in offering this entertaining series of "Doodle-bug" heads, we claim no ulterior motive. We prefer to think that most folks just "doodle" for fun! So go to it with a soft pencil, and see how many varied and amusing expressions and types you can create from the simple outline heads which will appear in this paper. Remember, it's the latest pastime, and "Everybody's Doodling it!"

"The United States Navy is the only Navy in the world that has in its possession a British royal standard taken by capture. This standard, now at the United States Naval Academy, was captured by Commodore Chauncey at York, Canada.

"The bakers on the U.S.S. PEN-SACOLA seem to have the right idea. ## NASHVILLE SCHOOL PRINCI-PAL, 3 VETERAN TEACHERS, RETIRED ON PEISIONS

Nashville, August 3 (ANP)-On the list of 24 teachers granted "honorable discharges" from service last week by city board of education, were one principal and three teachers in the colored schools of Nashville.

The principal retired on pension was Mrs. Sara Page, for the past two years head of Atkins, and prior to that time principal for a number of years of Hadley school. She had 31 years' service. Also retired was Nashville's oldest colored teacher in point of service, Miss Lena Jackson, teacher of Latin at Pearl high school, who had served the public school systhe city's most highly respected tem for 53 years, and was one of members of the teaching force. Her retirement caused greater comment than that of any other teacher.

Other weterans whose retirement was sincerely regretted by both student body and fellow teachers were Mrs. M. A. Southall, 22 years' service and assigned to Lawrence school, and prof R. E. Battle, 32 years' service and a well known mechanical arts teacher at Washington Junior High
