WHAT ELKS DO POLITICALLY?

Lester McGrady, white employee for the Phillips Petroleum company faces a charge of brutally raping Cecelia Bailey, 16 year old maid, Tuesday morning in the second division of the city court before Judge Clark E. Tucker.

The attack occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Howard, 1724 North Thirteenth Street, early Thursday morning, August 3, where she was nursing the children of the Howards. According to the girl's statement, she was asleep when someone knocked on the door, but she did not answer the door. The intruder, whom police records revealed was Lester McGrady, of 1908 North Thirteenth street is said to have forced his way into the home, choked the girl and forced her to submit to his will, even though she was sick.

The girl is regularly employed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hutchings, 1715 North Thirteenth street and was only nursing the two children of the Howards at the time of the attack. She stated that she ran out of the house after the attack to her employer's home and Mr. Hutchings came over to the Howard's home and caught the intruder in the bathroom. Hutchings, an employee in the police department called police officers and the intruder was arrested and booked as Lester McGrady. State charges were filed against him, and he was released on a $1,000 bond.

Local civic organizations manifested an interest in the case this week and asked that McGrady be given a speedy trial and convicted if guilty. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Wyandotte County Association of Colored Women, the Parent Teachers Association, and the Ministers' Alliance pledge to aid in every way possible toward the proper procedure and prosecution of the intruder. A committee held a conference with Arthur J. Stanley, Jr., county attorney and asked that he personally conduct the prosecution.

The committee was composed of Dr. Wm. Blount, James A. Hamlett, Jr., Milton Bledsoe, R. B. Brown, David White and U. G. Plummer representing the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Mrs. Gustava Gray, Association of Colored Women, Mrs. Ella Bailey and Mrs. O. M. Freeman representing the Parent Teachers Association.

(In the Gaines case) Redmond, of Mo., Dr. J. H. E. Westbrook of Denver, James E. Kelley, grand secretary of the Elks, Roy Bond, Baltimore lawyer and Perry B. Jackson, assistant prosecuting attorney of Cleveland. This group has dubbed Taft as "the ideal candidate," and are prepared to fight for his recognition at New York.

Whatever may transpire, one thing is certain, and Senator Millard F. Tydings of Maryland will vouch for it; the colored Elks wield a tremendous political influence. For last year at Baltimore (continued on page 8)

Mrs. Webster was a native of Memphis, Tenn., but had lived in Gary since 1913. Mr. Webster to whom she had been married 29 years was her second husband. They are said to have been divorced for nearly a year, however, recently it is alleged that they had been seeing a good deal of each other and it was her jealousy of her ex-husband and Mrs. Caldwell, with whom he worked at a daily local newspaper office, that led to the Elk ruler's death.

Edward Joseph, league secretary, stated that thousands of post cards have been circulated on the South Side in the campaign to force the big utility to abolish its job discrimination against Negroes. These postcards, addressed to Illinois Bell Telephone Com-

The Chicago Urban League Board, which will meet soon, will discuss the job question, and is expected to join the boycott movement for jobs.
