

12 OF THE 35 SOCIAL WORK PLACEMENTS MADE OF ATLANTA U. SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK GRADUATES DURING THE PAST YEAR

Oklahoma City Minneapolis Toronto, Canada Canton, O. Charlotte, N.C.

Little Rock, Ark. Houston, Tex. Chicago, Ill. Lexington, Ky. Tampa, Fla. South Africa

Public and private social welfare agencies in urban and rural areas throughout the entire United States are represented in the above group of twelve of the thirty-five graduates of the Atlanta University School of Social Work who received placements in social work employment during the past school year. Reading from left to right, they are: First row—Misses Alison H. Berry, Case Worker, Child Welfare Division, State Department of Public Welfare, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Magnolia Latimer, Head Resident, Phyllis Wheatley House, Minneapolis, Minn.; Marie Randolph, Case Worker, Family Welfare Society, Toronto, Ontario, Canada; Anna Mae Shepherd, Girls' Work Secretary, Canton (Ohio) Urban League; William H. Wilcox, Case Worker, Mecklenburg County Board of Public Welfare, Charlotte, N. C.; Second Row—Misses S. Floescia Hill, Executive Secretary, Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, Little Rock, Ark.; Helen Williams, Case Worker, Child Welfare Association of Fulton and DeKalb counties, Atlanta, Ga.; Third row—Mewellyn K. Shivery, Boys' Work Executive, YMCA, Houston, Texas; Misses Florence Robinson, Senior Case Worker, Chicago Relief Commission, Chicago, Ill.; Frances Glass, Case Worker, Child Welfare Division, Fayette County Department of Public Welfare, Lexington, Ky.; Charles Boyer, Executive Secretary, Tampa Urban League, Tampa, Fla.; and J. Richard Rathebe, Executive Secretary, the Bantu Men's Social Center, Johannesburg, South Africa.

MR. HERMAN FRIEDLANDER—Everyone knows him. Photo by Stanley

Do You Enjoy the Picture Page

Write and Tell Us!

Sponsors Trip through Iowa. Rev. D. Nicholson, Pastor 2nd Bapt. Church Clarinda, Ia.

MR. AND MRS. GERALD PARKS

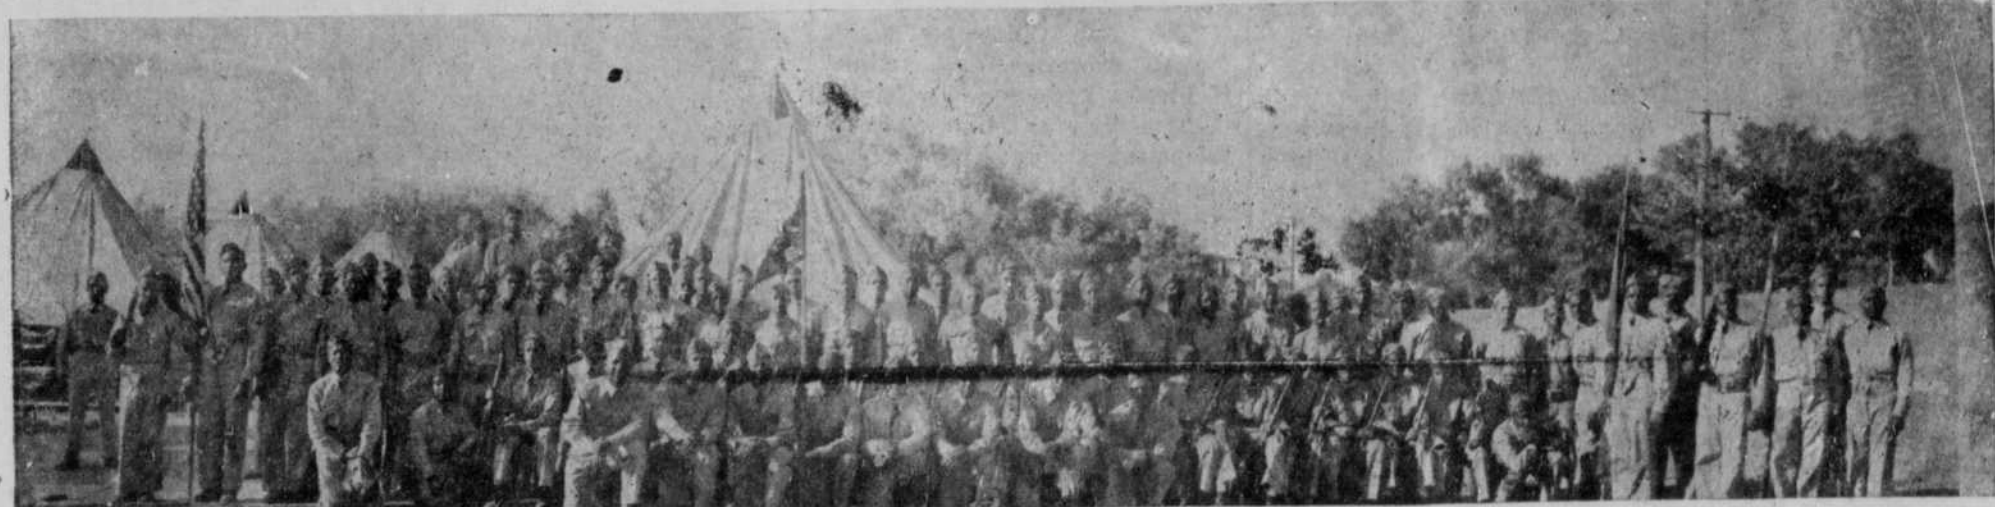

OMAHAS INTERDENOMINATIONAL S. S. ALLIANCE OFFICIALS AT PICNIC

Rev. F. P. Jones, Mr. Ollie Lewis, Mr. Webb Mrs. D. W. Gooden Rev. Nicholson

THOUSANDS ATTEND SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC AT ELMWOOD

OMAHANS RETURN FROM CMTC CAMP boys returned home after a 30 days stay in CMTC Camp at Fort Riley, Kansas. These boys arrived in the city August 4th: Herman Washington Jr., 2404 N. 25th St., Wesley, 2728 Burdette St, Henry and Curt's Woods. The boys report a wonderful time while at camp. William Houston, 3130 Pinkney St., Willard Morgan, Thomas Watson, 2862 Lake, Christopher Omaha, Earl News, John Ross,

THE LARGEST ACCREDITED COLORED NEWSPAPER
West of Chicago and
North of Kansas City
Read The Guide