NADINOLA BLEACHING CREAM

THIS WEEK IN RELIGION & THOUGHT

by ROBERT L. MOODY

Last week we commented on the general conditions relative to crime. Now we shall consider a specific phase of this report. Mr. Hoover also stated that "12 per cent of our murderers, 28 per cent of our robbers, 24 per cent of our rapists and 25 per cent of our auto thefts were under 21 years of age. The responsibility of this youthful delinquency rests more upon the shoulders of the adult than upon the youth. It is largely because of the lack of discipline. 30 million homes hold the solution."

Much is being done through such social agencies as the YMCA and the YWCA; Urban league and general recreation centers. The Sunday or Church schools are doing much to train youth in the right way. Often these are not as fervent as they should be.

But the best solution is the revival of the pioneer American fireside or "home training." This cannot be possible unless our present parents are saved, God fearing men and women.

Child training begins before conception; it merely becomes visible after birth.

Sick and the Universe. Much spiritual food was gained from this prayer. We should all pray.

The Famous Gospel Singers from Kansas City, Missouri will be here the first week in Sept. Also Sister Gore, the famous Evangelist will be here in Sept to carry on a revival. Every one is invited.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
F. Burroughs, reporter

Attendance at the morning worship was very good. A number of visitors from out of town were present, as well as many persons of the city.

In the pulpit were Rev. Jones, and Rev. Kay Allen. The Holy Spirit came to visit us as the sermon got under way. First it lifted our pastor out of himself and used him as it willeth. While he fed us the living word many souls caught on fire from the spark that illuminated his soul, and they too rejoiced in the God of their salvation. The subject that was so timely arousing and stirring every soul that knew him was "What Shall I do With Jesus Which Is Called The Christ?" Matthew 27:22.

The Christian family is entirely too quiet about their religion. Lets make a noise and let the world know that we are happy and proud to be the servants of God and followers of His Son, Jesus.

For the evening worship Acts 2nd chapter, was the text of the subject, the "Glorious Book." After a short discourse Rev. Jones then brought some high lights from the Baptist World Alliance which was very interesting.

Among the visitors present were Miss Thelma Seals of Keokuk, Ia. Miss Seals is also the house guest of Rev. and Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Pillers of Baxter Springs, Kan.

Mrs. Crumbly, Kansas City and Miss Martha James of Pensacola,

ST JOHN AME CHURCH

Sunday school opened at 9:15. The devotionals were led by Mrs. A. Burton. The subject of the lesson was: Elisha: A Life of Helpfulness. Main points that were brought out. A little captive maid was "big" enough to show good will to those who held her in bondage. The question we should ask ourselves in view of this fact should be, are we "big" enough to show good will to those who injure us? The lesson was enjoyed by all in attendance. Rev. C. Flipper of Kansas City, Mo., gave a few timely remarks. I notice that in Mrs. Gertrude Halyts class a person who has been absent from out midst. Mr. William Watts is back in the city with his charming bride.

Sunday morning services at St. John were very impressive as usual but very interesting. Rev. C. Flipper from Kansas City, Mo., was the guest speaker Sunday morning. The subject of his text was "Man's Standard." His text was found in Matthew 1:25 (latter part): "And he called his name Jesus." All was favorably impressed by his sermon. His outline of "Jesus" was very outstanding. It is a good outline, and I think I'll

Father Divine's angels... their destination "Peace."

'Angels' Here in a 'Guaranteed' Bus

Sixteen followers of Father Divine went through Omaha Tuesday in a 1933 bus "guaranteed" by Father Divine against mishap.

So well has the guarantee worked, they said, that so far they haven't even had a puncture in about six thousand miles.

The guarantee was offered when the leader of the group, Cordia Cotton of Los Angeles, wrote Father Divine, asking approval of the trip.

During a stop here at twenty-fourth and Grant streets the 16 "angels" evangelized busily. Mrs. C. H. Dodge of Englewood, who prefers to be known by her "spiritual name," Martha Kindness, said her husband was cured instantly of cancer at Father Divine peace mission.

Sweet Evangeline, one of the "children," told of "sweet father's" edicts: To pay all debts, accept no relief, don't borrow or lend.

The bus is covered with signs—"Peace—Thank You Father," "Out of One Blood God Created All Mankind." The panel up in front which ordinarily contains the sign showing the destination of the bus has merely "Peace."

pass it on to you who were not with us, J-Justification, E-Elevator, S-Sanctification, U-Union, S-Salvation.

The women who attended the Nebraska Conference of the Women's Nite Missionary Society reported successful meeting. Sunday evening the league was postponed 1 hour later at 7:30 due to the fact that the league had charge of the evening services. The panel discussion held by the league proved very interesting. The subject of the panel was: "What Can We Do About Intemperance." Speaker on this discussion was Miss Eva Mae Stewart of Pilgrim Baptist church. Discussion was very intelligent as to what the "individual could do."

Miss Stewart discussion was well prepared. Miss Stewart proved very eloquent. Rev. Adams spoke on "What the Society could do." Rev. Adams always brings out many helpful suggestions. Mr. Eugene Murray gave a wonderful rendition of "My Lord, What A Morning." Miss Frances Cole also gave us a wonderful solo, "Where is My Boy Tonight." Edna Blair gave answers to liquor, traffic problems. Miss Bernice Grice, accompanied by Miss Ora Lee Brett, rendered a saxophone solo entitled "Abide with Me." Miss Grice exhibited quite a bit of musical talent. Mesdames, Britt, Stewart, Birch, and Grice are students of Omaha University. Miss Tamer O'Neal served as an efficient mistress of ceremonies. A response to the discussion was given by Rev. Flipper. His main thoughts was "The Elder People know the harmful effects from alcoholic beverages and the youngsters should heed their warnings."

Sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Gardner. Our heartfelt sympathy to the family in its bereavement.

CAN PASTOR RUN 20.

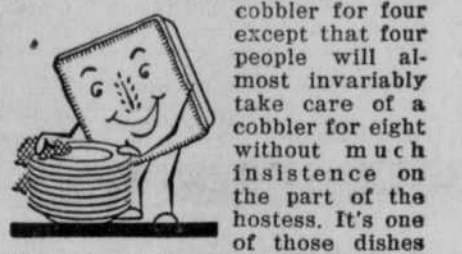

New York, Aug. 17 (Stan Kurman for CNA)—Bob Pastor asked for it and now it's in writing that he's going to get it.

Ever since Bicycle Bob stayed ten rounds with Joe Louis two years ago, he's been clamoring for a title fight. This week, papers were signed at the State Commission offices to make it official for sometime in September.

Boxing experts believe the answer is No. They admit that Pastor has come along recently as victories over slugging Roscoe Toles and Freddie Fiducia show. But they point out that Louis has showed up at a great rate since the first Pastor scrap. Louis, now a polished boxer, won't have the

Calvin's Newspaper Service TESTED RECIPE
By Frances Lee Barton

THE following cobbler recipe is for eight servings. Half the quantities would take care of a cobbler for four except that four people will almost invariably take care of a cobbler for eight without much insistence on the part of the hostess. It's one of those dishes that makes "second helpings" the rule rather than the exception.

Plum Cobbler

3 1/2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca; 1 1/2 cups sugar; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 2 tablespoons melted butter; 3 cups fresh red plums, halved and seeded; 2 cups sifted flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 6 tablespoons butter or other shortening; 1/2 cup milk (about).

Combine tapioca, sugar, salt, butter, and plums; let stand 15 minutes, or while crust is being made. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk gradually, stirring until soft dough is formed. Turn out on slightly floured board and knead 30 seconds, or enough to shape. Roll 2/3 of dough into strip, 2 inches wide and 1/4 inch thick; line sides of 8x8x2-inch pan, fitting closely into corners. Fill with plum mixture. Roll remaining 1/3 dough 1/4 inch thick; with sharp knife make slits to permit escape of steam. Fit over plums, pressing edges of dough together with fork dipped in flour. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 25 minutes; then reduce heat to moderate (350° F.) and bake 20 minutes longer. Sprinkle powdered sugar over top, if desired. Serves 8.
