GOLD GOES UP 35.95 PER OUNCE

I notice Mr. James Boogie Lee two beautiful front gold crowns have disappeared. I wonder why gold is awful high now since Hitler started drinking Black Forest. All the local boys are exchanging their gold for cash. Why not? I took my 3 teeth to the man and he told me no go b'g boy, I want gold, not brass. Where is that dentist of mine. Oh well, we are even. He gyped me and I owe him. All's well that ends well.

MY OWN RECIPE FOR MAKING KONK

As you know, Konk is what the boys straighten their hair with, you know all the boys that make their hair look so glossy and so shiny. Well here it is. The first thing you do is to get a steel boiler—get it. All right then get one can of lye, one half pound of bacon grease, mix thoroughly, add one cup muratic acid, get it o. k.—adds two table spoons of cyanide of potassium, shake well, add 6 ounce of carbolic acid, go out door to catch your breath—hurry back because the steel boiler is falling apart fast—did you get back in time? Well, alright then. Now you dig a hole 6 feet deep, bury the whole thing including the boiler if it is still all together and let it stay buried and don't go near the burial ground. Then you put some water on your hair a little vaseline, comb lightly for one hour and 52 minutes. Brush 47 minutes then if you don't look like Clark Gable go and see your barber. Tell him to shave your head clean as a chitterling so you can start all over again because your hair is bad.

SUNSET TAXI

Frank Jones got a $150.00 dollar gasoline pump and about 500 gallons of gasoline in the pump but listen to this—he got a ten cent lock to guard his treasure—Oh me.

DINING IN STYLE

3 beautiful young ladies dining at King Yuen Cafe Mrs. Cornett LeFalls, Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Juanita Cole. Table looked swell. Food from soup to nuts. Mrs. Olive Redd attending.

ARRIVED BACK HOME FROM TEXAS

Mr. Red Cole and Mrs. Cole and to daughters spent three weeks visiting Mrs. Cole's mother and uncle in the dear old southland. He reports all is well and doing the same. I notice Mr. Cole has gained a whole lot of weight in 3 weeks. If he had stayed 6 weeks he probably would have had to use a shoe horn to get himself in his beautiful car door. Miss Besie Cole will enter Tech high this fall. Her freshman year.

CASH COAL WIN FIRST GAME IN S. W. TOURNAMENT IN THE BLUFFS

The United Cash Coal Baseball team beat Neola, Iowa Sunday, August 27 to the tune of 8 to 1. The battery of Davis and Scott was unbeatable. All the Coal boys got one or more hits. Grady Frye Polo 2 triple. The last one was a home run in any man's game. Pack Suit Case Mason poled a triple also. This Suit Case fellow when he hit that old apple it got whisked on it just like a high cast Hindu untouched. I can't say too much for the whole team was a standout. The boys really performed well before a packed crowd. Just 2 errors made by the Coals. No damage done by either.

The performance put on by the old catcher Scottie was remarkable. That baby can catch when the chips are down. Plenty of chatter and team work also harmony has a big factor in winning that old ball game. You must remember Neola team have played and beat the best in the Southwest all this season. If the Coal boys had played baseball all the season like they played Sunday. They would have won the pennant by 5 games. Here's hoping. Good luck and hope you go to the finals.

DOCTOR JONES THE LOYAL FAN

The good doctor and his wife were Johnnie on the spot to give his sound advice to Soup Lawson before the game. The doctor brought along his boxing gloves to use on Soup if he pitched. A certain pitcher tipped him off. He left that pitcher in Omaha. I was mighty afraid for Soup. In the first frame the doctor started to put on his boxing gloves when Soup hit a double in the very 1st frame tried to steal third, with the ball in possession of the catcher. He got thrown out by three feet. Then Fry tripled one run. Well we won and Doctor Jones and his wife was happy and well paid for their loyalty to the United Cash Coal team.

TRACK MEET ON 21 BURDETTE STREET

The Urban League track meet was a rousing success. I never had so much fun since I left Wiley U. in 1914. Everybody did their best and did those kids enjoy themselves. Why a picnic couldn't have been better. My hat is off to the following officials of the meet:

- Mr. Martin Thomas
Miss Bernice Fowler
Mrs. Grace Bradford
Mrs. Travis Dixon
Mr. Fred Dixon
Mr. J. Curry.
And their assistants.

May we have a bigger and better one next year. I know you will because the official really have got the kids in their big hearts and that's what it takes patience. Dick Greer the big husky lad, former of Tech really showed his heels to his younger foes. Dick Greer is the lad to get hunting with nothing but his hands and track shoes. He runs up beside a rabbit and feel him to see if he is fat. He puts him into his bag. If not, he lets them go. This boy can track. Greer had 11 points. The HSS still leads. The HSS won the senior title with 30 points. Metz had 26 and Woodson Center 6.

Allen Thompson scored 20 pts., The Comets won the Junior meet with 27 points. Metz had 25; the Tiger, 11. Harrison of the speeds-racer had 19 points in the midget decision. His club had 37. Merchants scored 25; Ace 5 Burdette 3; Stars 1. Long School girls won with 28 points. Culturettes 3; Kellom 1.

SATURDAY NIGHT BACK HOME

JOHNNIE LEE ANDERSON

Scored 15 points. This kid can run. People just like a champ just as easy as a streamliner. Why nobody got with ten years of her. When she stretched out, you could count on one hand the boys her age that can give her a ten yards lead in a 50 yard dash and beat her. This kid is a whole track team by herself. The 50 and 100 yard dash she won all easy. Little Juanita Farmer is the only girl that made Johnnie Lee hustle. Juanita can track. She only ran in one event. You can't tell how good she is but the way she ran the 220, she can run for my change. Nice work girls. Keep it up. The exercise will do you more good than a doctor. Because if you exercise right you won't need a doctor. You can always find some good exercise in the kitchen after supper or on Mondays when the family wash day comes around. Keep trim by plenty of exercise.

RUNS INTO OFFICER'S CAR

Saturday August 26th, Roy Harris ran into Officer Birch's car and refused to stop. He abandoned his car at 26 and Lake St. and ran through the house of Mrs. Mattie Owens and got away. His car was taken to police headquarters and he was later caught for speeding.

NEW YORK'S DISTRICT ATTORNEY APPEARS FAIR "ON THE QUESTION"

(Continued from page 1) conference of judges in the district has recently paid particular tribute to Mr. Rivers' keen legal mind. He handles only cases in his selection as special district attorney to bust the New York racket, an accomplishment which focused national attention upon him.

Mr. Dewey is concerned that the administration of justice shall not be polluted by racial discrimination; he is determined that all persons, regardless of race, shall be equal before the law. During his career as a prosecutor, a number of incidents have occurred in which Mr. Dewey saved Negro defendants who had been unjustly accused of crime. Shortly after he took office as district attorney he made a personal appearance in court to free a young Negro, Tim Smith, who had been "framed" on a gun charge. Mr. Dewey not only had the case against Tim Smith discharged, but sent the policeman who had "framed" Smith to jail.

In his campaign for the governorship, Mr. Dewey also made clear his position on the necessity of continuing relief. So long as there are men and women in need, he declared, government's duty is to take care of them and so long as he had anything to say about it government would not shirk that obligation. Similarly, Mr. Dewey emphasized the need for low cost housing for the lower income groups—describing it as a long overdue activity of government.

It is understood that Mr. Dewey favors a system of cooperation between the federal and state governments in the direction of housing projects as well as relief. His attitude might well be summed up in the words: No law is any better than those charged with its enforcement. Indeed, Mr. Dewey's attitude seems to be than an honest, straight-shooting federal administration, interested in upholding the constitutional doctrine of equality, could serve in a supervisory capacity to insure that misguided citizens in no state would be able to wreak unjust discrimination upon any group. The federal government would thus serve an all-important role without actually usurping any of the functions of the states.

Mr. Dewey is also understood to favor the enactment of federal legislation designed to end the lynching evil. Indeed, in a letter to the NAACP recently, Mr. Dewey praised the association for its determined campaign to end lynching, describing it as one which would "aid our government in fulfilling its obligations to secure to citizens the right to life." On the question of the franchise, Mr. Dewey has always been emphatic. In that same letter he described the association's fight to end disfranchisement of the Negro citizen as "the outstanding effort in America today to preserve the traditional and sacred principle that government derives its power, from the consent of those governed."

On numerous other occasions he has reiterated his firm belief that all citizens of the United States, regardless of race or creed should be guaranteed the right of franchise and of equal opportunity for work. In the latter connection it was the Republican legislature of New York, under Mr. Dewey as titular leader of his party in the state, which passed four anti-discrimination measures, designed to insure equality in the civil service, unions and other fields. Two of the measures were vetoed by Democratic Governor Lehman.
