DISCRIMINATION IN NEW WAGE RATES TO BE FOUGHT -

New York, Oct. 13-Attempts on the part of chiseling employers, to sabotage the Wages and Hours Act, whose new provision go into effet October 24, by rowing dissension between white and colored workers will be bitterly fought by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, it was announcorl here today.

When the act enters its second year of operation, increased wages and shorter hours will affect more than 12,000 000 workers in interstate industry, a large part of them Negro workers in the South. On October 24 these employees will have their wages increased from 25 to 30 cents an hour. The regular work week will be reduced from 44 to 42 hours. It will be mandatory for emplopers to pay for all overtime in cash.

In a memorandum sent out to all branches of the organization in North Carolina and Virginia, the NAACP warne its members to be on the alert for evidences of discrimination by employers who will attempt to supplant Negro workers with whites, rather han pay the former the increased wage.
