services began with the choir in full bloom. The choir and orchestra are doing fine. Let everyone try to be in their seats at the opening of the services.

The opening of the service were conducted by Rev. E. Z. McDonald, assisted by Rev. Baker and Rucker. Then the pastor took charge of the services and preached from the 15th chapter of St. Luke. Subject: "God's Estimate of one Man." It was very helpful. The Trustees Rally will close Nov. 28th. Be sure and pay up your pledges. Those who have not pay, please pay if possible for the Trustees are in need of the same, to pay off some very urgent bills.

Bishop N. W. Williams, school of Religion, Western University of Quindaro, Kansas, P. E. J. Williams is asking the pastor and members make a liberal contribution to the school on Nov. 29th of can goods, money or anything needful. We hope to do well in every way since the congregation is increasing each Sunday.

Don't forget Sunday Nov. 26th is the choir request program, and get your request in on time. Don't forget to tune in each Sunday at 4:30 P.M. Station KOWH and hear your Jubilee singers.

THIS WEEK
In Religion and Thought

Thankful for What?
Many differences of opinion have been expressed about the two Thanksgiving days. Whatever day is set aside should be a day of prayer and praise to God for his innumerable blessings. The sacredness of this day has been forgotten by many. For thousands, Thanksgiving is just a day of feasting and revelling. We should be filled with gratitude if we have turkey or salt pork. "Count your blessings, name them one by one, and it will surprise you what the lord has done."

As a nation, we should be thankful for peace and freedom from war and its kindred horrors. Since last Thanksgiving another nation has lost its independence and hundreds of its citizens killed and its cities made desolate. No so with us, God has kept us from these and we should praise Him for it.

As a race, we have often been treated unfair and we now have many unpleasant experiences, but our conditions could be worse. When we read and think of how the Jews are treated in Germany and how the Austrians, Czechs, and Poles are treated in their own countries by members of the same white race, we do well to be thankful for America.

Individually, we may be thankful for health, relatives, friends, food, clothing and shelter. You may not have all that you want or need but you could have less. Thousands are confined to beds at home or in hospitals, insane asylums, in prisons, friendless and starving. If you are alive, healthy, sane and free, you may rejoice.

On both Thursdays, let us be thankful for "it is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord." Psalms 92:1.
