On Tuesday afternoon Dec. 26th at 4 P.M. a tea will be given at the Logan Fontenelle homes, 1450 23rd Plaza, sponsored by the Junior Auxiliary Club of the Urban League. At this time Miss Willa B. Player registrar of Bennett College will present the story of Bennett. Miss Player is also head of the French Department of Bennett College in Greensboro, North Carolina. She has spent a year of study at the University of Grenoble in Southern France and has done graduate work in Oberlin, Chicago and Wisconsin. Bennett is often referred to as the Vassar of Negro women as it is fast setting the standard of Negro women's colleges throughout the country. All are invited and especially those

BRADLEY HOME TO AUNT SISTER'S FUNERAL

John Bradley who is now in the CCC Camps at Wellington, Kan., was called home on account of the death of his sister, Miss Dorothy Bradley of 2715 Parker Street, Omaha, Nebr., who died in a local hospital on December 14th. Miss Bradley has been sick for more than a year. She was sixteen years of age and a student of Technical High school. She leaves to mourn her loss: a father, Zell Bradley, mother Sophronia Bradley, and three brothers and one sister.

Mr. John Bradley will be in the city visiting friends until January 8, 1940 at which time he will return to the CCC Camps for another eighteen months.

MODERN ART CLUB

The Modern Art Club met Dec. 18th with Mrs. H. L. Preston as hostess. The meeting was called to order by the president. Forty-five minutes were spent in a business meeting. And on account of some other plans, the date of the Xmas Party has been moved back to Wednesday Dec. 27, 1939. The time and place has not been changed. The members are working tirelessly to complete their Xmas presents. And as you know these lovely ladies exchange presents each year.

The hostess served a tasty repast. The time is approaching and the day is near that we all will celebrate that glorious day the Christ Child was born. And as a club, we are deeply grateful for the joy, gladness, and good tidings it brings. May we take this opportunity to extend to you a most cordial wish for a very Merry Christmas and, a New Year of Happiness. Mrs. D. C. Riddle; Mrs. L. C. Clark, Mrs. Claude McFall, Mrs. A. L. Hawkins, Mrs. W. R. Rogers, Mrs. Jasper Cole, Mrs. V. da Jowers, Mrs. W. L. Myers, Mrs. Charles Harrod, and Mrs. H. L. Preston. Mrs. Cozy Nicholson, Pres. Mrs. R. C. Price, Reporter

Mrs. C. M. Wiley of 2875 Ohio Street wishes to thank the many friends for the beautiful flowers, lovely cards and telephone calls, also visits during her recent illness at home and in the hospital.

The Friendly 16 Bridge Club met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Penn, 3111 Pinkney. The meeting was conducted in a fine state. After the meeting was over twelve hands of bridge was played. The awards were to Mr. P. Atkins and Mrs. Lefall. A delicious repast was served by the hostess.

"Earthly Paradise" Well Received

The Muse Drama Guild gave their initial performance, "Earthly Paradise," at the Urban League auditorium, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 17. The play, directed by Mrs. Raymond Brown, who was formerly director of the Richard B. Harrison Players of Akron, Ohio was well received by an enthusiastic and appreciative audience.

The cast, consisting of Mrs. S. C. Hanger, Miss Doris Newland, Mrs. Bert Fowler, Gaines Bradford and Mr. Richard Lewis, received many commendable statements on their fine performance. The artificial sunlight flooding the stage through the French doors added much to the scenic effect.

After the play, the guests enjoyed a social hour. The coffee table, decorated with candles and poinsettias, was presided over by Mrs. Elbert Sounthard assisted by Mrs. Grace Bradford and the NAA staff.

Mrs. Harvey Carter was in charge of make-up. Stage technician, Mr. Raymond Gordon; house manager, Mr. Saybert Hanger; and property manager, Mrs. Ray Williams.

"Merry Christmas"

This has become a trite expression but its true meaning has weight. For thousands of people this Christmas will not be merry because of war or financial ills. For those, Christmas will be a good one if they have health and salvation. They may not be destitute of many things, but if the love of the Babe of Bethlehem is in their hearts, they have the true Christmas spirit.

For those who may be able to give a few presents, remember that the price is not the most important factor.

"The gift without the giver is bare." We must remember those less fortunate than we are and share our happiness with them.

The Wise Men brought gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. We may not be able to give either one of these to our Lord or fellowmen, but we may decide in the sentiment of the childhood verse:

"What shall I give him (them) poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I'd give Him (them) a lamb;
If I were a Wise Man, I'd do my part,
Yet what shall I give Him (them)?—Give my Heart."

Mr. Saunders of Mt. Moriah's local will long be thankful, for the lovely weather we enjoyed last Sunday the 17th. Why? Because you know that night of all night was the "big night" even to his church known as White Gift service night and well, it deserved its name of "White Gift" because every thing was white but a few. And the giving, well from the looks of the envelope that went into the money container. I say the giving wasn't bad. About twenty or more ushers all uniformed and everything one hundred percent from the different locals headed by some of the presidents came to render what ever services they could to make the night one to be remembered by some act done by them.

That I feel safe in saying they did all of that, when they played their part so well in the "Ushers Basket Possession" was a scene within itself long to be remembered. Now Ushers, I am sure Mr. Saunders didn't mean, or think it that way. The reason he wanted you to keep one hand behind you while you were carrying the baskets, just a little precautionary measure you know. I told him I could vouch for all of you and you believed in Santa Claus.

Mr. Herbert reports a very successful pre-Mass Tea of last Sunday. Wish to thank all who helped to make it a success.

Zion's local held its election of officers last Sunday. Among those elected were: Mrs. Todd, reelected president; Mr. Westons, treasurer; Mrs. Caldwell, secretary; Jack Hall, assistant; Claude Williams, chaplin. Other officers will be appointed by the president at the next regular meeting.

Just hear we would like to offer a prayer for our "shut-ins" and those who haven't been able to attend our meeting. We are hoping to see them soon. We are all looking forward to the outcome of the old fashion box lunch spread. All those who are planning on coming out. Well bring your pastor, his wife and a friend or two and let's eat and be merry once again.

Glad to see so many Ushers on the job is it because Santa Claus is coming?

NEBRASKA GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

Carrying its work relief policies right into the Christmas season the Goodwill Industries here in Omaha feel that you, like many other Omaha citizens, believe that the best way to help people who are in need is to help them help themselves, by giving "Not Charity, but A Chance." This policy—you will agree, helps families to maintain their morale.

At the approach of Christmas this is doubly important, for most parents would much rather purchase presents for their kiddies from THEIR OWN EARNINGS than to have them come as gifts from charitable groups. Therefore, we are using this medium to inform people who are interested in this type of program to aid them in building up a permanent Revolving Fund to be used by the institution in order to provide creative employment for needy and handicapped people at the Christmas time and during dull seasons of the year. Goodwill agrees to keep this as a permanent fund by replenishing it from its own funds from time to time. We believe that this is the soundest way to insure the coming of Santa to some hundreds of Omaha kiddies.
