

THRU THE DARKNESS

I See by F. C. Williams

RACE PREJUDICE GETS SET-BACK:—President Roosevelt has spoken out again against racial hatred; the Dies Committee has found subversive activities on the wane in the United States; Governor Lehman has asked the New York State Legislature to ban discrimination in business affected with public interest and labor unions; the move to open Alaska to refugees has gained ground. These are the latest signs that America is keeping its head.

The President, in his message to

AN URGENT MESSAGE to women who suffer FEMALE WEAKNESS

Few women today are free from some sign of functional trouble. Maybe you've noticed YOURSELF getting restless, moody, nervous, depressed lately—your work too much for you—

Then why not take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to help quiet weary, hysterical nerves, relieve monthly pain (cramps, headache, backache) and weak dizzy fainting spells due to functional irregularities.

For over 60 years Pinkham's Compound has helped hundreds of thousands of weak run-down, nervous "ailing" women to go smiling thru "difficult days." Why not give this wonderful "woman's friend" a chance to help YOU? Try it!

OH, JOY!

What a joy to get relief from a cough due to a cold. Get it with Smith Bros. Cough Drops. Black or Menthol, 5¢. Both taste delicious.

Smith Bros. Cough Drops are the only drops containing VITAMIN A

Vitamin A (Carotene) raises the resistance of mucous membranes of nose and throat to cold infections, when lack of resistance is due to Vitamin A deficiency.

Congress on the State of the Union declared "Doctrines which set group against group, faith against faith, race against race, class against class, fanning the fires of hatred—This is the danger to which we in America must begin to become more alert."

FEAR CANCER'S AID:—"Sixty percent of cancer victims in this country are women; eighty percent of these can be cured," says Mrs. Marjore J. Illig, Commander of the Women's Field Army against cancer. Ignorance, apathy and fear are contributing causes to the high cancer rate. A program of education that will reach the masses is necessary to overcome this dangerous and now greatly publicized plague. Visit your health lectures and consult your physician.

SOLACE IN SONG:—We all remember the old statement, that "Music Hath Charms", and we find this to be true in the home, the church, the concert hall and in most public gatherings. The song, "Mother of Mine" always brings peace and satisfaction to the singer, as well as the audience. The man who wrote this song now lies in a grave down in the peaceful Ohio valley at Cincinnati. So William F. Collins 74, left behind a wealth of music that will linger on and give solace to the sorrowing and sentimental.

MEN, MISERY AND GOLD:—This country has a financial crash. We were on the gold standard. It is now gradually working out of the chaotic state in which we found ourselves a decade ago. Now comes the "Prince of discord" a member of the Chase National Bank who makes the proposal to relegalize the private possession of gold. It would be like the government tossing a Golden Apple into the Wall street for the spectators to fight and scramble over.

HANDS ACROSS THE TABLE:—Silken gloves and hardened palms must meet in common handclasp, each recognizing the rights and worth of the other, is the warning found in the statement of Dean Hattie of Howard University, and formerly United States judge in the Virgin Islands, when he told the delegates to the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity in convention at Washington, that "Intellectuals must make up their minds once and for all as to whether they want to march forward and with the masses of the people or maintain social exclusiveness from the masses.

WHITE—CHAUVINISM—The Negro is not alone in his criticism of the screen production of "GONE WITH THE WIND", for the Catholic Legion of Decency and the Communistic press have joined the forces which has declared Margaret Mitchell's book to be a justification of slavery by the south. The Legion's objection is based upon the low moral character of the play. We believe they refer to the character of Belle Watling, a prostitute who contributes money to the confederate cause.

"LET DOWN YOUR BUCKETS":—The United Government Employees this week urged that one of the navy's proposed 4500 ton battleships be named in honor of an outstanding Negro American. A resolution adopted at an Emancipation Day meeting asked also President Roosevelt appoint fifty Negro youths to the Naval Academy, that the army train 100 Negroes to be Air Corps officers.

CAMOUFLAGING THE TRUTH—The movement in New York thru the distribution of handbills to arouse antagonism over a proposal for the United States to acquire the British West Indies on the grounds that "they constitute an affront to the human dignity and the democratic liberties of the people concerned. The real fear is of an increased black population.

MY NEW ASTROLOGY READINGS ARE READY!!!

L. H. G.—I am nearing the age of forty and I want to get married. Everything I get out of life is so little compared to others. When I begin meeting people, every woman that comes my way tries to make me and that seems to disgust me. Will I ever meet the type girl I would like to marry?

Ans: It can be done. But brother, you won't find the type you are searching for in dance halls and beer gardens. Join the church and meet the girls you wish to go with through this source. Lay off the rum yourself and decent girls will seek your company. As it is now, you are classed as a good time fellow and the best girls are afraid of you. A marriage is indicated some time during the end of this year.

C. R.—I bought a nice gift for my fiancee for Valentine but she refuses to let me escort her to the Valentine dance. Should I give her this present or take it back?

Ans: Give it to her. The chief reason that she refuses you the honor to escort her to the dance was that you waited until all the other girls had made their dates and she was still waiting for you to speak up. So one young man asked her, and she accepted. Next time you had better act quickly and don't depend on her going with you without asking her first.

B. C.—I was laid off my job last week and I do try very very hard when I work. Will I get someone to help me to get work soon?

Ans: You are sure to get work to do in a couple of weeks. The chief reason you were laid off is that you weren't qualified to hold down the job that you chose in the first place. You actually need to take more business training. Get work and finish your course at night.

P. C.—For the past few weeks I have making ready to take a trip to Florida. I received a rather odd letter in the mail yesterday and I wish to know if I should go or postpone this trip altogether?

Ans: Go right ahead and make the trip to Florida. You are expected and the people you are going to visit are making plans to show you a nice time during your visit. The letter you received was written by a very jealous young lady who is interested in the same young man you are—she is sorry she wrote the letter, and you would be much better off never to mention it to anyone.

R. E.—Does this person whom I think I am desperately in love with love me enough to come back? Why did he break away?

Ans: He felt that he had to make a change. He could marry you without money enough to live on and he knew if he remained near you that he would do so. Keep your trust in him, but I don't think he will come back the month he promised. I contact a marriage in your life during one of the warm months of this summer.

S. P.—Is my only son guilty of what this girl tells me about? May

I send for private information?
Ans: Emphatically yes, and how you know it to be the truth. Don't try to influence your son against her, as you would regret it later in life. Yes, you can send for your Astrology Reading. Send a quarter wrapped securely in paper with your full name, birthdate, correct address and three questions and I will be glad to send your Astrology reading. ARTIST BORICAN TO PAINT PORTRAIT OF COLLEGE PREXY

Petersburg, Va., Hanging in the spacious corridor of the administration building at Virginia State College is an oil portrait of John M. Gandy, president of Virginia State College, that was done by John Borican when the famous track star was an under-graduate at the Virginia college. Although John is taking graduate work now at Columbia University, he never fails to take advantage of any opportunity to express his gratitude to the college that sent him on the road to fame.

NEGRO LEADER AND AUTHOR
David Nathaniel Licorish, outstanding leader in Negro affairs and author of the recent book, Adventures for Today, has embarked upon a series of lectures that will take him to many parts of the United States.

LAST RITES HELD FOR R. E. SPURLARK, SWEEPSTAKES WINNER

Chicago.—The chapel of the Charles S. Jackson funeral home was packed Tuesday night when Masonic rites were given for Royal E. Spurlark, and Wednesday morning at his funeral. The 60-year-old Pullman porter, who died at Provident hospital Friday after a brief illness, was a high ranking official of the Masonic order. He was a $75,000 Irish Sweepstakes winner in 1938, and was recently married to Miss Albertine Pickens, former motion picture and stage actress.

TOO MUCH MEAT

A Negro hired by a movie studio was informed he was to do a comedy scene with a lion. "You get in this bed," said the director; "we'll bring the lion in and put him in bed with you. It will be a wow." "Put a lion in bed with me!" shouted the Negro. "No, sah! Not a-tall! I resigns right heah and now." "But," exclaimed the director, "this lion won't hurt you; he was brought up on milk." "So was I brought up on milk," wailed the Negro, "but I eats meat now. You-all let me out o' heah."—Santa Fe Magazine.

THEY ALL FALL

"Has the beach censor seen you in that suit?"
"Sure; I've got a crush on him already."

Jazz Right

"What makes you think you're qualified to lead a swing band?" asked the manager.
"Well," returned the young applicant, "I've had three nervous breakdowns, there's epilepsy in my family, I've worked in a boiler factory, and I live in an apartment above a family with 15 kids."
"You're hired!"—Washington Post.

Animal Cracker

"Hoot, mon," said the visiting Scotsman, plucking at the sleeve of the zoo attendant, "can ye tell me what yon animal might be?"
"That's a North American moose," replied the guide.
"Guidness!" exclaimed the Scot. "What a wonderful continent this is!" He shook his head. "I'd na like to meet up wi' a North American rat!"—Washington Post.

Jush Shimple

English Tommy—O, I say, O'Reilly, old bean, you've been to Spain. Just what is the right way to pronounce this word "Fascist"?"
O'Reilly—O, it's quite easy, my lad. Just say it as if you were slightly tight.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Heavy Journalism

Old Lady—I hope, my boy, you don't sell papers on Sunday?
Small Newsboy (sadly)—No, mum; I ain't big enough to carry a Sunday edition yet.

CASH CROP

New Gloucester, Maine, which recently had a bad woods fire, once gave up the secret of successful farming to a visiting reporter who was entertained on a prosperous looking place.

"We raise all our own vegetables," said the farmer, "and most of our meat, eggs, milk and fruit, all right here, and cut our fuel in the woodlot."
"But what's your cash crop?" the reporter asked.
"We'll," said the old man, "in the fall, when everything's laid by, I get around some, and I do pretty well at the trottin' races."—Boston Globe.

It Never Forgets

One of the fine team of elephants at a traveling circus developed a bad cough, and the keeper, after taking counsel with the local vet, decided to dose the animal with a bucket of water into which a whole bottle of whisky had been poured. The following day the proprietor of the circus met the keeper and inquired after the animal.
"And how is Sally this morning?" he asked.
"Sally?" replied the keeper. "Oh, she's just the same! But all the other elephants are coughing now!"—Answers Magazine.

Just an Argument

The argument raged among a surgeon, an architect and a politician. The question: Whose profession is the oldest in the world?
"It was a surgical operation when Eve was made from Adam's rib," boasted the surgeon.
"Yes," returned the architect, "but before that order was created from chaos, and that was an architectural job."
"Well," broke in the politician, "somebody must have created the chaos!"—Washington Post.

Fifty-Fifty

A man had set up in business selling rabbit pies. One day a friend called on him and said: "John, how is it you are able to sell your rabbit pies so cheaply?"
"Well, I put a proportion of horse-meat in with the rabbit," explained John.
"How much horsemeat do you put in?" asked his friend.
"Oh, fifty - fifty," replied John. "One horse, one rabbit."—Tit-Bits Magazine.

ANOTHER CHANCE

Bride (sobbing)—Look how the rain is pouring down on my wedding day.
Bridesmaid—Don't cry, dear; next time it will probably be clear and bright.

Noisy

An agent was showing a prospective tenant over a small cottage, and explained that he required a quiet family.
"Have you any children?" he inquired.
"No."
"Have you a piano or wireless?"
"No."
"Do you play any musical instrument?"
"No, but my pen scratches sometimes."—Tit-Bits Magazine.

My, O My!

Molly had just arrived back from a char-a-banc outing.
"How did you enjoy yourself, Molly?" asked her grandma.
"O, it was all very beautiful, but you should just see the 'Devil's Gorge.'"
"My dear," reproved the shocked old lady, "you shouldn't speak like that of your friends. I expect the ride and the fresh air gave them an appetite."

SOMETHING MISSING

"So you met Smith at the dinner—how'd you find him?"
"Not half I expected."
"He must have left his better half at home."

He's It
Teacher had had a little trouble getting the boys in her class to run her errands, so she thought she'd shame them. "I've got an easy job—for the laziest boy in the class," she said. "Please step forward."
All but one boy stepped forward.
"Well, Willie," commented teacher, smiling, "why didn't you step up, too?"
Willie leaned back in his seat. "Too much trouble," he said.—Washington Post.

Explained

Macpherson called at the laundry for his parcel.
"That will be three shillings," the laundress told him.
"But there are only two pairs of pajamas," Macpherson complained, "and you charge one shilling a pair, don't you?"
"That's right, sir," the laundress replied, "but the extra shilling is for the collars and socks you had in the pockets."—Stray Stories Magazine.

Right on the Spot

"That was some blonde I saw you with last night. Where did you meet her?"
"I dunno. I just opened my wallet and there she was."

Why Can't Others Emulate Him?

A retired vocalist who had acquired a fortune by marriage was asked to sing in company.
"Allow me," said he, "to imitate the nightingale, which does not sing after it has made its nest."

Playing Safe

Insurance Salesman—Rastus, you better let me write you an accident policy.
Rastus—No, sah. Ah ain't any too safe at home as it am.—Houston Post.

EXPOSED AGAIN

She—Why do you object to this costume?
He—The evening is chilly, and I'm afraid I'll get the cold shoulder.

No Doubt He Lost!

A young attorney was pleading his first case. He had been retained by a farmer to prosecute a railroad company for killing 24 hogs, and wanted to impress the jury with the magnitude of the injury.
"Twenty-four hogs, gentlemen. Twenty-four—twice the number in the jury box!"—Stray Stories Magazine.

Word of Encouragement

"I hear that you undertook to chastise that precious youngster of yours."
"Yes," answered the brave parent, "and I got a little respect out of him."
"How do you know?"
"He told me if I would go to the gym and train a little he thought he could make a hard hitter of me."

I'll Come All Too Soon

Struggling Artist (being dunned for rent and endeavoring to put a bold front on things)—Let me tell you this—in a few years' time people will look up at this miserable studio and say, "Cobalt, the artist, used to work there!"
Landlord—If you don't pay your rent by tonight, they'll be able to say it tomorrow!—The Humorist.
