H. C. M.—I have been going with a married man and have a baby. He left his wife and said he was going off and take care of me and the baby. Is he?

Ans: Naw. There is still another woman in the case—a young girl, and it is with her that he is now spending his time. Your confidence is misplaced in him, for he isn't half the man he pretends to be. If you expect to profit from your affair with him, you are going to have to treat him like he treats you. In other words pull his leg for everything you can get. He deserves such treatment.

C. C. M.—I have two children and right now I am not getting enough money to take care of them and myself and I wish to know if I should move or is it better to remain where I am?

Ans: A change right now would not be advisable. You are managing to exist on your present income and I would suggest that you hold to your job until you are able to get something better. With two children to support—you can't be hoping up and changing cities with no money ahead.

R. B.—Please tell me if I am worth trying to make something out of myself? What should I do?

Ans: Fellow if you don't respect yourself—then you can't possibly expect anyone else to respect you. You are but 20 years old, enough to know how to live—sure you should put forth some effort and try to gain something worthwhile in this world. You need to get a better paying job.

K. F. W.—I was injured by a city light last year and I have a lawyer handling this case and I wish to know if I can get anything out of this case?

Ans: It seems to me that had you made a report to the city immediately after the accident—allowed them to make their investigation and etc., you would have been paid already. If you expect to force a law suit, it isn't likely that you will profit to any great extent.

M. N.—The man that I was going with went back to his wife the other day by mistake as he was drinking whiskey. He tells his friends that he still loves me and I wish to know if it is true or not?

Ans: Child are you blind—do you not know that this man loves his wife and has been shooting you a "hot line". Stop your association with this man immediately for just as sure as you continue, you will wind up with a broken heart and will have everyone condemning you for going with married men.

F. G. C.—Did my husband get turned off from work or is it what he has been telling me?

Ans: No, he actually lost his job and he is terribly upset about it himself. He never realized that he would lose out when he stayed out pretending he was sick so much. He is really hustling for another job, and the experience he has had will be good for him.

G. B.—I have slipped out on two occasions to fill a date with a certain girl and she didn't show up. Is she sincere for the second week in March?

Ans: No—she just isn't interested.

PERMANENT RELIEF STATUS
(Emmett J. Scott)

Relief, at best, is only a stop-gap. As a permanent instrument of government it cannot assure happiness, hope, liberty and freedom to a free people. Colored citizens need to take to heart these fundamental requirements of the American way of life.

The American economic system and the American political system of representative government can not continue, with thousands and thousands of men and women dependent on whatever political party may be in power for relief, and with other millions and millions of employable men and women walking the streets of our American cities with little or no hope of being able to secure jobs for the support and maintenance of their families. Colored workers cannot expect to secure continuous, permanent employment at wages high enough adequately to care for the needs of their families under the best possible working conditions until the economic and political economy of our country is released from present-day restraints and limitations. The creation of permanent work opportunities can be provided only by private industry, which unfortunately, finds itself nowadays hampered and hamstrung by intolerable conditions working alike to the disadvantage of employe and employer.

Red Bank, N. J., March 6 —(by Irvine I. Turner for ANP) Mrs. Lillian L. Basie, estranged wife of Harvey L. Basie, both of whom are the parents of Count Basie, King of Swing, narrowly escaped fatal injury here last week when she coiled her feet in her housedress while descending her stairs in her home.

Physicians were unable to analyze her condition, due to the fact that she complained that her neck suffered severe strain almost as if it had been broken. Lacerations around the arms and limbs helped to make her condition a critical one.

According to reports, another step on the staircase might have cost her life.

CHICAGO CANDIDATES STAGING HOT FIGHT FOR ARTHUR W. MITCHELL'S SEAT

Chicago, March 6 (by Bernice Hall for ANP)—Rosy Republican hopes of recapturing the First Congressional district next November are reflected in the coming primary contests for congress that are developing there. Whereas, the Democratic fight in this district is tense as yet the GOP, contests are real battles which are attracting the attention and participation of men and women not ordinarily active politically.

Filings for congressional posts closed last week. The first place is supposed to be the best strategically, and last place is next in the
