MR. AND MRS. STREETER B. TURNER

Palm Sunday was the scene of a very pretty wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDaniels, when Mr. McDaniels gave his niece, Miss Noola McDaniels, of Chanute, Kansas, in marriage to Mr. Streeter B. Turner, son of Mrs. Elise Turner.

The ceremony was performed at 9:30 by the Rev. Sears, Pastor of St. John's A.M.E. Church. Palms and white lilies and roses decorated the house throughout. The soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, was played by Mrs. Fred McDaniels, as Mrs. James Lee, the bridesmaid, marched to the living room—a lovely picture, wearing an evening gown of pink tulle, with an orchid taffeta jacket, and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. The bride marched in on the arm of her uncle, wearing one of the most beautiful wedding gowns seen for sometime. The dress was all white net with wide stripes of white lace. Her veil being of the same material. She carried a bouquet of white lilies and roses and was one of the prettiest brides this season.

Mr. James Lee was best man.

Mrs. Fred McDaniels wore serece chiffon with a corsage of matching sweet peas. Mrs. Turner, mother of the groom, a charming picture in black, wore a corsage of sweet peas. Mrs. Billy Davis, sister of the groom, was gowned in black and white and wore a corsage of sweet peas. Mrs. Edgar Lee, mother of the best man, was a pretty picture in black, with a corsage of gardenias.

Out of town guests to the wedding were Mrs. Felix Payne, Mrs. L. V. Miller, Mrs. Weisman and daughter, Katherine, all of Kansas City, Mo.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Turner. Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDaniels have planned a reception at a later date, when Mrs. McDaniels fully recovers from her recent illness. The newlyweds have taken an apartment at the home of Mrs. George W. Bryant, 2875 Wirt St.

White Man Nets Sentence of 15 Years in North Carolina

Fayetteville, N. C.—Charged with attempted criminal assault upon a sixteen-year-old Negro girl during the early part of February, John H. Davis, a white married man living in the Massey Hill section here, pleaded guilty before Superior Court Judge A. Hall Johnson last week and was given a sentence of fifteen years in the state penitentiary.

Davis' conviction was the outcome of a court battle waged in the girl's behalf by the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Non Relief Families Found To Be Thrifty

New York, March 28 (ANP)—Despite this, the survey noted that the majority of colored families off relief here have managed to remain financially independent because of the combined factors of steady work, good health, few children, careful budgeting and roomers, according to a study issued last week by the committee on Negro welfare of the Welfare Council.

The study, intended to show how non-relief families have managed to stay in that category, was based on the records of 39 representative families in Manhattan and Brooklyn where the proportion of relief cases is four times the city-wide average.

A "will to manage," in the families which have avoided relief, was emphasized in the report, but in

John L. Lewis To Speak at Negro Congress

Washington, March 25—National Negro Congress leaders announced last week that John L. Lewis, militant leader of the Congress for Industrial Organizations will be the principal speaker at the opening session of the Congress to be held at the United States Department of Labor Auditorium here Friday, April 6.

Recent statements by Mr. Lewis at the Convention of the United Mine Workers of America, of which he is also president, at Columbus, Ohio, indicated clearly that the labor leader was keenly aware of the problems of the Negro people. His speech at the American Youth Congress, in which he lashed out vigorously against the inaction of the United States Department of Justice in the matter of poll taxes, has also served to bring him to the fore as a champion of three million disfranchised Negro voters of the south.

Immediate response among Negro leaders here to the Congress' announcement that Mr. Lewis would speak was that his utterances before this representative gathering of leaders of Negro organizations promises to mark a new epoch in the relations between the Negro people and labor. Congress officials themselves greeted with high enthusiasm his acceptance of their invitation. They announced that his speech and the presidential address of A. Phillip Randolph, head of the Congress, would be carried over a national hookup, to be heard by some five million people. Steps have already been taken to arrange in key cities throughout the country for simultaneous meetings of local Congress councils to hear these two important addresses.

Congressman Mitchell Demands Third Term of Pres. Roosevelt

Washington, March 28 (ANP)—Declaring himself unreservedly in favor of a third for President Roosevelt, Congressman Arthur W. Mitchell of Illinois in an address before the house Monday recited a resume of the accomplishments of the New Deal as far as Negroes are concerned and challenged any other party to show that it had done as much.

Going down the line, Mr. Mitchell enumerated the seven alphabetical agencies which had contributed to the Negroes welfare and "saved them not only from starving, but kept them living." They were in order, the WPA, PWA, CCC, FCA, FSA, NYA, and the USHA.

Stating that some 300,000 Negro families, representing 14 per cent of the total on the WPA payrolls, had been benefitted from the acts of this organization, Congressman Mitchell further lauded the New Deal and cited figures from other departments to prove his contentions.

He was interrupted in his speech by a fellow representative who, listening to Mitchell's praise of the Farm Credit administration, wanted to know if Mr. Mitchell would be willing to have this unit put in the department of agriculture under the direction of Secretary Wallace.

Mr. Mitchell refused to answer this pointed question and refused to yield for further questioning. However, at the end of his allotted time, Hamilton Fish of New York who had asked the Speaker of the house for five minutes launched into Mr. Mitchell and demanded to know just how many unemployed Negroes there were in spite of the New Deal. Mr. Fish also asked if Mr. Mitchell knew of the sufferings under the New Deal administration.

Turning to another point in his attack, Mr. Fish declared that while Mr. Mitchell was lauding President Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt and the cabinet, why was it that Mr. Roosevelt refused to commit himself on the anti-lynch bill, although he was greatly interested in the welfare of other races and creed three thousand miles away? "One word from the White House," said Mr. Fish, "and the anti-lynch bill would pass through the senate without any difficulty at all."

ROOSEVELT INVITED TO SPEAK AT NEGRO CONGRESS

Washington, March 25.—The national office of the National Negro Congress made public this week the fact that it had extended an invitation to President Franklin D. Roosevelt to address one of the sessions of the National Negro Congress to be held here at the United States Department of Labor auditorium April 26-28.

The President was informed that the 3,000 delegates expected to be present.

Senator Norris Praises Justice Black

New York—Senator George Norris, famed Nebraska liberal, and the Nation magazine have both lauded the recent supreme court decision handed down February 12, and written by Justice Hugo L. Black, of Alabama, in which the supreme court of Florida was denied the right to affirm the execution of four Negro youths whose conviction of murdering a white man had been upheld on the basis of confessions obtained by a week of torture.

Said Senator Norris February 29, in a letter to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, whose attorneys carried the case to the high court.

"I think that that opinion is going to go a long way towards placing not only the courts but the administrative officials of the entire United States on a much higher plane than ever before. I am not thinking particularly of the colored race, because, as I see it, this applies to the white race as well."

In a long and laudatory editorial appearing in its issue of Feb. 24 the Nation Magazine concluded:

"We take out the stock of words required for comment, and find them all dirtied by hypocrisy and encrusted with cant. 'The Majesty of the law,' 'Equal Justice,' 'democratic processes,' 'American Ideals.' We put the words away. All we can say is that the supreme court saved the lives of four Negroes. And saved something precious for the rest of us, too."

FATHER OF KIP RHINELANDER DIES

Long Beach, N. Y. March 28 (ANP)—Commodore Philip Rhinelander, father of Leonard Kip Rhinelander, whose marriage to Alice Jones Rhinelander, colored, created a sensation 15 years ago, died last week at Long Beach hospital here after an operation.

Commodore Rhinelander, 80, the patriarch of one of New York's oldest families was one of 13 Rhinelanders listed in the social register. Since Kip's death in 1936, he had lived here in his sumptuous beach home. The defendant in a $500,000 alienation of affections suit brought by Alice at the time Kip sought an annulment of his marriage to her, the elder Rhinelander settled the case out of court but refused to recognize his son's wife.

Later, after a White Plains, N. Y., jury refused to annul the marriage, Kip obtained a Reno divorce, giving his wife a reported settlement of $300 a month for life. When the younger Rhinelander died, Alice declared that she had "always loved Leonard" and accused the commodore of snatching him from her.

DRUG STORE ENLARGES

Johnson's Drug Store, formerly located at 24th & Parker St., which merged with the Robinson Drug Store on 24th & Grant St., a few weeks ago found quarters too small for the two stores. As a result of this, Mr. Johnson the Proprietor, has found that he must take over the Willa's Salon Store which is next door to the Robins Drug Store. In a few days the building will be remodeled and a large archway cut through from the Robins Drug Store which will make the two stores into one large store. Mr. Johnson owns this property and is to be congratulated on efforts being put forth to give the people of this community a one minute up-to-date service.
