THE OMAHA GUIDE

Get Acquainted With The Candidates

woman to represent Nebraska.

Republican Party Organization.

women have been Lincoln and Omaha residents. Mrs. M. D. Camertrue needs of Nebraska, an agric- 1910.

In announcing her candidacy,

Mrs. Donald pointed out her previous Republican activities, and pro-organization in her Congressional

- Her civic activities include membership on the State board of the ultural state.

Her decision to seek election, Mrs his loyalty has remained to his

Donald said, is the result of widely native state, and he has always on of Omaha served two terms. county, later becoming the young-

Lincoln has been represented by est territory salesman for the

Mrs. Curry Watson. Many leaders John Deere Company. Happy in in both cities have indicated they the opportunity to work under coast.

Previous National Committee- was re-elected in 1925.

We, the Omaha Giude, your ser- | biography and his record for vant for 15 years, have tried zeal- square dealings to al. On this page usly to get each Candidate who we have compiled the records we as filed for office in the Primary received. If they are all not here election of April 9, to send you it is not are fault. through the Omaha Guide his

BERT CARPENTER

Omaha, Nebr., April 4-Bert mised that if elected she would Carpenter, Vice-President, Carpen- strive to serve in a manner of merter Paper Company of Omaha, and it to the entire state. long prominent in Republican party Mrs. Donald, long active in civic activities, is candidate for Republi- and political affairs, is at present can National Committeeman in the vice-chairman of the Republican primaries, April 9.

Several thousand Republicans district. She has previously been who signed the petition for his can- chairman of her precinct in Grand didacy believe he is best qualified Island, member of the Hall County for the position. A life-long Rep- Republican Finance Committee and ublican, he has voted and taken ac- at one time state head of the Young tive part in the party's affairs in Republican Women. She has been Nebraska for more than thirty active for some time on the state years. As a member and treasurer board of the League of Women of the Douglas County Central Voters. Committee he was highly successful in directing its fund-raising campaign for the 1936 election. He Nebraska Federation of County also served as Delegate at large in Taxpayers Leagues, the American the last election.

Legion Auxiliary, Board of Trust-Mr. Carpenter's supporters also ees of Brownell Hall, Parent-Teabelieve his long, successful business chers Association and the Episcopexperience in Nebraska makes him al Church. the outstanding candidate for the A native Nebraskan, Mrs. Donplatform. They urge that the Rep- ald is a member of a pioneer Representative of Nebraska on the Na- ublican family, daughter of the late tional Committee should be a man Dr. and Mrs. C. V. D. Basten of not only strong in his party con- Kearney. She was educated at victions, but also of broad exper- Bradford academy in Boston and ience, able to convincingly present Chevy Chase School in Washingthe views of the party in this State ton. She is the wife of Bruce Donouncil.

though the office carries no ry or other financial emolu- Republican Organization of the s. Bert Carpenter is willing to State of Nebraska is to receive full often into several towns in every greater fullfillment of the job for South Omaha Business and Social both DETEST IDLENESS. "So running the administrative and county of Nebraska, and into all which the office of Public Defend- club, serving as president during I ask you: WHAT keeps the UN- business end of his office. The adjoining states. During this more er was created.

than a quarter century he has built up a close personal acquaintance with all parts of Nebraska, and gained more than average understanding of local conditions throughout its length and breadth. His calling has further brought him a broad knowledge of a great number of business activities. Mr.

Larson has always been recognized as a confirmed booster for Ne-Republican National Committee- braska. Though he has traveled in Omaha, Nebraska. practically every state in the union,

There is enclosed my biography.

expressed sentiment among party returned with redoubled faith in In addition to the facts contained fice. workers that representation from Nebraska's productivity. He has in the biographical sketch, I was the west-central section of the been active among his Realtor as- born and raised in Omaha. Carr-dent of the association in 1924 and Omaha High School.

started as a farmer in Hamilton as:

"Richard H. Larson, Lincoln, Nebraska, Bank Accounting" Yours very truly, feel that at this time a western George N. Peek, then manager of representative can more easily the Omaha branch, Mr. Larson Biographical Sketch ofweave into the party policy the traveled the state from 1908 to RICHARD H. LARSON.

> As founder, owner and manager and in nearby states. Through fat ty 44 years ago.

energy has constantly expanded

He is an ex-service man.

"... long business experience and . . . dynamic personality." "... a close personal acquaintance . . . all . . . of Nebraska. .' "... more than average understanding of local conditions. . ." Nebraska."

"Though '. . . traveled in every state . . . always returned with redoubled faith in Nebraska's pro-

-From Central City Nonpareil,

CANDIDATE FOR

Max Fromkin, attorney, is a candidate for district judge in the counties. ary, Grand Island wholesale firm. Mrs. Donald believes that if the immediately upon being admitted Street, Lincoln. because, he says, "Nebraska co-operation from the National Or- to the bar of the state of Nebrasbeen good to me and I deem it ganization it is essential that the ka, associated himself in the prac-

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH RICHARD H. LARSON Republican Candidate Railway Commissioner 1515 A Street

Dear Mr. Galloway:

this important and responsible ofstate at this time would strengthen sociates, serving as state presi- ied papers and was graduated from

> Your readers should know that As a young man Mr. Larson my name will appear on the ballot

> > Richard H. Larson.

and lean years his ability and

He is a graduate of the Omaha his office.

aminers, he became State Bank Caw. which he held for 71/2 years.

ductivity."

February, 19, 1940.

MAX FROMKIN IS DISTRICT JUDGE state know him.

MAX FROMKIN

member of the Nebraska State of 1929.

to every meeting of the Abraham Sutton. Subsequently he early filing, April 10, 1939, gave of law.

in the South Omaha Merchants As- is a duty of national government ing he had effected had not imsociation, Eagles, Ryal Arcamum, to perform its social obligations. I paired the work of the office. In-Highland Park Improvement Club, believe this administration has sin- stead, new records for convic-People's Forum, West Side Civic cerely attempted to fulfill those tions, speed and efficiency were Club, Spring Lake Improvement obligations. But that is only half established at the end of the first Club, and Business & Social Club. the job. The OTHER HALF is to six-months period.

Lincoln, Nebraska March 31, 1940

Mr. C. C. Galloway, Adv. Mgr., Omaha Guide Publishing Co., dacy. Mr. Meissner wishes to thank

EDSON SMITH, CANDIDATE FOR

STANDS FOR FAIR PLAY

One candidate for District Judge cendants moving steadily toward leader and a vote-getter. who is certain to receive a large the highest office in the greatest In addition, national polls of vote in the colored precincts of democracy in the world-the Presi- public opinion showed him lead-Omaha, as well as in the rest of dency of the United States. the judicial district, is Edson That farmer was T. Dewey. The choice of the people for the Smith, prominent lawyer, who was Descendant is Thomas E. Dewey. party's Presidential nomination. for a number of years Assistant born in Owosso, Michigan, of RICHARD H. LARSON, Repub- United States Attorney. He is a sturdy folk who followed their retrial of Tammany Leader of the Nebraska Realty Auction lican Candidate for Railway Com- son of Robert Smith, Clerk of the destiny even as they followed the Hines. The case began in January company of Central City, Mr. Lar- missioner, is a native Nebraskan, District Court, who has always westward course of America. sno is known over all Nebraska, having been born in Douglas Coun- been very popular in North Oma- Thomas E. Dewey belongs to ha. Robert Smith now has a num- all America, for he is a typical viction was upheld on appeal.

ber of colored people employed in American who has used the opportunities our country gives her the scope of this concern's activi- high school. He is a graduate of Edson Smith was born in Oma- sons to advance his own career ties. Associated with him as auc- the American Institute of Bank- ha, attended Lake and Lothrop as a public servant in behalf of aspects of his work has stirred tioneer has been A. W. Thompson ing and has attended the Gradu-schools and Central High a better America for all. Thus the quiet graciousness of the of Lincoln, known from coast to ate school of Banking at Rutgers School, where he was a captain in Dewey, the candidate, was born home which Mrs. Dewey had the Cadet Regiment and was a to a Republican tradition in the member of the football squad on upstairs over a red brick general home which miss. Dewey, the call the created and runs so capably for her husband and their two small He was employed 10 years in the which Ledrue Galloway and Mar-store.

United States National Bank of tin Thomas starred. Another friend As a boy, Tom Dewey attended sons. Here, indeed is a haven of Omaha. Then, after one year spent of Edson Smith's who attended the public grammar and high as Assistant to National Bank Ex- high school with him is Art Mc- schools in his town. He worked in "... a confirmed booster for Examiner in Nebraska, a position Mr. Smith is making a vigorous a printer's devil; clerked and campaign and has had published a swept the floors in a drug store; a servant of the people for hubiographical sketch written by sold magazines and delivered pa- man rights, freedom and justice, The work that RICHARD H. Bruce McCulloch, the Editor of pers. When he was sixteen he went LARSON has done has given him training in accounting, fact-find-endorsements appearing on the instance of the nearby farms to work dur-instance of the second terms of ter training in accounting, fact-find- endorsements appearing on the ing summer vacation for money ing and investigation, all of which back of the biographical sketch for college. He entered the Uniare so essential in the office of are those of Reverend F. P. Jones, versity of Michigan in 1919. He Railway Commissioner. He has T. P. Mahammitt, Pauline Mit- continued to work and earn as he acquired a state-wide knowledge chell and Maggie McGowan, to- studied- he was a reporter and of Nebraska communities and their gether with the endorsements of telegraph editor on the University problems. The citizens of the a number of other persons repre- Daily. senting leaders of business, labor Meantime, he delighted college and civic organizations. Edson groups and church congregations

Smith was graduated + from Har- with his fine singing voice-the W. A. Prince-H. A. Prince vard Law School, was admitted voice that won him a coveted scho- Frank E. Landis April 1, 1940 His wife is the former Margaret to the bar and sworn in as Assis- larship in New York-in New York Fourth Judicial district, compris-Randall, daughter of the late Char-tant United States Attorney for where he was ultimately to rise Mr. John Adams, Jr., and section in the party's national ald, member of the Donald Comp- ing Douglas, Washington and Burt les A. Randall, who served as a the District of Nebraska in June as a national leader. Dewey studied Care of The Omaha Guide, both law and voice there and in Omaha, Nebraska.

Mr. Fromkin graduate from the Railway Commission for many In 1934 he resigned his place the meantime, had met Frances Creighton Law School in 1921, and years. Their home is at 1515 "A" with the Department of Justice Hutt, another voice student. and became associated with the With characteristic seriousness, largest law firm in Omaha, during the two young people waited un-RICHARD H. LARSON is fair, which association he gained wide til the young attorney had advanc- several copies of the Omaha Guide aty and privilege to serve my Committeewoman should respond to the late Judge unprejudiced and impartial. His experience in the general practice of law with the late Judge unprejudiced and impartial. His experience in the general practice in which newspaper I was quite to enable them to marry. And on interested for many reas Meissner is married, thirty-seven maintain, to ENCOURAGE the Hines went to trial a few years of age lives at 3640 T Street. economic system which supports months after he was indicted. A number of leading organizations the government and MAKES per- There was a mistrial. Dewey took in Omaha have endorsed his candi- formance of SOCIAL OBLIGA- the blow in his stride and began all over again. Within two weeks the Republihis many friends for their interest for chester hills of Massachusetts a candidate for Governor. Again Not far from the rolling Dor- can party drafted Dewey as its

1938-39. He is an active member EMPLOYED man out of a job? It thirty-three per cent budget sav-

TIONS POSSIBLE."

so far to win.

farmer in 1634 wrestled with his Dewey campaigned ably and tireland. He lifted his eyes occasion- lessly, staying close to state isally to the far horizon-symbol to sues, showing the errors in adhim of the freedom he had come ministration, the way the Democratic machine hampered the But it is doubtful if in his mind's work of the state.

eye that simple' God-fearing men Dewey lost the election by on-DISTRICT JUDGE saw the limitless sweep of the ly 64,494 votes out of 4,821,631 horizzons of the America that was cast. But in defeat he was victor, to be; or if he saw over the hori- for his amazing showing convinzon the figure of one of his des- ced Republicans that here was a ing all other Republicans as the 1939. Hines was convicted this time and subsequently his con-

What of the man-the home man, the family man?

peace where Dewey, the fearless public servant can be Dewey, the his father's newspaper office as where he gains new strength and man, the husband and father, and

PRINCE AND PRINCE Lawyers

They say

Dear Mr. Adams:

There has just come to my desk

more business in government is one COMMISSIONER, REPUBLICAN of the tene's of his political creed for which he will work if elected A Few of His Many Good Records National Committeeman. "We can have recovery and prosperity, jobs for all, opportunity for youth, restored normal income and Office. Sanish American War, help for farmers without govern- World War. ment control of his business," he declares. "But we must first clean out theorists who, with unlimited powers and bill ons of taxpayers' dollars, have bungled our affairs. We must return to sound business principals. We nust keep government the servant not the master of the people."

Mrs. Edna Basten Donald A Worker In Republican Party Is A Candidate for National Committee-Woman in the dealersheet and

RE-ELECT Joe Lovely DEMOCRAT For Public Defender

At April 9th Primary

Joe Lovely, with his able assistant Mr. O'Brien has successfully handled to the satisfaction of both plaintiff, defendant and the community, a total sum of 8,281 cases in the year of 1939. He deserves your vote in the primary election, April 9th.

and de de de de da da da (Political Advertisement)

n person overnment." Because he has National Committee. Her candithan service to the Party and response from party leaders and his friends believe him to be workers throughout the State. Less government in business and GEORGE J. DANIEL, COUNTY

5th DISTRICT of Services

U. S. Custom House, U. S. Post

More than 20 years plumbing and heating contractor. Water and sewer Commissioner Auburn, Nebraska. Secretary, Treasurer and mem ber Board of Directors, United Plumbing and Heating Supply Co. (wholesalers) for past three years and re-elected for the year 1940.

LEO FRIED

Leo Fried, candidate for the Nebraska Supreme Court has been a resident of Omaha since 1908. He received his education in Omaha grade schools and South High active worker in Republican circles ties. He received his Bachelor of prises. has announced her candidacy for Law Degree from Creighton University College of Law.

Financed school and university education by selling newspapers and working in Omaha packing trict Governor. He is also an achouses. Engaged in general law braska and in the District and of the Omaha Bar Association. Appellate Federal Courts. Member of the law firm of Fried and Mars for eight years. Member of Nebraska and Omaha Bar Associations. Mr. Fried is married and has a family. FOR REPUBLICAN

NOMINATION RAILWAY COMMISSION NEB. STATE

biased, Fair, Judgments. One of the widest and bestknown of Nebraska's citizens-M.

declared his intention to seek the too small to engage Mr. Nielsen's 2500 welfare cases. republican nomination for state attention. railway commissioner. His friends Mr. Nielsen is thirty years of tical circles. In 1938 he was elected tance, coupled with his long busi- School and Creighton University Republican central committee, a standing aspirant.

UNUCUIA

Sutton & Fromkin. Mr. Fromkin ability for the office he seeks. has been in the active practice of law in the city of Omaha for more ance building. This experience way Commissioner. fully qualifies him for this important judicial position. He has never before been a candidate for public Democratic Candidate for Governor office.

He is active in the American Legion and all civic organizations. He is married, a substantial property owner and taxpayer, and has one son, Robert, 16 years of age, now attending Central High school.

WALTER A. NIELSEN CANDI-DATE FOR PUBLIC DEFENDER

Walter A. Nielsen is a candidate for Public Defender on the Republican ticket and already a great leal of interest has been evidenced

Among the organizations with he is a past President and past Dis-tive worker in the Reserve Officers ticed in District Courts and Su- and is a First Lieutenant of the Re- fourth Street, has filed for public preme Court of the State of Ne- serve Corps. He is also a member defender on the republican ticket.

He has been active in legislative

the City of Omaha.

Board Tickets opposing in increase creasing the present levies.

For 28 years Mr. Larson has sight, he believes that he is partic- to 1939. He also is serving on the dealt exclusively in real estate ularly fitted for the position to executive committees of the Dougfrom his office in Central City. which he aspires, and should he be las County Young Republican club. at Minneapolis, "that both capital Meanwhile, the public was giv- 2817 No. 24th St. WE. 1166 than 19 years; during all of which time he has officed in the Insur-experience for the office of Rail-Brome and Alfred A. Fiedler, and That career even then was a of Brome, Smith & Fiedler. JOHN A. GUTTERY Primaries April 9, 1940

Voter :- Help Regulate liquor in Nebraska.

Resident of Nebraska 54 yearsand has lived in Nebraska since he others appearing in court. He elementary education in Sarpy and impartial. He has what is known known. Saunders counties, and then prep- as a judicial temperament. He has in his campaign. Mr. Nielsen is ared himself to be a teacher. Af- the ability to understand and to one of the most active young attor- ter following that profession for 12 analyze both sides of an arguneys in Omaha, having for many years, he took up his dental educa- ment. All litignats would dome Donald of Grand Island, Long an at Drake and Nebraska universi- years been prominent in civic enter- tion at Creighton University, grad- before him on a basis of equality uating in 1913. For the past 17 regardless of their social standing, years he has practiced dentistry in race, religion or political connecwhich he has been associated is the Niobrara and Lynch, where he has tions. He has the courage to ren-Exchange Club of Omaha, of which taken an active part in all civic and der judgment according to law. He will be fair to everybody. political affairs.

Henry R. Meissner, Suoth Oma- A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

From 1933 to 1936 he served as M. A. Larson of Central City in in the Tax Levy of the School sys- South Side prosecutor and assis- fice in the land. race for Nebraska Railway Com- tem." These campaigns aided mat- tant Omaha prosecutor, served as of experience as assistant attor-

Meissner has been active in politraining, experience and human in- Young Republican club from 1938

His operations have carried him elected, he pledges himself to a' He was the co-founder of the and labor WANT WORK, that en a look at the way Dewey was was associated with the late A. S. him the opportunity of presenting In 1937 Edson Smith formed a June 16, 1928, which was five particularly concerned with this vernment." Because he has National Committee. Her candi-onal motives or ambitions dacy is meeting with encouraging Ritchie, and after that with Judge Nillis G. Sears. He is now asso-all parts of the state. It gave the state. It gave the state and Edson Smith State of St. Thomas's On the front page, however, I ciated with the firm of Morgan, voters ample time to consider his name of Robert and Edson Smith Episcopal Church in New York found your advertisement seeking which continued until 1939, when City and exchanged vows. Frances re-election. You may remember Robert Smith again became Clerk Hutt Dewey then and there gave that I listened to your argument RICHARD H. LARSON is qual- of the District Court. Edson Smith up all thought of a career of her in the Supreme Court in a case, which due to the fact that your That career even then was shap- clients had come to you long afcontinues in the general practice of ing into a life work that had at its ter the milk was spilled, I felt was law with them under the name core the ideal of public service. a hopeless case. I was impressed Those who know Edson Smith Dewey had become chief assistant your case as well as, or better than well, know that he will show the United States Attorney, adminis- most of the lawyers whom I had same willingness to work in his trative head of the largest prose- heard presenting cases before the conduct of the office of District cuting office in the Federal gov- Supreme Court. In right nome Favors a reduction of property a lawyer in private practice. He be-under him. Then began the specta-mented upon this fact to my wife, tax. Opposes any form of direct lieves that public office is a pub-cular yet sound attack on crime who, as President of the Nebrassales tax. Favors licensed saloons lic trust, and that the public serwith a license fee, to help support vant should be expected to devote tion inevitable. In a short time, supporting sore legislation before schools and the old age pension as much time and energy to his the roungest United States at- the Legislature, had become acjob as does the man in private torney in the history of our coun- quainted with you. She informed John A. Guttery is 59, years old be courteous to counsel and to try, his accomplishments as a me that she felt that you were fearless, hard-hitting, invincible one of the most intelligent memand has lived in Nebraska since he was 5 years old. He received his importial He has much in court. He would be attentive, patient and and corruption, were nationally who was making an honest effort to do what was right for the State In October 1932, Mrs. Dewey of Nebraska.

presented her husband with a son, She felt, and I concur absolutely Thomas Edmund, Jr. John Martin in her belief, that you were an ab-Dewey was born three years later solute credit to your race, and in October, 1935. that the voters of your district

By that time, Dewey had been should keep you in the Legislature appointed special prosecutor. Then as long as you desired to remain in 1935, a New York County Grand there. Both she and myself feel Jury sensed that the Tammany that if racial problems are to be District Attorney was ignoring presented whenever possible and evidence of racketeering. They de- adjusted amicably whenever they cided to investigate and the seeds arise, it will come only because practice since 1930 and has prac- Association of the United States, ha attorney at 4841 South Twenty- OF THOMAS E. DEWEY of indignation which Dewey not voters of both races place enough sown as a prosecutor by pointing confidence in men of your type The career of Thomas E. Dewey out through his work the lethergy to place them in public office, Meissner was born on a farm leading Republican candidate for and indifference of local law en- where they can assist in working near Blair, Nebraska and lived Presidential nomination, is proof forcement agencies, began to bear out these problems.

matters of civic importance before there for a number of years. Af- of America's unlimited opportuni- friut. The Grand Jury called upon For those reasons, I sincerely the Legislature and is the author ter his graduation from the Blair ties for those who have the wish to the Governor to appoint a special hope that the voters if your disof a County-City Consolidation Bill High school, he was engaged in succeed. One of millions of small prosecutor and the Jury demanded trict will re-elect you. If they which was presented to the last two the dairying business for two town lads who chafe at their sup- Dewey. The Governor said he was knew your ability, your honesty Legislatures; he is also the author years. He then came to Omaha and posedly limited field of endeavor, "too unknown" and offered the and your fairness, I feel you of the School Board Election Am- enrolled in Creighton University's Tom Dewey, with vision coupled post to four other lawyers. They should have no opposition whatendment changing the method of College of Law. In 1928 he passed with ambition, has hurdled obsta- unanimously told the Governor ever.

electing School Board members for the Nebraska Bar Association and cles which would have dismayed that Dewey was the man and he I am not and do not expect ever since that date he has been prac- and halted less fearless spirits and was finally appointed. to be a candidate for public office. stands today the leading candidate All this time, Dewey, true to I have no interest in any election of his party for the highest of- the Republican traditions of his and no axes to grin, except the family, had given his leisure time one axe that if this republic is Thomas E. Dewey's story of to Republican organization work. going to last, it will be only bemission. Vote for "M. A." and un- erially in the work which was done deputy County attorney for three success is a story of a midwest He rang doorbells and worked cause the voters will forget tem-to collect back taxes instead of in- years and he has had three years farm boy who clung to his ideals tirelessly. Then in 1937 he was porary expediency and will elect and started a wave of public de- drafted to run for District Attor- to office men who are honest, able No matter of public interest or ney to the Omaha Welfare board cency which has swept the coun- ney. He campaigned vigorously, and fair.

A. Larson of Central City-Monday civic welfare is either too great or during which time he handled over try and toppled hitherto untouch- And when the votes were counted able "big shots" from their New York County had given Dewey thrones. Thomas E. Dewey has the largest plurality of anyone on shown the country that the pub- the Republican ticket.

feel his unusually large acquain- age, a graduate of Technical High secretary of the Douglas County lic did not have to put up with And now Dewey arrested James crooked hidden government. His J. Hines, Tammy District Leader ness experience and his dynamic and possesses Bachelor of Science position he still holds. He was chief aim is to restore jobs to the and patronage distributor for the personality, make him an out- and Bachelor of Law Degrees. By president of the South Omaha unemployed, by correcting the evils city; for years one of the "unof lack of harmony between capi- touchables." Dewey indicted Hines as a protector of the policy tal and labor. "I say to you," Mr. Dewey stated racket,

Very truly yours, Harold A. Prince.

HOMES FOR SALE On Easy Terms Houses For Rent And Apartments E. M. DAVIS

have cance by this time. Are isn't routical advertisement

He was a candidate on two School ticing law.

fund