S. J. M.—Tell me if I went to my aunts would she allow me to stay with her and if not, what in the world can I do?

Ans: Before leaving your home, you had better talk your troubles over with this Aunt of yours. Visit her and explain your problem and she will get in touch with your mother and decide something definite to do regarding your case. Cooperate with your mother and Aunt. They will work out your problem.

a quarrel. I wrote him a letter. He answered and said he got it and signed his name. Should I try to visit with him again?

Ans: No, of course you shouldn't. He doesn't care for you and forced the argument to make you sore with him. Your heart isn't broken. It will heal. In a few weeks you will forget him entirely and will be courting another fellow.

C. C.—Why do some of the children at school make fun of me?

Ans: Every since there were schools, certain children have been ridiculed by other youngsters, for some unknown reason have a way of picking out a few (who can't take teasing) and rub them the wrong way just to see them get angry. Don't give them the satisfaction of knowing that they worry you, and they will stop.

X. C. X.—I have been offered a position in a particular college as secretary to a certain official. Should I take it?

L. M. C.—Please tell me if I send for my new Astrology Reading will I get the Lucky Day Chart too?

Ans: The Lucky Day Chart is sent free with the Astrology Reading. If you purchase the Astrology Reading for 25 cts. you are also entitled to free advice on three problems that are confronting you at the present time.

M. A. G.—Why don't my husband take me out and give me money?

Ans: That would cut into his spending money and he wouldn't think of doing that. Your husband is a little too friendly with other women, in fact only recently one of his girl friends threw a party for him. Better reach an understanding with him as you can't go on like you are now.

W. R. T.—Do I love both of these girls? Do either one of them mean me any good?

Ans: You are making a mistake in not putting more confidence in the girl who is CARRYING YOUR CHILD. She's the one for you, so discontinue all relations with the other.

D. G.—Would I be doing right to give my husband up? Am I wrong or not?

Ans: You would be going from bad to worse. Before taking any action in this case, wait a few more months. If you would give up your relations with this outside man, you wouldn't even consider giving your husband up.

THIS WEEK Religion & Thought

Robert L. Moody
Messages from the Prophets
Students in Church School have begun an interesting study of the Hebrew Prophets. The aim of this course is "To study these messages in order to know their meaning and value for our time."

The Prophets were more than Divine foretellers of future events, they were spokesmen for God to men. They were statesmen for God to men. Their messages were not merely isolated discussions of religion but they were full of interest in social, political and economical conditions of that period.

There were evils of selfishness, greed, poverty and injustice then as there are now. Problems of independent nationalism and foreign alliances existed then as now. Amos, Isaiah, Nieah and others carefully observed all of these things and they spoke against all individual and social sins without compromise.

The examples of the prophets present inspiration to our ministers of today to know the conditions and to tell us in bold terms, what the Lord requires of us in a world of sin, war and domestic unrest.

What Do You Know About Health?

By FISHER BROWN and NAT FALK

WHAT DID CHARLES DARWIN CONTRIBUTE TO BIOLOGY?

1. Why do some stone masons wear beards and mustaches?
2. What disease is the dread of maritime raiders?

Answers: 1. By developing the theory of Evolution he was able to clarify many puzzling facts in the field of Biology. An understanding of the evolution of living forms has helped the doctor understand the growth of the baby, has helped the veterinarian breed finer strains of cattle, and has helped the gardener develop new fruits and flowers.
2. It has been found that masons who wear full, bushy beards and mustaches are less likely to contract Silicosis, the disease of the lungs, caused by inhaling stone dust.
3. Scurvy is the disease. These sea-raiders must frequently go long periods without proper replenishment of their food supply and the sailors frequently develop scurvy. As recently as 1918 this was true of German commerce raiders. The condition is prevented by the use of fresh vegetables and fruits.

Beer Seven Years Old —And Big Tax-Payer

Legal beer is seven years old this month. Brought back by Congress, on April 7, 1933, "to provide . . . a proper and much needed revenue for the Government," it has become one of the nation's half-dozen biggest tax-payers.

The United Brewers Industrial Foundation reports that the brewing industry in seven years since re-legalization has: Provided steady employment for a million people in brewing and allied industries; Bought $600,000,000 worth of farm products; Contributed two and a quarter billion dollars in taxes; Created legitimate business benefits of eleven billion dollars; Purchased a billion dollars worth of machinery and equipment; Spent $400,000,000 for power and transportation; Established an expanding industry program to protect the public against abuses in the retail sale of beer.

THE ALLIANCE MEETS
The Omaha Branch of National Alliance of Postal Employees held their regular monthly meeting Saturday night at the Community Center. The meeting was called to order by the President, Comrade Dacus. Secretary Lewis read the minutes of the last meeting which was received and adopted. Some very important communications were read. Among them an interesting letter from National president, L. F. Ford. He mentioned some very good things the National body has done in the interest of the Alliance. Comrade Gerrin appointed—lately as mail carrier was present and gave a brief account of his progress so far. It was by some efforts of the Alliance that his appointment was made possible. We were glad to know he is making good. The
