

FARMERS UNION PRESENTS SIX POINT PROGRAM TO REP. CONVENTION

Philadelphia, Pa., (FR) Presenting the statement of the National Farmers Union to the Resolutions Committee of the Republican Convention, President John Vesecky outlined a six-point program for the preservation of the family-sized farms.

"We believe that in a country such as ours it is a disgrace and a crime to compel any class of our citizens to supply the necessities of life to other classes at less than parity or the cost of producing such necessities," said Mr. Vesecky.

Why does 7-UP like you? As you sip a bottle of 7-Up, read the new label. You will find this statement: "The 'Fresh Up' Drink contains carbonated water, sugar, citric acid, lithium and sodium citrates, flavor derived from lemon and lime oils." These fine ingredients are your assurance. They are the strongest reason why 7-Up likes you!

1. Rehabilitation of down and out farmers; strengthening of the Farm Security Administration with ample funds for the tenant-purchase division.

2. Debt-adjustment and refinancing.

3. Income Certificate Domestic Allotment Plan legislation.

4. Extension of surplus removal program.

5. Fulllest assistance to our farmers, especially the low-income farmers for building sound cooperatives.

Anti-war; "opposed to sending our boys across the ocean to fight in foreign wars."

He added that "any workable plan of national defense must take into consideration the necessity of giving our people security in their homes and in the exercise of their rights and privileges as American citizens." "We do not believe that it is necessary nor good policy to curtail needed assistance to the poor and under-privileged on our farms and in our cities in order to make more money available for armaments."

"The American farmer is, as a rule, ready to defend his home and country with his life," said Mr. Vesecky, "but the homes and country must be ours to defend and to enjoy."

FATHER HINES BOOGIES FOR TROPIC CAST

When Earl "Father" Hines visited the Tropical Gardens of the American Negro Exposition at the Chicago Coliseum last week where the sensational new reggae, "Tropics After Dark," is being presented, he sat down at the piano and played his recent record hit "Boogie Woogie on the St. Louis Blues," while the entire cast of principles looked on. Included in the picture are Pork Chops Patterson, Dick Montgomery, Pops and Louries, Evelyn Landry, Jeannette Gridler, "Sweetie Pie" DeHart, Foster Johnson, Walter Fuller of the Hines band, Mitzi Mitchell and Ruble Blakey. Pointing toward the ivory tickler is Teddy Blackman, producer of the show, while seated on the bench with Hines is Kathleen Day.

OPEN INVITATION—

July 20, 1940 Dear Parents and Friends, The director and teaching staff of Woodson Center' Vacation School invite you to attend the fourteenth Annual Closing Program and Exhibit on Friday evening, July 20, 1940.

Articles made in the different classes of the school will be on display at the Center's building, 3009 R Street. They may be seen from five until seven o'clock as well as after the program at Bethel church which begins at eight o'clock.

Classes of the school have held in the Bethel and Mount Olive church (across the street and around the corner) also, in our small building and yard. The fine spirit of our neighboring churches and community at large still contribute much to the success of our program. 7 children between the ages of 6 and 14 years of age, were enrolled in the 12 different classes of the school, with an average daily attendance of 54.

Our regular staff and seven part time volunteers have carried the work of the school and the play ground.

Children of the school will enjoy a picnic Monday July 29th leaving the Center at 10 a. m. Parents are urged to enjoy this outing with us. Children under 10 years of age must be accompanied by parents or relative eighteen years or older.

Teachers of the school are: Mrs. Alyce Wilson, Mrs. E. M. Taylor, Rev. G. W. Hubbard, Mrs. Gertrude James, Mrs. M. Washington, Mr. Lee Moffat, Miss Annie Franklin, Miss Emma Curtis, Miss Edna Blair, Miss Loretta Agee, and Mrs. M. L. Rhone, Director of the School.

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madame C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Gossine, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.

The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, Direct Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
