

BETWEEN THE LINES

(by Dean Gordon Haneck for ANP)

THE REAL TROUBLE

When Italy went into Ethiopia a few years ago and slaughtered its defenseless inhabitants, it had the tacit understanding with England and France that its course had their approval. Two years before Mussolini ordered his armies to strike, he had the date marked on his calendar; and France and Britain knew it was marked. Ethiopia was a member of Britain's League of Nations and appealed for help, but no help was forthcoming; and so the little empire was subjugated by Italy that tried out new methods of modern warfare upon a tribal people and gloated over its success. It is true that France and Britain talked about sanctions, but this was a hypocritical gesture to appease the international indignation that their treachery rightly incurred.

Haile Selassie made the grave mistake of taking seriously the pledges of the League of Nations and while he should have been occupied with the defenses of his country, he was drinking from golden goblets, wearing his white trousers and carrying the white his inevitable umbrella. Umbrella carrying Selassie was duped and so was umbrella carrying Chamberlain. We hope that our statesmen will not take to their umbrellas for whenever the statesmen take to their umbrellas, their nations must take to the bushes for protection. It is true that the French did not have their umbrella statesmen, but these walked in the shadow of Chamberlain's. With outstretched hands Ethiopians cried unto God and Britain's League of Nations for help in her distress, but she found herself forsaken and her allies in federation with her enemies. This was the boldest stroke of international hypocrisy every witnessed before the bar of public opinion.

Today we read that Great Britain with her back to the wall is acclaiming Ethiopia as her ally. The Ethiopia that was sacrificed a few years ago is now hailed as her comrade in arms. Great promises which she will never fulfill are being vouchsafed unto Ethiopia in the hope that even the little help that Ethiopia may render in her prostrate condition, may relieve some of Britain's pressure. When a so-called mighty nation like Britain seeks help from poor Ethiopia whom she betrayed before the startled gaze of a wondering world, things must be serious indeed.

It all goes to show what England is at heart. Aside from its great protestations about its contributions to western civilization; aside from its pretenses at international paternalism, the fact must be faced that Britain has done her share of the dirty work in this world. Germany is not the only international danger this world must deal with. After the French bore the brunt of the fighting on the First World War's western front, England imposed upon Germany a shameful peace, and it is this that largely made Adolph Hitler possible. It is safe to say that Hitler was "made in Britain" when Britain recognized Haile Selassie as the ruler of an empire that was sacrificed on the altar of international duplicity, we get an idea of the real trouble with the modern world.

For quite a hundred years Britain has ruled the waves and the miles and the modern world is largely of her making. The heart of Britain can best be seen in her recent transactions with Ethiopia. To proclaim as ally one recently betrayed by her is the height of international hypocrisy. In other words, Britain can use Ethiopia now and she so proceeds. Britain used France for many generations to bear the brunt of her fighting, and now France is no more, she turns to punish Ethiopia whom she stood by and saw despoiled. She stood idly by and saw a cripple struck down by a giant and offered no succor.

It is this kind of spirit that has brought damnation to Europe. It is this kind of spirit that will ever make the nations mourn. It is this kind of spirit that will keep this world with Hitlers. So we are justified in saying that the real trouble with Europe today is that it has been largely ruled by a nation that will use those whom she has betrayed. Britain is not interested in the restoration of Selassie's kingdom but in the preservation of her own hegemony. THE REAL TROUBLE.

Calvin's Newspaper Service TESTED RECIPE

By Frances Lee Barton
IT'S easy to make a mountain out of a mole hill if you are pessimistic by nature. It's just as easy to make a treat out of a trifle—even though you assure your friends that "you never were a good cook." Follow this simple recipe carefully and you'll prepare something surprisingly delicious. Call it a "Gelatin Trifle" if you wish. Your guests will assure you it is a "Treat."

Gelatin Trifle
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin; 1 package strawberry-flavored gelatin; 2 pints hot water; 1 cup diced canned pineapple; 12 marshmallows, finely cut; lady fingers or strips of cake; canned pineapple fingers; 1 cup cream, whipped.
Dissolve each package of gelatin in 1 pint of hot water. Turn into shallow pans. Chill until firm. Cut in cubes. Combine lemon-flavored gelatin cubes and pineapple. Combine strawberry-flavored gelatin cubes and marshmallows. Line large serving dish alternately with lady fingers and pineapple fingers. Place layer of lemon gelatin mixture in serving dish, then layer of strawberry gelatin mixture; repeat finishing with layer of strawberry gelatin mixture. Top with whipped cream. Garnish with gelatin cubes, if desired. Serves 10 to 12.

ASK NEGRO ADVISOR IN WAR DEPT.

Washington, Aug. 1 (ANP) Expressing a desire to have a Negro well qualified for the position he is in the war department set-up as an advisor on Negro affairs to protect the interests of the racial group in the military department requests are being made of General Marshall, chief of staff, to place Lieut. B. O. Davis, Jr., in that capacity.

Basing the argument on the fact that Lieut. Davis is a young man qualified under military laws and training for such a position, and desiring to make this a more or less permanent assignment, members of the United Government Employees through the president of the organization, are urging this appointment feeling that the emergency which the country now faces demands action of this nature.
