VERSIE'S BEAUTY SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Mozell McCants is leaving Friday for an indefinite stay in New York City. While there she will visit her sister Mrs. Charlena Lewis. It is hoped that she will bring back some new and interesting ideas from the big city.

A new student has enrolled in the school. She is Miss Alberta Starnes. Already she has shown signs of being a promising cosmetologist.

Mrs. Rose Murrell is studying very hard in preparation for the October examinations.

I WONDER— Why Margaret Williams was sitting in the show the other night, and her boy friend was standing in the back.

Why Roscoe Smith gets so many manieures? It couldn't be that he likes the manicurist.

Why I hear about Snookum now instead of Blinkem!

Why someone called Laura a reptile Saturday night.

Why Alberta Starnes was so late coming from lunch the other day—of course anything could have happened. But I have a sneaking suspicion that Vi Anderson had something to do with it.

Why Pearl Riggs returns so often to the school. I suppose it brings back memories.

Why Mrs. Murrell wasn't at school last Monday. Could it have been that Monday was the day after Sunday.

Why the teacher is getting so domestic inclined of late. I rather think her sister inspired her.

This is your cub reporter signing off. I'll be with you next week with a bigger and better column.

FASHION

This is an afternoon frock as new as tomorrow. With back bloused and the side draped this makes as graceful and charming a frock as has been around in many a day. Fashioned in a soft shimmering crepe, with a large jeweled clasp at the side, a pair of three-quarter suede pull-ons, long strings of pearls and a tricky new hat, one would be ready for any occasion.

The upper right is another version of side drape called "side-saddle". With long sleeves and floor length skirt, made of the flattering new silk jersey, (which we all want to wear this fall) this is an ideal cocktail or dinner dress. Don't forget that the new silk jersey is so exquisite in drapery, that one never has to worry about matching jewelry—just a string of pearls, big ones are very new again, and the inevitable bracelet.

also others through the Lord. Together we stand in unity, such an organization is needed in this city. It is up to you as much as anybody else. Let us put the deal over and trade at Edholm & Sherman, Emerson Laundrys, Joe's Food Mkt. where we have a Colored butcher and the other places where they hire some of our group also be sure to inform your friends to take The Guide paper.

Tuesday, we had a large attendance and provided odd jobs for 7 persons. We still got on a drive for new members for the welfare of our group.
