A. A. B.—My husband has been sick for quite a while. We are planning to sell our home and move away. Will he do better?

Ans: The responsibility of keeping a home is mighty hard for you two old people. If it is what you want to do—then sell and move to the city and get you a nice comfortable apartment. You will be able to get better medical service for your husband and no doubt he will gain in strength. I am sure you will be made happy if you take the present steps you have in mind.

P. C.—My wife wont stay at home at all and I want to know if it is best that I get me a divorce? Should I keep giving over to her like I do?

Ans: A man 66 years of age should avoid a divorce if it is at all likely that he can solve his problem. Your wife is going thru an age of "gadding about" and you may as well adjust yourself to it. It won't last long for she won't be physically able to continue at this pace. Humor her and say nothing.—In a few months or a year life will be different for you.

M. A. F.—Please Sir tell me what is going to happen to me? Tell me what to do if you can?

Ans: At the present time your life doesn't appear to be so complicated. There is just one sure thing—you must get out and search for a job and don't be satisfied until you are working. That alone will solve your problem and I urge that you begin immediately. Young women with less training than you have are having to work and support themselves and you must do it also.

E. C. C.—Dear Doctor: In the name of the Lord will you try and fix my grandfather so he will let me go to school when it first opens up? Fix him so he will ask me when will school open up? Fix him so he will buy all my school clothes and shoes? Fix him so he will do it quickly. Thank you.

Ans: Your wishes are beyond any power on earth. It is indicated to me that he will allow you to go to school this year. Why don't you get one of the neighbors (one that he respects) to talk up your point to him. Any outside influence will help. In the meantime do everything you can for the old

JEALOUS WOMAN KILLS RIVAL; WOUNDS LOVER

Los Angeles, Calif. August 4— "The Eternal Triangle" one of a hospital near death, the third is in the custody of the law.

Several years ago, Richard Tobin, 42, watchman by night and cleaner of cars by day at the Super Fint Service station at the corner of S. Alameda and S. Washington boulevard, kept company with Lucretia McCleod, 38 years of age, who lived at 1702 E. 17th street.

She loaned him a gun, a .32 calibre Smith and Wesson.

Tobin subsequently broke off with Mrs. McCleod and started keeping company with Mrs. Carolyn Atkinson, 32, of 2113 Compton avenue.

Last Friday night about 11:30 Tobin drove into the service station and Mrs. Atkinson was in the car. Mrs. McCleod was there. She asked him for "a package." He said "What package?" He then went into his quarters, reached through a slit in the mattress and handed her the gun.

Tobin started walking from his quarters and the woman opened fire. Tobin fell, with bullet wounds in his head and chest. Miss McCleod whirled on Mrs. Atkinson who had been running in an opposite direction and fired twice, one of the bullets was fatal.

WOMAN IDENTIFIED
Newton street officers E. C. McGruder and R. C. Washington answered the police car and Tobin was removed to the General Hospital where his condition remains serious.

Mrs. Atkinson was found Saturday morning some distance from the scene of the shooting but her identity was not known at the time. She was identified subsequently at the County morgue after Det. Lieut. Fred Trosper of the Homicide Detail had questioned Tobin. He also told the officer by whom he was shot.

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madam C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's GLOSSINE, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.

The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct. Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
