KEY FIGURES IN COLORED DEMOCRATIC CIRCLES—

Accompanying mat shows four of the nationally known characters, who were brought into the New Deal set-up by President Roosevelt so that he would always be in position to obtain first hand information regarding the Negro population, his needs and ambitions; and so that his best interests could be served in the same degree that the rest of the citizenry is served. Left to right, Dr. Frank S. Horne, acting Authority; Attorney William L. Houston, special assistant to the Attorney General, Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, directory Negro Division of National Youth Administration and Edgar G. Brown, special adviser with the Civilian Conservation Corps. Others who occupy important positions in the administration (not shown) are T. Arnold Hill, recently appointed assistant to Dr. Bethune; Robert C. Weaver, of the Council of National Defense; Elmer Martin Lancaster, special advisor to the Commerce Department; J. Arthur Weiseger, special economist in the department of Labor; George W. Crockett, Jr., special assistant in the Wages and Hours division of the department of Labor; Joseph R. Houchins, special advisor in the bureau of Census, and William J. Trent, race relations officer in the personnel division of the Federal Works Agency.

MAPLETON CIGARETTES EMPLOYEES RACE GIRL TO INTRODUCE NEW PRODUCT

The lovely Mrs. Margaret Black of New York has been given the honor of being the first member of her race to be employed by a cigarette company in a merchandising effort.

Mapleton Cigarettes, Mrs. Black's employer, has engaged her for an indefinite period to introduce this new quality, cigarette. Her position will be in the main, to sample these cigarettes to members of her race.

Outside of Miss Mapleton, Miss Beech-Nut has been an interesting figure in various sections of the country. The Beech-Nut sampling girls have played an important part in the popularity of Beech-Nut Gum in the better circles.

The success of such products as Mapleton Cigarettes, Beech-Nut Gum, etc., may lead to a wider use of promotions of this sort which are highly regarded and deeply appreciated inasmuch as they not only introduce us to better products but do so in a way which is most pleasing, while furnishing a new and better type of employment for our people.

groups—we all need courage and wisdom and patience as great changes do not come over night.

"In the past few years we have come far along the road to a better understanding, a greater appreciation of the dignity of human individuals regardless of race, color or creed. We can make all democracy better by all giving the best we have to give—I pledge to you my faith, my cooperation to make this a better country, not for you alone but for all. This will make all feel our country is safe and a better place in which to live.

Mrs. Roosevelt received a tremendous ovation from the audience as she took her seat. Ashley Totten then rose, declared it "was not a political meeting nor do I wish to speak of politics but Franklin D. Roosevelt is the greatest man ever to step into the white House." Waves of applause greeted this statement.

Totten next introduced Mayor LaGuardia, "a friend of the common people", who told listeners that it had been made perfectly clear "that this was a nonpartisan meeting and therefore I can speak in ease. In any gathering of men and women who toil for a living and who have witnessed the progress made by the brotherhood in the past few years, would also be non-partisan and for Franklin D. Roosevelt". (Loud cheers) "I want to tell you all that your great success was not only in the right to organize, increase wages and gain better working conditions but it was in giving self-respect to every employed Pullman porter."

Walter White, field secretary of the NAACP took to task William Green for his speech before the brotherhood Sunday at Salem Church in which Green stated "I am against intolerance and racial prejudice as long as I can express myself". White cited numerous instances to refute this statement. Lieut. Gov. Poletti paid tribute to the BSCP and Randolph and ended his speech by calling Mrs. Roosevelt the "quintessence of American Democracy".

Other speakers who praised the BSCP and their 15 year fight with the Pullman company included the Rev. William Loyd Ines and C. L. Dellums, fourth international vice

VERSIE'S BEAUTY SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Winston has a new student in the personage of Miss Eunice Hunter who has taken an avid interest in the work.

The school received a letter from Miss Mozell McCants who is now working in New York City in her sister's Mrs. Charlene Lewis' shop. She writes that she is making wonderful progress, although we miss her so much we do wish her president. At the conclusion of the dinner Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Bethune were beset by autograph seekers. They shook hands with their numerous admirers. This was the first public appearance of Mrs. Bethune since her recent illness.

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.
 The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madam C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Gossine, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvet-like softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.

The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct. Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
