J. E. C.—My husband is a drunkard, but he will not take a drink until Saturday night. He works all the week and hardly goes anywhere and when Saturday comes if he touches a drop he stays out all night. He gets silly and unpleasant. I like to go out to dances and be in society and he doesn't tell me what to do?

Ans: This husband of yours is a very self-conscious man—he drinks it is true but he does suffer terribly from an inferiority complex. I believe that if you were to come down to his level—enjoy the things that he provides for you more and treat him as a pal—he will change. He doesn't drink every week—that alone is proof that he isn't a confirmed drunkard.

I. J. J.—Will I get the job I applied for and tell me if the boy I am going with loves me or not?

Ans: It is only a matter of a few days or a couple of weeks until you find steady employment. You are on the right track right now. The young man you are going with does love you—but it is indicated to me that you will meet someone right after Thanksgiving who will mean more to you than he does.

H. B.—This man I have fussed and nags about everything that I do and all that I don't do. He never has a word of praise. Things I do are always done wrong or not done to suit him. Is it wise for me to continue on here or leave?

Ans: Leave. You had no business going there to begin with and neither you or this man either will be happy as long as you stay. The old boy friend back in your home town has some news for you—overlook the mistake he made recently and take him back again.

F. R.—My son is in college and he isn't altogether pleased with the course he is taking. What can I do to make things different for him?

Ans: Arrange to take a trip down to see him and his Dean. Talk the whole thing over with the Dean and try to get his schedule arranged right. There is no need to keep wasting time for the boy will not remain in school very much longer unless he gets to take the subjects that interest him.

G. B.—This minister that has recently come to our church has shown me a lot of attention. I believe he is sincere and he asked me to marry him. Tell me if it would be a good idea or not?

Ans: You're right—he's stuck on you plenty. I urge you to marry the Minister. He will provide a nice home and since you take so much interest in church work and are able to play for the choir—you two will get along exceptionally well.

G. B.—Will I get to make the trip to Southern California this year with my people?

Ans: Yes—you can go along with your people if you say the word. They will be tickled to have you join them as usual and I urge you to go. The climate will do you a world of good as well as the change. Hold to such a fine job—they certainly aren't common right now.

M. P.—I am 15. Everytime a boy comes around my father acts grumpy. What can I do to keep him from worrying us to death about the boys.

Ans: Nothing. This is a problem that you must put up with as long as you live in your father's house. He doesn't like the idea of you and your sister running around and will have something to say each time you go out. Learn not to let him worry you,—but don't forget that he has your best interest at heart.

C. L. S.—I am a young girl still in school. I have made one big mistake which dragged my reputation almost to nothing. I am paying for it with heart ache and pains. Boys are saying things that are true and things that are not true too. How and what must I do?

Ans: Build your reputation again—for it really has been shattered to some extent. The young man you feel you are in love with doesn't love you—he's the guy that is carrying a big portion of the gossip about you. Go with the nicer girls and boys—don't try to have too many dates for awhile and by all means act a lady.

THE EUREKA ART CLUB

The Eureka Art Club held its regular meeting Nov. 6th with the President as hostess. The business meeting was presided over by the vice president. There were eleven members present. The sick of the club are Mrs. Eva Sharp and Mrs. Argie Mayberry. The hostess served a lovely repast. Next meeting November 27 with Mrs. Greta Wade of 2715 Binney St. Effie Moore, Pres., H. Ward, Reporter.

QUACK CLUB NOTES

Well folks, here is more news from the Quack Club—

Our Social Chairman had charge of the meeting last Friday night. The Heinz soup demonstrator showed a very interesting movie of how soup and can goods were founded. Then he served each person in the audience a cup of mushroom soup which was very delicious. There were seventy-five people present and each one was given a family size can of soup to take home. So that's where all the girls got their soup last Friday night.

We then had a very short business meeting. There were also several old members who rejoined the club.

A group of fourteen girls attended the world fellowship dinner at the Central YWCA. last Wednesday, November 13th.

A bridge and whist tournament will be held at the Northside Y.W.C.A. Thursday, December 12th at 8:30 p. m. given by the Quack Club. Let's not forget the prizes and refreshments. Thanks Visitors and club girls for the splendid showing last Friday night.

I think I'll say goodbye now! Dorothy Ferguson, Pres., Milly Bone, Reporter.

This Week In Religion and Thought

BY ROBT. L. MOODY

Let Us Be Thankful—

"Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men! For He satisfieth the longing soul and filleth the hungry soul with goodness" Psa. 107:8-9.

There is no better exaltation to be given than this one. If this in-treaty were obeyed our world would be more joyful. Every person has something to be thankful for whether he is poverty stricken or prosperous. The mercies of God prevent our present life and condition from being worse.

Thanksgiving Day is truly an American celebration and tradition. This year we have more to be thankful for than previously. Our neighbors across the sea are either struggling against or being conquered by ruthless, selfishness and war. Many have been driven from their homes for which they have spent their lives. They are told to go, but where? Their homes are taken by the conquerors. We, Americans are yet able to live in our homes this season in peace. Although our homes might be a mansion or cottage, shack or apartment, hut or hovel, we may live in them in peace. For this we should be thankful. There are hundreds of other things that we can count as blessing such as food, friends, health, relatives, etc.

All things do not go well at all times, but their is always something about the worst thing that we can thank God for, if only we are thankful that the experience is not worst as it surely could have been.

"IN EVERYTHING GIVE THANKS: FOR THIS IS THE WILL OF GOD IN CHRIST JESUS CONCERNING YOU."—I Thess. 5:18.

SPORTS

(by Chas. Washington)

The regular Hi-Urban League started last Tuesday night.

Last Friday Tech and Prep battled to a 13-13 tie at the Hilltop. Harry Rutledge's 60 yard return of a Prep punt was the outstanding run of the day and also gave Tech the tie and inter-city championship. He and Bob Jones played the entire game and played wide awake ball. Joe Crossley got in for one play and was thrown for a 7 yard loss. He has been ailing since playing 31 minutes against North in the opener for Tech. It was the best game played in the city for some time. But the goodness of the game was overshadowed when the Tech players had to walk back to school. Virgil Williams and Joe Allen took a load back and proved that they were real friends to athletes trying to play for the fun of it. This deed was the "best play of the day".

Jackie "Midnight Express" Robinson led UCLA. to a 34-26 win over Washington State. Robinson passed to mates for the first three uclans touchdowns and then clinaxed the game with two brilliant runs of 61 yards and 75 yards. He also kicked four extra points. Ray Bartlett played a fine game at blocking back.

Boston college edged past Georgetown 19-18. Lou Montgomery scored twice. The first one was a eleven yard sprint and later from the 33rd Archie Harris caught a pass and ran 69 yards to give Ohio state six points. They were beaten by Wisconsin 27-10.

Joe Louis will defend his title against Al McCoy in Boston Dec. 16th.

Simon in the Olympic Gardens Friday night.

The Harlem Globe Trotters, world pro-basketball champs will play the College All-Stars at the Chicago Stadium November 29.

The Bishop Wildeats and the Wiley Tigers will continue their rivalry November 30. The Tigers had one 11 and the Wildeats 4 and in 1927 they tied.

DEATHS

Mrs. Octavia Ward age 90, died early Tuesday morning, November 19th at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Holiday, 2820 R. Avenue, with whom she had made her home while living here. A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madam C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Glosline, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.

The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct. Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.

"Build-Up" Relief Explained To Women

A simple method has saved many a lot of suffering! It is based on the fact that head aches, nervousness, cramp-like pain are often symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition. Help for this condition so often follows the use of CARDUI, because it usually increases the appetite and the flow of gastric juice thus aids digestion and helps build physical resistance. Usual result is less periodic distress.

Many who take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time" have found this also helps ease periodic discomfort. Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years.
