PALMER MEMORIAL INSTITUTE IN GALA HOMECOMING

It was a great day for Palmer Memorial Institute last Friday as one can judge by the happy faces in the above group of photos. The Palmer Hornets held the Silver City Trojan in a triumphant home coming game, 31-0 at Grant field. During the first half, pretty Caroline Jordan, pictured above on the perch of the float, was crowned Miss Homecoming. One of the most important of the day's events was the spectacular parade of class floats, handsomely attired and decorated with everything from a covered wagon to a mimic hearse to carry the losing team off the field. Alumni far and near came to be with their alma mater's on the important day. Among those present who were introduced at the supper in Kimbell Hall, after the game were, Miss Victoria Cordice, Miss Minnona Gomes, Mr. Herbert Wilson. To top off the day, Palmer's charming President, the First Lady of Social Graces, Charlotte Hawkins Brown, spoke a hearty welcome to the graduates and hoped more will come next year. (Calvin) side down and broke it and I wish to know for what reason?

Ans: Some young man who liked one of these girls feels that he received a raw deal from the one he was interested in—and there fore he sought revenge. He didn't know which one was hers so he left his respect at both apartments He won't be showing himself around there anymore—he's long gone.

N. B.—This boy I met recently asked me for a date and then stands me up. Tell me does he care for me as I care for him? What is wrong as I like him a darn lot.

Ans: Too bad—he doesn't feel the same way about you. He asked you for a date merely to find out if you would allow him to come to see you—he isn't interested as he stands you up each time you give him permission to visit you. Don't continue to let him embarrass you in such a manner as he has recently.

R. M. C.—Will I make a successful singer? How and when should I go about it as I am very interested along this line?

Ans: I feel that you have talent. It is my suggestion that you try to join the CHURCH CHOIR and concentrate on improving your voice thru this source. Study a year with the church choir and then make arrangements to take vocal lessons.

WHO IS TO BLAME FOR THE SUFFERING OF THE COLORED PEOPLE SAYS LWUWO

The Low Wage and Unemployed Workers organization met last Monday at 8 p. m. at 1837 North 24th St., at the Church of Divergence. The discussion by Rev. Oglesby and ex-Policeman Thomas, and Mr. Grant Parker were very interesting. The Low Wage and Unemployed Worker, blame the commercial and industrial places for not hiring a certain percentage of our people in their employment. We helped to build this country to what it is today in the so-called land of the free and in which every man is supposed to be equal. We are so divided and oppressed—we must unite together in one body. A part of our fault lies on some of our leaders and some of the leading politicians and we hope that someday they will see their mistakes and bring things to the light. People seeking Old Age Assistance, ABC, and Relief should attend these meetings. The Douglas County Relief is inadequate. We advise every member of our race to take the Guide paper and read our article every week about our meetings which are held or your husband and be a better mother to these children. If you change—they will do likewise and conditions will run along smoothly again.

V. G. I can't give either one of my two boy friends up and it seems to be the same with them. I love C. and I love B. What shall I do?

Ans: Well—I am afraid that you THREE had better get together and work this problem out. They both care for you and since you can't make up your mind which one you like the best—continue on with both of them as you are doing and by next summer you will make a decision.

L. M. H.—Since my girl pal and I are not friends as we once were I don't have as many boy friends. Has this girl been saying things about me? Will I find a nice friend soon?

Ans: This girl friend of yours had nothing to say about your character—she still admires you very much. It just happens that a girl cannot enjoy herself as much when she doesn't have friends as she can when she has friends. Make up with the girl—it will improve both your chances to meet nice boys. It will be a couple of years before you find the boy you want for a husband—get out and have some fun.

A. L. J.—I wish to know if my husband told me the truth Saturday night or was he just out riding around?

Ans: Believe him this time—he had to work straight thru until 12:30 Saturday night. He wasn't with a girl on this particular night.

M. L. D.—I have two renters. While they were away someone broke in both apartments, burning one's clothes and tore up the radio, oiler her bed and ransacked all drawers. In the other room turned her beautiful dresser up-
