LUCKY-MARTIN NUPTIALS

Miss Jacqueline Luckey and Mr. Fred Martin were married in a quiet ceremony at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Drennan, at 2625 Wirt Street, on Wednesday night, February 5, 1941.

Only relatives of the bride and the groom were present at the wedding.

The bride was beautiful in a Soldier Blue Crepe informal dress with white lace trim, Military beret in matching blue, brown suede and alligator spectator pumps and brown Martin fur chubby. Her costume carried out the bridal tradition of "Something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue." Dress, hat and fur chubby were new, a watch was old, and from her sister Mrs. Evelyn Fountain she borrowed pumps. The dress in addition to being new was also blue.

The couple will reside at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Vernon Johnson, 616 North 45th Street.

Mrs. Fred Martin was honored at a bridal shower given by her sister, Mrs. Evelyn Fountain on Tuesday, February 4, 1941 at her home. A reception for the couple will be given by the groom's mother, on Sunday afternoon, February 9, at 2625 Wirt Street.

THE CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD WCFP.

2316 North 25th Street Rev. S. K. Nichols, Pastor, Pearl Farmer, Reporter. Sunday school opened at the usual hour with Supt. P. Robinson in charge.

A very interesting lesson was discussed.

The 11 o'clock message was delivered by our pastor, Rev. S. K. Nichols, from St. John 19:15. Subject "Behold the Man." This was indeed a wonderful sermon that each and everyone should have witnessed.

At three o'clock, we were favored with a program rendered by Bishop Prince for the Benefit of our pastor. This was a wonderful program. Many of our hometown prophets and prophetesses appeared on the program and demonstrated in brief some parts of their talents. We all appreciate the wonderful hospitality of Bishop Prince in rendering such an outstanding program for the benefit of our pastor.

6 o'clock Bible Class, as usual was well attended and very interesting.

The evening services were well attended. And the pastor delivered the message from Gen. 3:4—Psalms 49:7 subject: "Satan Had Kidnapped the World, but Jesus Christ Paid the Ransom." This sermon stirred many a soul. If you weren't present you really missed a good time. But don't fail to come out during the revival and rejoice in the Lord with us. Many visitors and friends were present and were also healed. This meeting will continue indefinitely, but we'll need all of your cooperation. So don't fail to attend each nightly meetings. Services begin at 7:30 o'clock. The public is in-

This Week In Religion and Thought BY ROBT. L. MOODY

Negro History Week—

The Week of February 9-16, 1941, will be celebrated as Negro History Week. This is the sixteenth Annual celebration. The date is set so that it may cover the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglas, and to approach as nearly as possible the birthday of George Washington.

These men were opposed to slavery and tried to convince others of its evil.

One who is interested in this study should not wait for this one week or one month, but a general study should be made throughout the year. Emphasis is being placed this year upon: The Negro in Foreign Lands: This study is to give valuable information about the Negro and his achievements in Africa, Asia, Europe, West Indies and other parts of the world.

If you are interested in Negro History, attend the special Negro program that will be given Monday (February 10th in the Urban Life Auditorium at 8 p. m. or attend some class where these studies are made. We should know more of the worthwhile people and achievements of the Negro and we should spread less of the unworthy and embarrassing examples.

taxi business in Evanston, assisted by his brothers and his mother, Mrs. Harriet Jones. From 1922 to 1926 he worked as club car steward on the 20th Century Limited, and in 1927 he entered the lottery racket.

He first became a policy writer or numbers salesman, then he operated a policy station, bossing a number of policy writers and cash runners, and finally in 1929 became the owner of his own wheel.

To show how profitable the racket is, the government disclosed that the brothers spent, from 1931 through 1938, $2,721,911, while their income tax returns showed an income of only $1,358,270. The difference, minus cash on hand Jan. 1, 1939, was what they were charged with failing to declare as income: $1,307,519.

Ed testified under oath that the income from the three drawings a day at his wheel leaped from $2,000 each 24 hours in 1933 to $10,000 each 24 hours in 1938.

Where the brothers got their initial $15,000, the government did not say, but added they had it in 1929. By Dec. 31, 1938, the net worth of the brothers and their mother was given as $1,600,000. Their cash was kept in 25 separate bank accounts, and grew from $8,000 to $204,000 from 1931 thru 1938; their government securities holdings rose from $116,000 to $562,000; annuities, from nothing to $123,000; industrial bonds, nothing to $143,000; stocks, nothing to $113,000; real estate, nothing to $229,000; municipal bonds, nothing to $107,000.

The government's "Exhibit A", a three and one half foot sheet breaking down the Jones' brothers financial holdings, listed a number of items that appeared to be political payoffs for protection. Some of these items were frankly labeled "pay-offs" and ranged from $8,625 to $32,234 a year. Other "unidentified withdrawals" ranged from $30 to more than $9,000 a year.

The living expenses for the brothers and their mother, in their palatial apartment at 4726 S. Michigan avenue, was given as $30,000 a year.

William H. Haynes, attorney representing the defendants, declared the government figures, "much exaggerated". He said the men operate tailor shops, department stores and real estate businesses besides the policy game, and

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madam C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Gossine, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.

The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct. Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
