MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

(by Booker T. Washington) There seems to be a very prevalent habit of "jazzing the Negro Spirituals" among the members of Swingland. Just the other evening I heard Artie Shaw play "Nobody Knows De' Trouble I Seen" in a highly swing arrangement with all the jazz chords interpolated into this piece of music which represent all the hardships and trials that our foreparents had to bear.

The Negro spirituals were born in the bosoms of people who found a great relief and a heavenly peace after the singing of these songs. To hear them jazzed up as the modern orchestras and musicians are so doing now, it seems that the listening public should get up in arms against such treatment to the songs that meant so much to our own foreparents.

Sgt. Lloyd is stationed at the ammunition depot near Savannah, Illinois, and is instructing new conscripts in governmental administration, military supplies and other related subjects.

Another young man from Omaha, Edward Tate, Jr., was promoted to Staff Sergeant. The Omaha Guide joins the families of these two young men in wishing them every possible success.

"GOD'S PLANS" I know not how or when My life on earth will end But I know my fate shall be Just what my God has planned for me.

When sunny skies grow dim 'Tis then my faith grows strong For I know it is the way, God planned to test my faith in Him.

Whatever God has planned For me in days to come He will give me strength to stand And say O' God, they will be done.

I'll sing God's praises when I reach my journey's end And for every step He planned That lead me to the promised land. —by Myrtle M. Goodlow.

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day. The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madam C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Gossline, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman. Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder, but is just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days. The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
