Love Sick:—It seems that I have made a mess of my life for love. I love the man I am with. He is nice to me but at times, it seems like he has spells and he snaps out of his mind. Advise me the best thing to do about him as I do not want to leave him?
Ans: If you do not want to leave him, then you must put up with the spells that he has occasionally. I don't think there is anything wrong with his mind. When he gets worried about money and business—he gets moody and depressed and takes the spite out on you. Make up your mind to overlook him these little bad points of his.

Ans: Living in such a small place and your means so limited—you will either have to go in NURSE TRAINING or borrow money to take TEACHERS TRAINING. I feel that you would make an excellent nurse. When you finish this course and work awhile—you could then take a business course if you like.

J. L.—I am a young girl in love with a man eight-years my senior. I want to know how to make him love me? I have called him several times on the phone and told him but it doesn't seem to do any good?
Ans: Well—I think it would be to your advantage to stop calling him on the phone for he doesn't love you and is engaged to marry another girl. This man just does not care for you like you seem to care for him and you must stop thinking about him.

N. G.—I am a senior in high school and I am all confused as to what I want to take up. Do you have any idea what I would like?

Ans: Well—I think it would be to your advantage to stop calling him on the phone for he doesn't love you and is engaged to marry another girl. This man just does not care for you like you seem to care for him and you must stop thinking about him.

B. C. M.—Is it advisable for me to take up this offer and go north as I have planned? Would conditions be alright for me up there? I have never been north and do not know whether to accept this offer or not.
Ans: Personally, I think that it is a splendid offer that you have received and I urge you to make the change. Going to a big city will be very interesting to you. You are going to be kept very busy and you won't have a chance to form a dislike for the place.

F. L. J.—There are twin sisters I have been looking at. I love the prettiest one. Tell me if I should drop my present girl friend and take up with this girl I have in mind?
Ans: No—continue to go with the girl back home. I don't think you are going to win the twin over as easily as you think and you will want someone to fall back on. The twin girl is liked by many young men and competition will be rather stiff I am afraid. The girl from your home town cares an awful lot for you—feel reasonably sure of yourself before dropping her.

Lending a Helping Hand

With the restoration of peace in China, many citizens who had fled to the country are returning to their homes. Here in Canton, a Japanese soldier is shown aiding Chinese women with their lost household goods.

TRAINER PLANES FOR DEFENSE
Middletown, Ohio—with the government embarked on an extensive program of civilian pilot training, the production of light training ships has become one of the air plane industry's major defense problems. Shown here are J. W. Friedlander right, executive vice-president of Aeronca Aircraft greeting Lee H. Smith, the new sales chief on his arrival at the factory, here, with news that production in 1941 will exceed 2,000 doubling that of a year ago.

NATION'S OLDEST TWINS
Bloomfield, Iowa—Mrs. Jane Giles, left and Miss Rader both of Pulaski, Iowa, are Iowa's undisputed oldest twins. They are 96 yrs. old and are in fair health. They were born in 1845 at Piketown, Ohio, and are believed to be among the oldest twins in the United States.

Girls On the Street
Who'll be next? Uncle Sam has taken three more of our fine young men, in the person of Mr. William Penn, Quincy Taylor and Charles Buckley.
A party was given at Gaynell's house the other night. All of the hipsters were there, and everyone reported having a fine time.
Mary Harris was seen at the Masonic the other night at the Sadie Hawkins dance. She was with her heart beat.
Walterine Wright has been going over to visit Lyndell P. since her cousin is visiting here from California.
I see that Myrtle Thomas is getting around since she has been back from the west coast.
Morris McGee is visiting our fair city. We know Morris will have a fine time while here because he looks like Gable's brother.
Is he a man or mouse, we use to wonder, but now we know. He has a ten pound baby boy to show.
Seen: Herman Vernell with two young hens at the Omara U. with one on each arm.
Gene Harrison has found him a new love. It must be love and not no jive.

Why did a certain cat join the Mt. Calvary Church the other week? Was it his soul he wanted to save or his heart?

Well, until next week, GIRLS ON THE STREET SIGNING OFF—Until then We'll be seeing U.

Neutral Switzerland Bombed

Soundphoto—Three persons were killed when an aerial bomb scored a direct hit on this home in Basel, Switzerland. The Swiss caption on this photo did not attempt to fix blame for this bombing although several similar incidents have been blamed on British flyers who mistook blacked-out towns for German or Italian territory, it was reported.

ITALY IS ACTING TO PREVENT MASSACRE BY THE ETHIOPIANS
Vichy, France, Feb. 11 (ANP)—When several weeks ago the British offered to guarantee the safe conduct of the 100,000 Italians settled in Ethiopia since the Italian conquest, Italian officials scoffed at the proposal. Friday, however, Count Guiseppe Volpi, Italy's former finance minister, stopped over here on his way to London to negotiate for the evacuation of the white civilian population.
It was Haile Selassie's spectacular advances in Ethiopia, coupled with the fact that the British are nearing Gondar, that brought about Rome's new view of the matter.

Effective Laxative Makes Happy Friends
This laxative makes friends that stand by it because it acts just as thoroughly as harsher ones, but is a gentle persuader when taken by the simple directions.
BLACK-DRAUGHT is a spicy, aromatic, purely vegetable medicine. Its chief ingredient is an "intestinal tonic-laxative" that helps tone lazy bowel muscles.
Next time a laxative is needed, take BLACK-DRAUGHT. Used at bedtime by directions, it generally permits a good sleep; acts gently, thoroughly next morning; relieves constipation's headaches, biliousness, sour stomach. It is economic, too, 25 to 40 doses: 25c.
