ine. Dan Gillmor's two-fisted, a-rousing commentary on William Randolph Hearst virtually makes the type come alive. Dan Gillmore says: "William R. Hearst has filed suit against Friday. Hearst says we have injured him and his King Features. He wants $500,000 in damages!"

"Well, Mr. Hearst has come to the right place. I take it as a compliment and a challenge—because I can think of no one whom I would rather square off with—because I can think of no one who more completely stands for the things I loathe than this greedy, powerful, old man who has spent the last quarter-century dragging every decent tradition of American journalism in the mud."

"Much of the record of Hearst's yellow journalism is already before the court of judgement of the American people, where, in the last analysis, most things are decided. Now that the challenge has been made, we are going to spread the record out for you. We will say that the Hearst press has deliberately, maliciously and insultingly lied about many of the finest institutions in America—he has used his paper to break strikes—to foment wars, to set men against their fellow men, and prove that—

"Hearst and all of his works are as alien to this freedom-loving, tyrant-hating America of ours as is any foreign dictator. I welcome his suit against Friday. We will hit back—hard, and above the belt

IN MEMORY OF ALMA ZETT ALLEN 1875-1936

Guide thy, Mother tenderly, Down life's steep decline Once her arm was thy support Then she leaned on thine.

Seen upon her loving face Those deep lines of Care Think it was her toil for thee Left that record there.

Ne'er forget her tireless watch Kept by day and night Taking from her step the grace From her eyes the light.

Cherish well her faithful heart, Which through many years Echoed with its sympathy All thy smiles and tears.

Thank God for thy mother's love, Guard the priceless hour, For the bitter parting hour Cometh all too soon.

And when thy grateful tenderness Lost power to save Earth will hold no dearer spot, Than thy mother's grave. —Mrs. Paul Barnett.

RECUPERATING— John Adams, Jr., who recently underwent a minor operation is recuperating at his home.

AMERICAN HISTORY (by Myrtle M. Goodlow) America, through all the pages of thy history, We have proved our love for thee. Crispus Attucks was the first to answer thy call And on freedom's altar laid his all

On Virginia's blood soaked land, Yes even on a foreign strand, We too have fought, bled and died For this Our native land— And for the principles for which it stands. America for Our Flag We fought Does the blood We shed mean nought to thee.

Never in all thy history— Have we betrayed Our country. Yet for all Our bravery and loyalty— We are barred from the U. S. navy.

OH! America I turn the pages Of thy future history. And there read thy destiny— From one blood God created all men— The Jew, the Aryan, the Caucasian, the African— All are equal in His sight. Kingdoms rise or fall— by His might! For He is King and God of All!

MUSIC AND—MUSICIANS (by Booker T. Washington)

In February, 1937, Sir James Jeans published a book called, Science and Music. In it he stated that the music of the future will be formed of discordant notes that jar us at present. He also stated that such musical combinations will be made from a "53 Note Scale".

Henry Crowell, New York musician has created a new system of producing overtones. Also he has written music that includes playing in a cluster like style 12 notes at once. Such books and music lead one to believe that music which the "classists" now refuse to consider as good music will soon be accepted.

CRITIC PRAISES MORRIS McGEE (by Booker T. Washington) Morris McGee, tenor, a former Omaha lad, came back to his home town and sang at a concert on Monday night, a program of excellent spiritual music. Mr. McGee will be remembered for his marvelous work at North High school in the Music department, where he took part in the operatic productions given by North High. The singer's voice was in fine condition. He showed a great deal of serious study in the technique of handling his voice. It was interesting to listen to his fine, soft tones, they were his forte. However, he was capable of producing very dramatic climaxes which proved inspiring to the audience. He was assisted by the St. John's Gospelers, a male group who proved themselves worthy of great praise in singing as a group.

Mr. McGee will be long remembered by Omaha and we will patiently wait for his return. William Kyles, our own lyric tenor, proved scholarly accompaniments.

HOLD MEETING The NAACP held a meeting at Zion Baptist Church on Sunday, March 9. The President, Arthur B. McCaw directed the report on recent investigations. There were remarks by Rev. T. A. Sears. The Southern Breezes rendered musical selections and Miss Ruth Forrest sang a solo. Mr. J. Westbrook McPherson, the Program Chairman discussed the program for 1941. The Association took in 13 new members at this meeting. Mr. Clifford McKinney was Master of Ceremonies.

This Week In Religion and Thought BY ROBT. L. MOODY

Dark Clouds— Recent articles in the Pittsburgh Courier by R. Walter Ferguson, have made thoughtful readers to shudder with horror. If his revelations are true, the French black troops were used as mere breast-plates for the British and French armies. Then the later revelations of what possibly happened to those who were taken prisoners, makes the strongest quake with fear.

Finally, the story of Hans Habe which is written in the Nation magazine and quoted in the Courier, reveals the method of spreading race hatred and Hitler's Six-point program for Negroes. There is nothing hopeful in any of these stories, so American Negroes are left with a three fold duty.

We must pray for, prepare and protect the principles of true democracy. We will not have similar experiences if we do our part in keeping democracy alive. But if we fail, we use us if the democracies are defeated. Our only hope is in the sun of righteousness.

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madame C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Glossine, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman. Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days. The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct. Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
