MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CH.

F. P. Jones, Minister,
Mrs. F. Burroughs, Reporter

Sunday was another beautiful day, greeted by the glory of the morning and kissed by the golden rays of the rising sun. This always reminds us of our Heavenly Father's tender love and care.

The Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m. with the Supt. and the teachers at their posts. The children and adults were present to answer the roll call. Each class is contesting for the attendance and offerings banner, and it is really, who is who.

Our pastor, Rev. Jones was somewhat indisposed and wasn't out. The officers took charge of the morning and evening services and had an old fashioned speaking meeting which brought down the fire from on high. Out of the army Christian experiences given, was proof that God is real.

The Church is marching on through with its many auxiliaries weekly. Beginning with the S. S. and B. T. U. workers conference, Friday at 7 p. m. W. W. and H. H. Clubs Tues., 8 p. m. Objective—Prayer meeting, Wednesday 8 p. m. Missionary Society Thursday, 2 p. m. Choir and Usher meeting and rehearsal Friday 8 p. m. So if you want to hear and feel heart felt and soul singing come to Mt. Moriah—A church of fellowship and a cordial welcome.

We fail to tell you of the result of that most glorious day, Easter Sunday, the brightest day of history, found us every early, not at the Sepulchre of two thousand years ago, no, but at the temple of God in reverence of Him who through the resurrection of Jesus Christ sealed our redemption. This was a glorious period, which set the house in order for all that was to follow throughout the day.

The Sunday School presented a splendid program at 10 p. m. The Supt. Mrs. Hill and Teachers and Parents' hearts were made to rejoice when they listened to the children recite their pieces and sing their songs. Each one was dressed becoming the day of Easter, altogether they reminded us of a garden of beautiful lilies,—clothed in humility and service.

The pastor preached morning and evening. Baptizing four at 11 a. m. They were Sylvester Easley, Hildred Sanders, James Shelton, Jean Reagins. Others will be baptized later. This was a day long to be remembered. The pastor was at his best at all three periods of the day. Many members and friends of the city and out of town were visitors with us. The Choir brought tears of rejoicing from the eyes of many who listened to their song of sweet melody. They presented a service known as the gospel feast each Sunday night. Come and tune in and hear them. Remember you are always welcome at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church.

A. P.—I am writing to see if you can tell me the right way for my son to do as he can't get anything to do here. He has bought furniture and can't pay on it and he has a wife and children. Should he leave and go where he has in mind?

Ans: A change is what he needs alright, but I am sure that he could find a job closer to home than the place he has in mind to go. I don't advise his going miles away from home to look for work. Help him get out to the nearest city and he should be able to find work within a couple of weeks, if he registers at the agencies, runs a few ads in the papers and makes personal calls on various businesses. Do all that you can for them while they are down and out.

J. D. K.—Please help me by printing in the next issue of the paper about this affair of mine. Tell me if this boy friend really loves me or am I in for a disappointment?

Ans: The boy loves you, and that is why he is so thoughtful and nice. I do not think that you would go wrong by putting your faith and confidence in this boy.

F. P.—Is this an unlucky place here where we are or do you think that we should get away?

Ans: The place itself isn't lucky—neither are you. I do think that you are young enough to prepare yourself better for making your living. Had you ever considered going into some little business of your own? Decide what kind of work you want to do and study—Your income could be increased without your making a change.

B. N.—I am asking you about the girl that I played around with. Does she care for me or not? Should I make the trip?

Ans: Indeed she does—and she is looking forward to your visit next month too. Yes, take the trip. The people at your home will be glad to see you, and also this girl.

M. V. J.—My husband drinks a lot and stays out at night. He don't like for my children to stay with me and my home isn't happy at all. Write me what to do?

Ans: Don't let any man separate you from your children. Keep them with you and do all you can for him. He isn't doing his part as a husband should, and you may as well face the facts right now. Give him a fair chance to do right and if he doesn't—use your own judgement about separating.

L. J.—I am in an awful mess and I want you to advise me. I have fallen in love with a woman and didn't want to do it. What now?

Ans: You're hooked—and by

someone who is in love with you too. Stop worrying, you were bound to fall in love sometime, and you should feel pleased that you chose such a congenial companion. I wish you happiness.

G. B.—My parents have written for me to come home for a few weeks. Tell me if you think it would be a good idea to go now or wait until the summer is over?

Ans: Go right away. Why not arrange to visit them before you take the job offered you in the north? Your visit home would do your parents a world of good and I urge you to go this very month.
