CONTROLLING THE FLOODS OF HATRED

by Ruth Taylor
When the snows melt on the far off mountain tops and the spring rains begin to fall, then those who dwell by the great rivers watch for flood waters. What are life-giving streams to great parts of our land are devastating torrents to other sections. Flood control is a vital subject to those who dwell in the lowlands through which the rivers course.

The government engineers have made great strides in averting the damage of flood. They have built great walls to wall off the rivers; they have reforested great tracts of land to absorb the excess water; they have built great dams to hold back the torrents and to control their flow into other areas so they may make fertile great wastes.

All this is most essential—but even more necessary today is a system of hate control. As the fortunes of war wage abroad, there is growing in this land of ours increasing hatred and bitterness. Shall we let this flood warp and destroy much of what we hold dear?

We need to build walls of understanding to hold the hatreds out. For mutual understanding leads to mutual trust and in trust there is no hate. We need to reforest the scarred places in our minds—scarred by injustice, bitterness, despair and intolerance—to reforest them with compassion, friendliness and love.

We need to dam back the floods of hate with bulwarks of education—education in positive democratic living, in putting into practice in our everyday life the things in which we believe.

We need to divert the stream of hate into useful channels, concentrating it on an ideology, not on a people—hating only the evil act or quality. Our hatred must run between such concrete walls of our wills, that we will not be guilty of either injustice or intolerance to any man, regardless of race or creed or color, no more than we would want him to be guilty of these towards us. Thus and only thus can we control the flood waters of hate.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CH.
Mrs. F. Burroughs, Reporter, F. P. Jones, Pastor

The beautiful sunlight of another Lord's day brought out many of the members and friends in and out of the city, which added inspiration to the period of worship. The presence of the pastor who has been absent for some time, was greeted by many happy and merry worshippers.

The Sunday school was greeted by the Supt. Mrs. Hill and staff of teachers. The attendance marked a degree of progress in this department.

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madam C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Gossline, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.

The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
