A College Degree Is No Substitute For Hard Work

In his address at the annual dinner of the faculty and students of the mechanical department at Tuskegee Institute last week, Alonzo G. Wright, highly successful station operator at Cleveland, Ohio, told the students that

"not even a college degree is a substitute for the hard work which makes for success".

AND SO TO BED IN A TRAILER

Chicago, Ill.—Commodious sleeping accommodations are available in the new automobile trailer-coaches as demonstrated by Eunice Schupe, left, and Delores Norgard, at the 1941 National Trailer show held here this spring. More than 100 types of trailers were on display at this exhibition which was held at the International Amphitheatre in connection with the International Sportsmen Show.

TONS OF PROPAGANDA DESTROYED

San Francisco—Tons of foreign propaganda, pamphlets and circulars seized from incoming liners from across the Pacific were destroyed at the San Francisco post office. Here postal employees are sending to the furnace a batch of 17 1-2 tons of the material. According to Postmaster William McCarthy, it has been arriving at a rate of 3 or 4 tons per steamer, three steamers per week. The origins being Russia, Japan and Germany.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

What can be better than a quiet evening at home with a good book—asks Kiltie, the Four-Flushing Scottie, looking as though butter-scotch wouldn't melt in his mouth. However, that scholarly pose is just a blind. Kiltie has discovered a new author named Reed who publishes books full of candy, and just as soon as everyone in the house is asleep, Kiltie is going to take off his glasses and really digest the volume!

BILL PASSES OHIO LEGISLATURE TO ELEVATE STATE DEPARTMENT OF WILBERFORCE

Columbus, O., May 31 (ANP)—In line with plans of the state of Ohio to elevate the state department of Wilberforce university, a bill was passed which enables Wilberforce to comply with standards of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary schools.

The bill provides for a change of name from the Combined Normal and Industrial department to the College of Education and Industrial Arts. It retains the same make-up of the board of trustees as before: six members appointed by the governor and three by the university. However, it eliminates the president of the university as ex-officio member of the board of trustees, and further provides that no member on the faculty or

THE recipe below describes a corned beef loaf that certainly fits into the schedule of a busy day. It's a good main-course dish for dinner, an excellent lunch-box dainty and just the thing for that bite before bed or an after-bridge luncheon. Best of all, it is easy to make and far from expensive.

Corned Beef Loaf

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin; 1 pint hot beef stock or 1 pint hot water and 4 bouillon cubes; 2 tablespoons vinegar; 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce; 3 cups finely chopped corned beef; dash of cayenne; 1 tablespoon scraped onion; 2 teaspoons prepared mustard; 2 tablespoons horse-radish. Dissolve gelatin in hot stock. Add vinegar and Worcestershire sauce. Chill. Combine remaining ingredients. When gelatin is slightly thickened, fold in corned beef mixture. Turn into loaf pan. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve in slices. Serves 8 to 10.

INDIAN LANGUAGE TO BAFFLE ENEMY

Tama, Iowa—Mesquakie Indians from the Tama reservation have joined Uncle Sam's fighting forces and will employ their native language to confound enemy forces when the signal from front line positions to general headquarters. Above, Capt. John Pettit is copying down a message from the front lines as translated by Dewey Youngbear. Theoretically Youngbear has received a Mesquakie message via the army's new "walkie talkie" units from another Indian assigned to an officer in the front position. Army officers are certain that foreign powers will not be conversant with the Mesquakie tongue and that the use of Indian broadcasts will eliminate chances of intercepted messages being deciphered.

IN THE SUMMER A YOUNG GIRL'S FANCY TURNS—

With the Summer showers bringing gifts for summer brides, it's a foresighted girl like Gloria DeMala who has a cedar hope chest waiting to catch the beautiful lingerie, blankets and household linens which are given every bride to-be. Unlike her mother's cedar chest, Gloria has selected one of the new models—an authentic production of Early American Maple lined with aromatic red cedar. Later, she'll use this chest in the bedroom with her other maple furnishings.
