

CORNHUSKER

GOLF NEWS— by LAWRENCE LEWIS

Golfers looked to the links over the week end despite the coolness of the weather. "Penny" Murray has lost no time in preparing for the club championship; between the horses and golf, he is keeping quite busy.

One golfer with the initials of B. C. is taking golf lessons quite frequently, and is improving rapidly. He is planning on surprising a few of the boys.

You golfers who are not a member of the Cornhuskers make out an application now so that you will be able to enter our tournaments and many other social events held before the Central States Tournament. In order to play in the Central States, you must be a member of the Cornhuskers. So don't waste valuable time, join now and meet and make new friends.

Our regular meeting will be held Friday at the Center. So come on out and help us plan these outstanding social events.

What young golfer is that who needs a tonic before his golf game? They say that he gets a little tired on the last nine. I suggest he take a little with him.

Say boys let's all enter the coming World-Herald Tournament. It's a lot of fun, and you might win a prize. You have plenty of time to play, and it's free.

Someone asked B. Galloway why he gets so nervous when playing the Lake hole at Fontenelle park. If he were only a fish he could recover some of those golf balls.

Elmwood Golf Course, the site of the Central States tournament, is in very good condition. Play on this course as much as possible so you may get familiar with its tricky fairways and green. It is an ideal course for championship golf and it will be to your advantage to know it.

Your reporter received a card from James W. Slemmons, Negro Mayor of the twin cities. They are having an invitation day there soon. Mayor Slemmons assures us that the Twin Cities will be here with the bells on in August. Let's all go to this invitational tournament. They show you a swell time and send you home with something to talk about.

Tune in to Down the Fairway with Pro. Stanley Davis, on Monday night over WOW! It is very interesting and educational. He takes you on a trip with the best golfers in the world. His knowledge gives many help in how to keep that ball in the fairway.

"IF AND BUT" (by Myrtle M. Goodlow) Two horses if and but Are always runners up In every race—win, place or show, They win or lose your dough— If you stick to the horse you choose, You have a chance to win— But you play another looks more trim And nine to ten you lose

GIRLS ON THE STREETS....

This exclusive month of June sets us back a notch...As the rain dripped, dropped and went on the Cats and their companions and associates were slack on the avenue. Most of the Rocks could be spotted going in and out of drug stores, hash joints, beer joints and such places, between showers. Along the man drag, the men's fine suits shrank and their expensive draped hats was hard to distinguish from mop-sticks. Many of the girls had "a time" with their hair, although most of them wore wigs and could remove them when they saw the clouds gathering.. Of course the beauticians were booked up; Never-the-less, the farmers and gardeners were thankful for the down-pours.

Girls on the Streets were surprised to spot along the stroll the "comers and goers"...Among them were Mr. "Bobbie" Rudd, John Booth, Herman Stevens, Calvin Fradger, Cleo Suggs, Richard Rice, Wesley White, Hiram Pittman and Harold Bildeaux, George Deen, and we hear that more is on their way.

And Now For A Little Weekly Gossip— Could They Be Breadwinners? Billie Riggs, Elwood Hicks, Bernard Maroney and Richard Rice haven't been able to work since the rainy season has taken advantage of them...this Rock business have been very bad...Let's hope that the sun will shine and the boys can start back to work at once!

The Duke's O. K. The Glamour Boy, better known as "the Duke" takes time out from his heavy date schedule to stroll with his constant heartbeat on Sunday.

Lightning never strikes twice in the same place. You have perhaps heard that up through the years from the time as a youngster you begged nickles for ice cream until now. This average, however, seems never to have had the least impression on Cleo Suggs who looks up Sally everytime he strikes Omaha.

Dated As A Calendar Yep! They marks the dates as they come, they are often seen at the show, Addie Hall, Herman Lock, Gracie Turner, and James Brown.

Gloria Monday and Edgar Alford seem to be inseparable friends...hoping that nothing intercede with their friendship..for example a traffic Bliskrig.

L. B. W.'s face was a map crossed with lines of lassitude and languidity when D. G. confessed his love for her. You know he is so treacherous.

Yes Sir the Avenue is tough as a boot and ten times harder since so many hometowners have returned for the summer. Some of them has toured here and there hobnobbing, hitch-hiking and riding and you know some of them got sort of hep in the fly towns and "Scholarship colleges".

had at the Coronation. One half of his evening was spent with Doris Southard and the later part was spent with Korea Clark. All Alone: That's the way it seemed with Roberta Longmire at the Coronation. She looked very nice. Miles Apart: Seems like Amelia and Bubbie correspondence love affair got together at the Coronation. He drove miles just to see her. She did look nice though. Just Love: That's what is between Joyce Blair and Elwood Hicks—"Omaha's Most Loving Couple". Surprised! Did you notice the bored expression on Walterine Wright's face while she was dancing with Mason Devereaux at the Coronation? She didn't look so bored afterwards in the Weiner Shop???

Just Make Up Your Mind: That's what Gloria Jean Claxton needs to do. Billie Riggs and Calvin Hobbs are both on the string. Gone But Where? Have you noticed Bernice Murock isn't wearing the army pin belonging to her Ft. Crook boy friend. Maybe he's gone too. Fickle: A certain Omaha boy is just as fickle as a choice. He can't seem to make a woman between Olive Willis and Katherine Taylor Cowbody Stevens seemed to have taken Katherine off his hands the night of the Coronation. The Invisible Man: It's funny B. D. always talks about W. D. but is never seen with him. I wonder if this is just a one sided love affair.

Rumors: I wonder if there is anything to this about a certain boy named Sonny and Johnice Harston getting married. It's been rumored several times. Until then, G'by now! This is your G. O. T. S. signing off.

And speaking of conventionality, Lonnie Thomas, Lincoln's Star golfer and Society man, has always took great pride in his informal attitude towards life, like that time he kept us and Harry waiting up in Minneapolis. Well anyway, the Dubber went him one better a week or so ago, when Lonnie was in Omaha with 'quite' a bit of loveliness, he dropped in at the Dubber's house, where Mama Dubber and Little Dubber greeted him and his "Lovi-dov". But Popper Dubber was no where around to be seen anywhere... But pretty soon he "Popper Dubber" came sauntering carefree like up the front steps and into the living room...without a sign of shoes on; only his Socks (shure I can't spell Mr. Linotipo, but it is still Sockins) Yass, he didn't have a sign of shoes on, So Lonnie trying to live up to his reputation, Says "Haw, Haw, Haw (the way he says Haw Haw Haw) and his "Quite a Bit", not knowing what it was all about luffed too, and Lonnie, continued by saying "Gabby and Lawrence told me they were going to beat the shoes off of you the next time they took you out to Elmwood." The Dubber looking Blank Like, replied "Beat me?? Huh, them guys can't even beat Milton Wilson or even Southpaw Terrell."

So Mama Dubber being a little embarrassed in front of the out of town lady and not caring who could beat who; insisted: "Well where are your shoes, fer goodness sake???" The Dubber still unperturbed: answered: "Oh, they are in that chair there, pointing towards the chair the strange lady from Lincoln was sitting in. The Strange Lady jumped up sudden like. But the Dubber soothed her ruffled sense of security by saying:— "Aw don't mind, Miss, I was going to have them shined tomorrow, anyway".

CSGA. GOLF PRE-REVIEW (A Weekly Feature) by DUB SLICER

EPISODE NO. 3. "If Your Ball Went Out of Bounds, It's Because You Didn't Address It Right"

Ha Harr, the "Dub" just received his 1st fan mail. This missive came, Parcel Post 1 1-2c collect and was signed anonymous. The contents as near as I could decipher them, (minus some 'slang') were as follows: Dear Dubber:— May your drives always go out of bounds and may your putts never drop; and I am sure they won't because you are the worse golfer I ever seen, I could drive with my niblick, give you a stroke a hole, and putt with my brassie and still beat you. "Dub" shore is a perfect name for you. AND as for me PICKING UP on the 9th hole that time I played Penny...YES I DID PICK UP, but I wasn't on the edge of the green as you said. I WAS IN THE HOLE..at least I was in the place the hole HAD BEEN the last time I had played at Fontenelle and you shore can't expect a technological golfer like me to go around playing HIDE-AND-GO-SEEK with the Keeper of the Greens. Never mine what my name is. And if you ever drive past my upstairs window on Corby St., between 25th and 26th I'm going to bean your ball head with my golf bag.

With kindest regards, I remain, (signed) Anonymous. Ed. Note. He went into the rut where the hole used to be, but wasn't so he called a 'teeck! so what..so Penny wants his money...The law of golf says you must play where the hole is, not where it wuz...or shudda been.

THE GAS HOUSE GANG; Scott, Sims, and Owen And step across the street please, Counsellor at Law, Chas. Davis, Attorney Arthur B. McCaw and J. D. Crawford, Lawyer. Dovelatt or mesh, Recorder of Deeds, County Assessor and County Clerk. All three used to be Cornhusker officials, J. D. C. was secretary and Art was president and C. F. D. was also secretary at one time I believe. And look at them now...Exalted Ruler of Elks, President of NAACP and Omaha's Model Secretary of how many organizations. However I must admit that only one of this distinguished trio, Art McCaw, has been active with us so far this year. But Mr. Atty. Davis, the gentleman from Chicago by the way of Co. Bluffs, is on the fence and we hope to have him in our yard very soon. As it seems that his comely daughter, who is a Co-ed at Nebraska and also a U. S. Defense worker. Thinks He should have a set of Golf Clubs for FATHERS DAY..Now he doesn't know anything about her plans, as she intends to surprise him, if and when she gets the clubs. So you must promise to help me keep it a secret so Father Davis will be real surprised like...So that leaves only Mr. J. D. D. Every time anybody says anything to him about golf, he starts to multiplying, subtracting and dividing figures to himself out loud...It's really hipnotising like You should hear him sometime... You see, he is the mathematical and financial expert for the C. C. Club; but, Golf is thicker than water (meaning nothing in general and nothing in particular) so we expect to see him out real soon "whanging" away...Remember them lines, Jess used to have him drawing on the tees?...Well anyway, He would draw the line one way and knock the ball another. So he finally hit upon the idea of drawing the line the way he DIDN'T want the ball to go: and he got to be quite a golfer too... And by following the Court House Gang up a floor, we find that Lovejoy fellow—he borrowed my season's pass in 1924 and ain't returned it yet...no kiddin', and who is that guy rite up the hall from LJ; banging the stuffins out of that typing machine, his mug looks familiar—poor typing machine. And them, my frans, is the Court House 'Quints'. Now let's cross the lawn to the City Hall, Jess Hutten, he is one of the Vets and a darn good golfer too. The Dubber dropped in at Jess's residence one Sunday afternoon and they couldn't get him 'the Dubber' out of the Basement. You probably have seen those Automatic Furnace Advs. in the Magazines and newspapers about 'Transform Your Basement into a Recreation Room' with a Bar and so forth: Well the Dubber found the Bar and that was As Far as they could get him...Allergic to Pars but not to Bars.

L. Lewis told Billy D. out at the Roco track, that Billy couldn't pick a winner, even if they grew on trees like cherries and then in a few minutes, Billy's Hoss came gallopin' in paying twelve bucks..

John Mickens had two temporary ailments a few weeks ago: one of them was a sprained ankle and for the other Burl recommended that Mickens drink a can of Sour Kraut juice. Mickens got rid of the other ailment alright but ended up with two sprained ankles.

And now while you are trying to figure this last one out we will tune this Cornhusker Victory Song to "Take me out to the Ball Game"

CLUBS: The 3C's is having a dance at Fontenelle Park June 16. It is strictly invitational. The Sub-Deb club had a theatre party last week.

RETURNS TO CITY We are happy to announce that Mr. John Booth has returned to the city after a six months tour of the South. Be careful boys you might lose your girl while John Booth is looking for one.

GLAMOUR GIRL OF WEEK Miss Estelle McCraty, 2210 O-hio.

HANDSOMEST BOY OF WEEK Tall, dark and handsome Willard Wright.

FRIENDLIEST GIRL OF WEEK Bertha Davis is the friendliest girl of the week. She always speaks. She is never sometimey. I have been watching you Bertha continue being friendly. I also hope you read this column.

The Cyclops will have a very interesting column next week. We hope the boys will read this column next week: because they will receive a lot of help from it. So come on kids let's all read this column next week.

Remember wherever you go what ever you do, the Cyclops is watching you. "THE CYCLOPS"

NEW! "BACTERIOSTATIC" FEMININE HYGIENE now finding great favor among women... Many doctors recommend regular use of douches as a precautionary measure for women who want to be clean, dainty—for women troubled by offending odor or discharge. Some products may be harmful to delicate tissues. But not Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash! Pinkham's Sanative Wash is gaining great favor because it's NOT a harmful germicide. Instead—it's a mighty effective "bacteriostatic" (the modern trend). It not only discourages bacterial growth and infection but thoroughly cleanses, deodorizes. Very soothing—relieves minor irritations and discharge and has a tonic effect on delicate membranes. Inexpensive! All druggists.

The All-Seeing EYE.."

I suggest that if a boy is going with a girl, he should be true to her and not jive others. SUGGESTIONS: 1. Who does Willard Wright go with? There are so many. 2. Will Dorothy Robinson go back to John Booth? 3. Who was the girl that was vamping so many boys Sunday, She had nearly all of them. She is quite pretty.

Dorothy Walker looked fine in her navy slack suit with red tie. Her navy is on strong.
