

Big Annual Fireworks Display At Creighton Stadium, July 4th...

BIG FIREWORKS DISPLAY ON THE EVENING OF JULY 4, 1941
The Fifth Annual Fireworks Exposition, sponsored each year by Omaha Post No. 1, The American Legion, will be staged at the Creighton University stadium, in Omaha, the evening of July 4th. The Thearle Duffield Company of Chicago, largest producers of fireworks displays in the world, has again been engaged to prepare the exhibition.

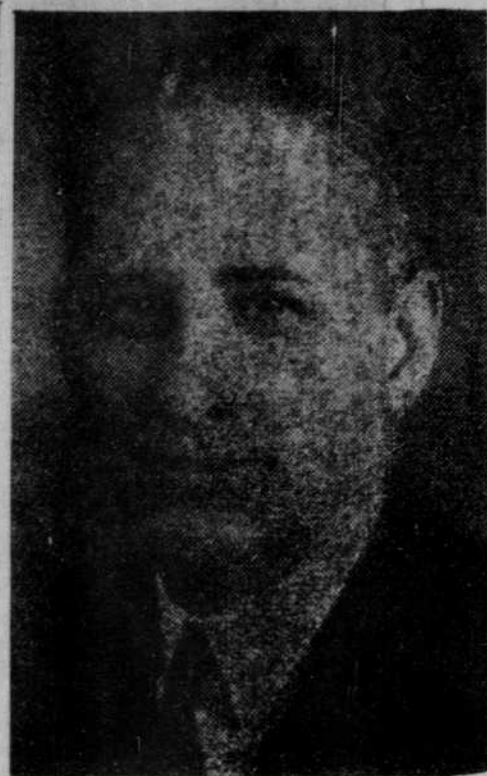

National Defense will be featured in the fireworks this year and as a finale a gigantic figure of Uncle Sam, flanked by field pieces, tanks and airplanes, will go into action with an array of color and noise that will prove most thrilling and exciting.

An added amount is being expended by the Legion for the 1941 fireworks which means that the display will be more brilliant than ever before. All of the set pieces will be fired by electricity to avoid possible "black-outs" and to assure safety to all.

Preceding the mammoth display will be a colorful demonstration by some of the finest junior and senior drum and bugle corps in Nebraska. Corps from Kearney, Norfolk, Lincoln, Holdrege, Plattsmouth and South Omaha will appear and Billy Meyers, well known community-singing leader, will be at the microphone to describe the affair and to lead the audience in singing some rousing patriotic songs.

Tickets for the event are now on sale at the office of Omaha Post No. 1, 105 City Hall, Omaha. General admission tickets cost fifty cents and will admit either one adult or two children under twelve years of age. More than 10,000 seats will be available to general admission ticket holders. A limited number of reserved seats will be sold at 25c extra and mail orders will be promptly filled.

G. M. W.—What makes my husband stay away from home at night? I feel just like getting up and leaving and I would if it wasn't for our little boy. He claims he loves me and the baby and I can't see it. If I need private advice just let me know.

Ans: Women don't seem to be the cause of his staying out nights. I firmly believe that he just likes to hang around the drug store and beer joints with a bunch of the boys but that doesn't excuse him for neglecting his home. Why don't you try to talk things over with him peacefully and let him know that it is a married man's duty to stay with his family at night. Selfishness seems to be his fault and you may be able to help him.

J. D.—I was hurt on the job and was receiving compensation for awhile and it was stopped and I want to know what to do?

Ans: Go to the Industrial Commission and talk to the person in charge, giving them full information about your case. Also consult with your doctor again and try and to get him to help you contact the Commission. If you are worthy of further compensation, then I feel confident that it can be worked out with the help of your doctor and the commission.

C. D. N.—Does this boy mean me any good? He says he loves me and wants to marry me. Tell me how to write you so you will answer in a private letter to me?

Ans: This friend of yours is sincere and is anxious to make you his wife at an early date. If you have the same feeling for him, then a marriage would be recommended. If you will send 25c for my Astrology Reading, I will be glad to give you my free opinion on three questions privately. Be sure to send full name, birthdate, and address.

A. M. B.—The people I work for had a terrible fight and he left. He has asked her to go to New York with him and I wish to know if I should go along as they asked me to? If they separate should I continue working for one of them?

Ans: Working under those conditions can't be at all pleasant for you but these folks pay a good salary as long as you want to work there it is alright with them. In fact, if a separation should take place, both of them would want you. . . . make up your mind which one you prefer to continue working for. You will get your money regardless of which one you choose.

Mrs. L. M.—I am married and the party whom I love is married also and has a family. Please tell me whether this is real love they has for me? They also say I will soon be theirs and we will be together. What will be the result of this matter?

Ans: Several broken hearts if you don't use your will power and discontinue your friendship with this man immediately. You aren't in love. . . . you are probably infatuated but don't you realize that you are doing wrong to be seeing this man when you know he is married and has a family. What about your husband. Stop this silly affair at once and you can't hope to gain anything from it.

P. L.—I learned this house where I am living at the present time is going to be up for sale. Should I buy it or move farther into the city? Which would be best for me?

Ans: Buying a home is a worthwhile investment, but don't buy it just because it is for sale. . . . consider the matter from a business angle entirely. If you want it exceptionally bad, and the price is cheap, it might prove to your advantage to buy. However, if it is your desire to have your DAUGHTER change her present company, it would prove to your advantage to get a place closer into the city. She will then make new friends which seems the most important thing in your mind right now.

WAITERS' COLUMN

(by H. W. SMITH)

The summer clubs are all very active now as the ten days of bad weather is over and the good sun shine has appeared and we hope it will continue. We do hope the Fourth of July rain will not do any harm.

Mr. Richardson of the Field club and Mr. Simon Harrold of the Happy Hollow, and Mr. Johnny Fleming of the Country club and Mr. Watson of the Highland club are very busy looking after the dinner dances, bingo games and ladies' day lunches helping the waiters give good service as all the Golfers like quick service in hot weather. Keep the good work up boys as you are making it good for the Colored waiters in the future.

Mr. James Bell of the Ralston club is up after the bad accident he met with on May 30th and we truly hope he will continue to improve and by all means be more careful hereafter. Good luck to you, Mr. Bell, as you are always on the job.

We truly hope the waiters union will be a success and the members will keep the organization together as it will be a great help to the members.

Mr. Edgar Lee of the Omaha Athletic Club is always on the job taking good care of the good modern service and instructing the waiters in the right way and they all take pride in giving him good support in trying to please the members.

Mr. John Evans of the Rome Hotel is the right man in the right place, and knows what to do and how and when to do about giving good modern service. He has worked in some of the leading hotels from coast to coast.

Mr. Underwood of the Fontenelle is a party man right up to the minute and the boys should give him the very best support at all times as he is very congenial to every one.

Mr. Dave Russ, of the White Horse Inn is a very good judge of horses, as he is a very frequent visitor at the Ak-Sar-Ben race track. He can very often pick the winners and some times tells what horses are going to lose, and we are going to ask him how many daily doubles he has cashed in on.

There are not many extra waiters for the downtown hotels as the Defense Jobs and the Summer Clubs are using a large number, and it keeps the boys very busy stepping on the gas, and we all know what it takes to use the quick step.

The Paxton Hotel will take care of a very large party on June 25, and M. Overton will have all he can do to keep the boys in line as he will expect the large number of men to use a quick step and put out the very best service and attention.

There are quite a number of rookies as our schools are out and the boys are trying to make good use of the spare time and we hope for them good success. Keep on 1301 N. 24th St. WE. 4737 Metropolitan Produce Co. HOME OF LIVE CARP & BUFFALO A. A. Rosshaert, Prop.
