OLD FOLKS' PICNIC TO BE HELD JULY 31st

The Old Folks' Picnic sponsored by the Omaha Urban League for several years will be held on July 31st, at Elmwood Park.

Last year over 150 persons 65 years of age and over enjoyed an afternoon of music meeting old friends in the cool shade and beautiful scenery of Elmwood Park at the picnic.

This year they will meet at the Urban League at 12:00 o'clock noon and a bus and private cars will transport them back and forth to the park. The WPA. Orchestra will furnish a concert of music A special committee working with Mrs. Grayce A. Bradford, Neighborhood Secretary of the Urban League, will prepare and serve the picnic luncheon.

A prize will be awarded to the oldest lady and the oldest man attending the picnic.

Each year through the generosity of many good friends and merchants ,donations are made makwith burial at the Forest Lawn ing it possible to have an ample supply of good food for the pic-

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C.J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madam C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and not-withstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand every-

Mme. C. J. Walker's Glossine, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman. Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvetlike softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot
