W. S.—Have been married to this man for 8 years and we never have been very happy. What is wrong with us? We work for my father and we just can't get along. Anything that you can tell me that would help. I sure would appreciate it.

Ans: When this season is over . . . Both you and your husband should go into the city and find work. You aren't satisfied working for your father for both of you feel you do not get a fair deal. This seems to be the chief obstacle before you right now. When you get in a place of your own, and both of you are working and doing better . . . you two will appreciate one another more.

D. W.—I'm a young man been going with a girl 4 years with whom I am very much in love. Would it be wise for me to ask her to marry me as she has just started acting a little strange?

Ans: Sure she has, and who wouldn't after four years of constant waiting and playing fair to this man. If you expect to get the girl you had better pop the

W. T. P.—Please tell me my makeup? Have attended evening school for two terms, have studied from correspondence schools and received good marks. Took up seven courses in all. Still at a loss.

Ans: Well your whole difficulty seems that you never completed any of the courses you took up and therefore you aren't qualified in any of these seven professions. However the training has been wonderful for you. These courses have given you a wonderful understanding of mechanical and electrical engineering, and you must search for work in businesses where you can exercise your knowledge. A trade is essential. . . . decide right now to go to work and learn to become an expert in one line of endeavor. This seems to have been your drawback thus far in life.

L. E.—I had a B. . . and he told me that he was going to marry me sure. Instead he hopped

A Palatable Poemeal

By Frances Lee Barton
THERE is joy in the family when grandmother bakes Delectable morsels— pies, pudding or cakes. Her plump crusty biscuits— with sugar between. Are fit for a President's wife or a Queen.

Crusty Sugar Biscuits
2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 2 teaspoons sugar; 6 tablespoons butter or other shortening; 1/2 cup milk; 5 tablespoons butter; 1/4 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed.
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk all at once and stir carefully until all flour is dampened. Then stir vigorously until mixture forms a soft dough and follows spoon around bowl. Turn out on slightly floured board and knead 30 seconds. Roll 1/4 inch thick and cut with floured 1 1/2 inch biscuit cutter. Place 1/2 inch apart on ungreased baking sheet and bake in hot oven (425° F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Cream butter and brown sugar together. Split hot biscuits and spread sugar mixture between halves, using 1 teaspoon to a biscuit, or spread 1/2 teaspoon between halves and 1/2 teaspoon on top. Return to oven and heat 2 minutes. Serve hot. Makes about 3 dozen biscuits.

WAITERS' COLUMN
(by H. W. SMITH)

The Omaha Club continues out in front and will always be at the top with such waiters as Mr. Blackwell, headwaiter, and Mr. Jones assistant. Mr. Charles Solomon. Mr. Frank Buford, Mr. Dave Morrison. Mr. Shobe and Mr. Carl Bone, with the rapid modern service they give and very pleasant way of approaching the members and their friends makes them all very well thought of. Wake up and take notice boys.

We had a pleasant visit with Mr. John Evans of the Rome Hotel. He always knows how to take and when to talk, and what to talk about and it is always a pleasure to converse with him, as he is from the School of N. Y. waiters who are always out in front. So hats off to Mr. Evans.

The Athletic club continues to move forward and Mr. Ed. Lee and his very good force of well trained waiters and captains, Mr. Buford and Mr. Bill Sones and Mr. Lewis, Mr. Davis, Mr. McFarland, Mr. Fisher, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Wheatley, and Mr. Rapid Fire Brooks and Mr. Ed Craig, Mr. Phillips. Mr. Joe Newt can shift gears and step on the gas.

The Fontenelle Hotel continues to be tops with the entertainment in the Bombay and Black Mirror Room with Mr. Clinton Craig out in front and the waiters going places and doing things to keep the service improved. Alright boys, keep up full of steam and shoot straight with careful aim on service.

The Paxton hotel head waiter, Mr. Corbett will very soon be using airplanes as we don't see him on 24th St. Oh, by the way, it is vacation time, and perhaps he is in N. Y. or Atlantic City. Will Mr. Leonard Owens or Mr. Theo. Thomas, or Mr. Pierson tell us where he is as race horses sometime attract attention.

Mr. Simon Harold and Mr. Jack White, let us look at the new book on Modern Service. We do not see Mr. Chester Hodges very often and we know the Happy Hollow Club is in the A. Clubs, and will always be a sure winner. Go on up boys, as your experience has moved you forward.

Mr. James Richardson the up to date head waiter at the Field club with Mr. Johnny Maloy who graduated from the Arkansas State College and Mr. Harry Frazier who is up from Denver, Colo. and Portland, Oregon and Mr. Than Lucas can look at a race horse and tell just how fast he can run and Mr. Earl always gives good support and undivided attention.

Mr. Johnnie Flemings and Mr. Lambert of the Country Club are moving forward on speed and quick movements and Mr. Kennedy always uses good judgement in trying to please the members.

Mr. Gabby Watson of the Highland Club and Mr. Berry the locker room all-around man are wide awake and up and going at all times and both of them can make change for the slot machine players, mix drinks, answer questions all at the same time, and the members are always well pleased when they are on the job.

Mr. Macklin and Mr. Shelton Harold and Mr. Brown and humble servant always uses a quick step to keep in sight of them and Miss Nadine can arrange tables for dominoes in double quick time, so let's all keep the service out in front.

Mr. Joe Ails says waiters should be well paid as they do not get cut rates on living expenses and Mr. King Ails likes to read the waiters' column.

Now let's all use some thoughts on subscribing for the Omaha Guide and get all the news. Patronize the firms that carry ads in it, and do you know that the platform of the Guide is a credit to the Colored race.

The NAACP will thank you for a membership and Mr. Arthur B. McCaw should have good support from all the colored people in Omaha. Now let's all pull together and have a membership of 1,000.

CATHOLIC GROUP EXHIBITS WORK OF BARTHE
New York, July 28 (ANP)—A three week exhibit of works of Barthe was held at the DePores Intercultural center of the Catholic Intercultural council. It finished on July 26.

The works on exhibition include Katherine Cornell, as Juliet, Maurice Evans as Richard II, St. Johns the Baptist, Rose McClelland as Serena, Stevedore, Julius Blackberry Woman, Vincenzo Funn, African head, Shilluk Warrior, Blanche, Choral, Gypsy Rose Lee, Boxer and African Torso.

Mr. Barthe has been awarded a Guggenheim fellowship and will move to southern California some time next month where he will be able to do a great deal of work out of doors. Originals and reproductions of his work are now in several European galleries and private collections. His bronze bust of John Gielgud as Hamlet was placed on permanent exhibition in the New Theatre in London. The Whitney museum in New York is among other institutions who have exhibited his work.

Among Mr. Barthe's works showing Negro subjects is one called, "The Mother" which is reminiscent of Michelangelo's Pieta in St. Peter's in Rome. Notable for its restraint it shows a Negro mother at the instant the body of her lynched son is placed in her arms. The dead youth rests across her lap in something of the pose which the figure of Christ rests against Mary in Michelangelo's work. "The Mother" was selected for the New York World's fair exhibition of contemporary art.

Mr. Barthe is now at work on a 14 foot bronze figure of a Negro spiritual singer which will form part of the James Weldon Johnson memorial to be placed in New York City at Central park near 110th street, the southern bound ary of New York's Harlem.
