IF IT'S TRUE WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT HERMANN
Germany—Then the elegant Field Marshal, Hermann Wilhelm Goering, man of many medals and the No. 2 Nazi, may look today as he does above, right, in this old photograph which has come to light. When this photo was taken Heir Goering was a visitor at a concentration camp. Unconfirmed reports from Europe assert the Heir Designate of Fuehrer Hitler is now a prisoner in a Nazi concentration camp, having fallen into disrepute with other heads of the National Socialist Party.

SECOND NATIONAL PEACE-TIME LOTTERY

Washington, D. C.—The second peacetime national lottery was held last week in Interdepartmental Auditorium. Secretary of the Navy Knox stepped aside for the drawing of the first number and permitted staff Sergeant Robert W. Shackleton from Fort Dix, N. J., a selectee under the first lottery, have that honor. This picture shows the drawing of the first number which was S-196. Lt. Colonel Chas. E. Morris of Elizabeth, N. J., who officiated in the 1917 lottery, is at the right, sound photo.

SILVER DOLLARS PAY FOR DEFENSE BONDS

Ortonville, Minn. Spl CFI photo to The Omaha Guide by L. A. Kaercher—At the window is Ronald Randall, 15 years old, parting with 75 silver dollars, a rather rare coin in the middle west, in exchange for a Defense Bond. Postmaster John C. Gowan is handing over the bond. Every-time Ronald's father took in one of the silver dollars as proprietor of a large dance pavilion he kept the coin and later turned it over to his son in payment for work.

The 75 silver dollars represents the savings of the youth since he was 6 years old.

BECOMES NEW FOREIGN MINISTER OF JAPAN

Tokyo, Japan—Vice Admiral Teijiro Toyoda, who became the new Foreign Minister, succeeding Yosuke Matsuoka, in the new Japanese Cabinet submitted to the Emperor. It is believed the new Cabinet is strongly pro-militarist and may mean the embarking of a new war in the Far East. Admiral Toyoda will be 56 in August. He was graduated from the Naval Academy in 1905. Photo taken this year.

R. A. F. EAGLETS ARRIVE FOR TRAINING

Los Angeles, Calif.—Here are the fifty fighting eaglets of the RAF who arrived here for 20 weeks of battle training at Glendale, Calif. Swinging along with a swift precision that matches the best West Point drill, these youngsters, ranging in age from 16 to 25 years of age, were full of the stuff that proves "there'll always be an England."

PROFESSOR STUDIES CLOTHES COLORS FOR NEGROES

Savannah Ga., Aug. 1 (ANP) Negroes, because of their background in Africa and other countries have much more appreciation of certain colors than have other race groups. At the same time, they have not had sufficient education and training on how to select inexpensive fabrics and clothing of the right color to make the most of their personalities. So says Miss Ella M. Washington, professor of home economics at Georgia State college, who did

IMPORTANT FACTS OF NEGRO HISTORY

"TIMBUCTOO, THE MYSTERIOUS"

Felix DuBois, in his book "Timbuctoo, The Mysterious" tells the story of a great civilization in the Ancient African Soudan. The many millions square miles of territory was conquered by a military genius, Sonni Ali. He was succeeded by "Askia, The Great" who ruled the far flung empire for thirty three years. Under his leadership commerce flourished, liberal laws were enacted; agriculture reached its highest level; the best internal revenue system in the history of mankind up to that time, was established, and education attained heights hitherto unknown in the world.

A seat of learning was developed in Timbuctoo to which savants came from all parts of the earth seeking opportunities to teach, but found learning so far advanced as to require them to remain to learn.

Timbuctoo was the capitol of the Ancient Soudan.

Between The LINES...

by DEAN GORDON B. HANCOCK FOR ANP—

OUR WORLD SUPER-MESS!
If a rose by another name smells just as sweet, it is even so with a research work on the subject while studying for her master's degree at Iowa university. Her study, "Clothing for Negro Women", is the only one of its kind on record in this country.

In it she calls attention to the fact that now while there is great need of saving for national defense much can be accomplished by teaching Negroes how to conserve their income and at the same time dress more becomingly. In making up the color charts, 15 Negro students, men and women, at the university were used. All were of different color, ranging from very dark to very light.

It is proposed by Georgia State to establish in the division of home economics this course thus making it possible for students in all divisions of the college to profit by the same. President B. F. Hubert in speaking of this contribution in the field of homemaking and home industry for Negroes states that this is a very fertile field but long neglected field. Colored people in order to do their best in any industry should use their personalities to best advantage. They can not do this unless they know how to dress well at little cost.

The state supervisor of home economics for Georgia, Miss Elizabeth Mayes, is tremendously interested in this whole field. It was at her suggestion as well as at the suggestion of President Hubert that this study was made. It is planned to put this study in book form so that it will be available to Negro boys and girls in all the schools of Georgia.

mess, which is just as "messy" by another scientific name. When all is said and done, the situation in which we find ourselves amounts to a mess or super-mess. International morality collapsed at Munich and expediency became the motivating principle thereafter. Today the voice of right is hushed or muffled, and only the voice of might can be heard in the council of the nations. We call it social chaos and economic uncertainty; we call it cultural lag and biological maladjustment; we call it a conflict of cultures and the evolution of ideologies. But it all, in fine, amounts to a great big super-mess.

Civilization like a runaway horse is rushing mankind to some inevitable doom. We have built great laboratories, mighty universities and temples of worship have topped our landed peaks; but like the house built upon the sands, we are threatened with destruction. It seems to matter not that we have tamed the streaking lightning, and muffled the grumbings thunder; the fact remains we are face to face with circumstances that are overwhelming. Our mightiest minds are baffled and our confusion is becoming more confounded. Like the weary disciples on windswept Galilee, we have "toll'd all night and caught nothing".

The Russia that Germany spurned was later accepted as ally and comrade; Germany has turned upon that same Russia today with the fury of an avenging angel. The Russia that England and the United States have maligned and disparaged is not their faithful ally in the serious cause of stemming the tide of Hitlerism. As many lies have been told on the hapless Negro race, and yet today, Russia is fighting on the side of those who have maligned her.

All kinds of lies have been told on Russia. Our military experts have disparaged her armies, and yet these same armies are making one of the most valiant stands. Our social philosophers said the Russians would fall apart under the first impact of the Hitler war machine; yet after three weeks the Russian armies are rallying gloriously. Although giving way here and there, there is nothing to prove that our army or Britain's could do better. Of the guinea pig nations on which Hitler has tested his blitzkrieg, he is meeting a sterner test in Russia than elsewhere.

While Europe commits suicide, we here in America are quarreling ourselves to death. We are wasting one of our greatest opportunities to save civilization, squabbling among ourselves. Roosevelt our man of destiny is handcuffed by a congress that is looking as much to the ballot box in 1944 as to the battlefield in 1941. If Hitler wins there will be no ballot box in 1944. We talk about bottle necks in this defense effort, but congress is a super-bottleneck by itself. The greatest argument for a dictatorship here in this country is the attitudes and tactics of our present congress.

The question that begins to well up in the minds of thoughtful men is, does a country with a congress such as ours really deserve a democracy? Would not the iron heel of Hitlerism bring us to our senses? So long as we refuse to learn the easy way, would not the hard way suit us better? Democracy has bred a bunch of money grabbers that are obsessed with a dollar mania that is about to prove our national damnation. Labor and capital are gambling while the fate of the nation hangs in the balance.

Politicians are likewise gambling on the outcome of bloody events. Some weeks ago we released an article captioned "Fumbling and Grumbling" as it applied to the Negro race; but it could in truth be applied to the USA, which is fumbling one of the finest opportunities that ever presented itself to a nation. Political preference and the "dollar-almighty" are plainly too large a part of the motivation of our so-called democracy. In fact, this is one of the weaknesses of the democratic ideology.

The only hope is that at the door of this world of overwhelming confusion, this world of glamorous hyperisies, this world of far-faced hatreds, this world of prostrate ideals and this world of super-mess, stands the Christ of the ages speaking, scarcely heard amid the din of battle saying "Behold stand at the door and knock" This is but the beginning of super

You Too Can Have Beautiful Hair

How You Can Grow Long, Healthy Hair

Certain parts of the body grow to a certain size and no further, whereas, Hair Grows always if you keep your scalp healthy. An itching scalp causes itching. When you scratch your scalp you make sores and scars. HAIR WILL NOT GROW FROM A SCAR There are no sweat glands in sores or scars. The body is given power by nature to make certain outgrowths of skin which we all know very well. Hair is produced by our scalp skin. Each Hair Grows from a special little place in the true skin. If you destroy or mutilate this true skin you may feel all right, but nothing will ever form another true skin. A scar is not skin. You will never find a hair growing from a scar or sore. Hair grows from the cells of the hair bulbs. If you do not look after these hair bulbs, hair will become brittle and break off. There are two glands to each hair to produce oil that keeps it soft and pliable, keeps it from becoming unruly and from cracking. Every hair has a muscle which is attached to its Hair Root. In order to have attractive, healthy hair, you must help nature to Grow Hair by keeping your scalp in good condition. Keep it clean, soft and eliminate itching and dandruff. If you are suffering with head sores or scars do not delay taking our complete treatment or you will lose your hair. To keep your hair cells working properly and guarantee yourself a healthy, beautiful head of long growing hair, give yourself a complete Nu-Hair Treatment.
