

GIRLS ON THE STREETS.....

Now that summer is about over, what season will stare us in the face and push summer aside? Nothing my dears but that fine season in reference to fall. Trees will begin to shed their leaves; birds will fly southward; the grass will turn from green to brown; housewives will can and once again the goldenrod will be yellow. Of course, as you know, this is the finest time of the season for bugging and goin' on. Well as it is, the dummies as well as bookworms cares less for bugging and frolicking around, and so they spend their time schooling themselves at home. The good old fashion mothers put a limit to their childrens leisure hours and demands them to be home at certain times in order to retain their proper amount of shut eye. So giving less for fall lets review this weeks gossip.

MASTER ROOSEVELT LAYTON wa flaming like a torch the other night in the Weiner shop. What was it all about? Well, we don't exactly know, but they said it was over a feemall.

SIMON HUGHES AND HERMAN WASHINGTON can afford to pick up the slack and return to good ole' school days again. How do we know? Why they were spotted on the 4th floor for Payton Studs and Company. Between 11 and 12 o'clock. Is there a necessity for education or....?

CAN YOU FEATURE Three parties being given in one week. One was given in honor of Mary Harris; the other at the home of Louise W. and last but not least at the home of some of the G. O. T. S. Need we say more?

WHISH! WHASH! AND PLENTY OF CASH! Yes, folks, Sunday night Stanley Edmison, the great Lockinvar set up a party at a certain Hash Joint on the main Drag. He also furnished plenty of music by the goola-box. Now listen, he put at least six bits in the box, you may think that we are exaggerating, but we can't tell you nothing bout' it, should have seen it for yourself.

COMING ATTRACTIONS: Sweetheart Dance, Friday night at the Center. Picnic, Sunday, September 14, to Payton Studs and Company. MARCUS THE GREAT Is leader of them all. He is head of the Bus boys at the Paxton hotel. Climb higher Marcus ole' boy, the mountain is still before you. May success be yours.

HURRAY OR LUV Yes, Wade Gray and Elizabeth Hicks seems to be madly in luv; and that ain't hay, he escorted her to the dance in full form and fashion.

MEANT FOR EACH OTHER Beatrice Berkeley & Earl Brown, can't escape from each other—in other words they were made for each other—What about this Be and Earl?

Why not prepare a batch today? This recipe explains the way:
Red Plum Bavarian
8 red plums, cooked; 1 1/2 cups plum juice; 1 package strawberry-flavored gelatin; dash of salt; 1 cup heavy cream.
To cook plums, combine plums, 1/2 cup sugar, and 1 cup water, cover, and simmer until just tender. Drain, reserving juice; measure 1 1/2 cups. Cut plums in large pieces. Dissolve gelatin in hot plum juice; add salt. Chill until cold and syrupy. Fold in cream, whipped only until thick and shiny, but not stiff. Fold in cooked plums. Chill. When slightly thickened, pile in sherbet glasses or large bowl. Serves 6.

BUSY AS A BEE

Is Dora Nelson. It seems as though she has a date every night with certain studs. What have you in mind Dora?

THE WASHLINE

It looks like fate has played her serenade once more, Julia Key and Richard Rice's love, sure don't look like its washed up.

Hang this on the news....that stud that was at the Dreamland Monday nite...really did look cute fallin in with the female of the other race.

Harry Rutledge really has got Evelyn S. worried about G. T. You should seen Gerald Kellogg lifting his "ground grippers" when his wife called him.

We spotted Ned Moore on the Avenue Sunday, draped down to a solid fine. He looked kinda lost without his "Uncle Sam" on.

We "Seay" that Enie Bodie can wear them Wiggs. We "Seay" a certain chic, whose hair weigh's 8 oz. s wearing one.

Maxne Nicholson seems to be seen with another girl friend—Helen King.

Roy Kellogg and Jack Hoard seems to be lonesome since their chic's are out of the City.... Nothing seems to interest them.... They don't even bother to be schooled.

FRED ASTAIRES?

Wendell Chambers and Frank Brown spends their time practicing new dance steps in front of Hollywood. We are knowing that they are almost experts but why wear out the leather on your shoes boys, when you can save that leather in the dance hall. Remember the New defense plan is now in session, and shoes are higher.

Isn't Calvin Hobbs an ideal boy friend; why he actually let Gloria Jean drive his roadster; and you can bet the tank was filled.

Joe Wright really looked fine in his draped suit and white felt hat. Joe, she's got a crooked eye casted on you; no—it's not the (Duchess) this time, guess again.

Edith was really swinging on Joe at the dance. She still carries that old torch. Can't hide love, Edith, your ways and actions give you away.

It seems that Soup Lawson is comin on with the new chic from out of town. The "Q" Laura's Cousin.

Can ou feature Shirley Anderson comin way from South Omaha to go to Tech?

Jackie and Altha were in the grove Monday night. They looked as if they didn't care what was goin on in the other part of the hall, Wonder wat's the other party is going to do?

ammy Taylor is here for a while to see what the beef is in Omaha. So Sam a to the wise is sufficient, make hay while the sun shines.

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION

"I can't remember to forget."
"Those most romantic nights that we spent." These few words are true words, spoken by..... need we say? Well, anyway, it happened recently. A very heart-breaking and soul-stirring jiver shot his line to a certain chic. He declared that he and his old love had no use for each other & eventually he was with her Sunday at the show. It's a lie somewhere.

Lawrence B. must like ice cream for the simple reason that he can always be found at Hollywood and not California among the stars.

There's a missing link in Juanita Agee's life and he's in Calif. Course it needn't be mentioned because lonesome for James is written on Juanita's face.

Richard Gray must have been talking love with Josephine Mitchell on the Avenue, cause she was all in smiles.

Some bodies gotta go, in the two Luck sisters Luv Affair.

Now it is so strange that two boys (Reuben Green and Curtis Jackson) can share the same girl friend and still remain friends. My, My!

Charlie Jackson was seen strolling to Avenue a couple of times alone. Come on Charlie, play Gable's part with the chicks. We know that you are eligible.

Labr Day Message by A. Philip Randolph, International President Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters.

This Labor Day finds the work-eds at the cross-roads. Today it is war and destruction they face. Tomorrow when peace comes, it may be famine, pestilence and revolution. In both the workers suffer. Theirs is perennial struggle, suffering and sacrifice.

With war, wages, through strikes make rise, but prices through greed or profits rise too, and the evil days of inflation may come.

During the post-war days of deflation, prices will fall and so will wages, and another awfu depression with widespread unemployment will beset the workers.

But while the lot of the white wrkrs is terrifying, that of the black workers is even worse. Black workers are the first fired and the last hired. They are denied jobs if they don't have a union card and they are denied union cards if they don't have jobs. They are damned if they do, and damned if they don't.

Though America has set herself up and rightfully so, as the arsenal of democracy, black workers, citizens of the country, whose blood has wet every battle ground, from Bunker's Hill to Flanders Field, these Negro workers must fight for the right to fight and work to preserve democracy for which our country claims to be fighting.

But out of the travail troubles, sweat, tears and blood of people have come the lofty and majestic currents of inspiration and unselfish devotion to great human and social ideals, faiths and principles.

It may be that the oppressed and outraged Negro people will serve as the supreme test and measure of the quality and character of the democracy, freedom and justice of the new worlu order, men now seek and aspire to attain.

This Labor Day finds the Negro workers with their backs against the wall fighting a life and death struggle. Racial discrimination in industry and organized labor challenges them with the dictum. "No further beyond."

But sleeping car porters, train porters chair car porters under the banner of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters are marching forward.

Redcaps, organized by the United Transport and Service Employees of America, dining car employees in the ranks of the Joint Council of Dining Car Employees of the International Hotel Alliance Colored Locomotive Firemen, freight handlers of National Council of Freight Handler, Express & Station employees, and Negro workers in the A. F. of L. and CIO are advancing. More and more the Negro workers everywhere, in various endeavors and callings, are beginning to see the light and realizing that organization is their only salvation, and that they must fight, if need be, organized business and organized labor for their rights.

These are days of world-wide storm and stress, chaos and confusion, doubt and uncertainty. The forces of darkness and barbarism under the totalitarian flags of Hitler and Hitlerism, Fascism and Communism, are assaulting the citadel of civilization and human decency. Negro workers, like white workers, must choose the camp they will fight in. They are the lamps of totalitarianism or democracy. Which shall it be? The answer is clear. It is the camp of democracy—the brotherhood of man in which there shall be no lines of race, color, religion or national origin.
