THEO. ROOSEVELT
POST 30 NEWS
The committees recently appointed by Comm" Peebles is really going to town and doing things as they should be done. The Housing Comm" meets each Sunday with the executive board and outlines each detail for the coming week.

Our new man behind the bar Comrade, James is going over big with the public. Adjutant E. Turner has returned from Milwaukee where he attended the National Legion Convention. While there he was a guest of Charles Young Post 389 and was entertained very well. Turner was a member of all Concesses, representing Roosevelt Post 30. He reports that colored Legionnaires were very resentful towards the Convention going to New Orleans in 1942, as there are no colored Legion Posts south of St. Louis and Kansas City.

This unfair treatment of the colored World War Veterans was openly pleaded on the floor of the Convention hall, by one, Euctia L. Taylor of Boston, but as the National Convention is dominated by a solid Southern bloc of delegates same as dominates the army and navy of our government, there was little to be done at this time but our delegates of Charles Young Post, Milwaukee, Giles Post Chicago, Roosevelt Post Omaha, and posts from Ohio, New York and Boston decided to continue their fight after returning home to see if they cannot get representation for the Southern Veterans in the American Legion. We invite you to attend our Club room and assure you a pleasant evening.

To all of you veterans who have not paid your dues, pay up before Armistice day and get a 1942 emblem to wear with your membership button.

Did "Diamond Jim" Have Stomach or Ulcer Pains?
It is hardly likely that Diamond Jim Brady could have eaten so voraciously if he suffered after-eating pains. ANDY KIRK'S IS N. Y. LATEST RAVE
(by Ted Yates)
New York (Typ)—Fresh from a sensational dance tour Andy Kirk and His Band, which won praise from both press and public in the hinterlands, streamlined into town a fortnight and almost immediately was booked for the Famous Door—ace niter here. Last week the band with guitarist Floyd Smith; vocalist June Richmond and featured pianist Mary Lou Williams went out over a national CBS network. Manager Joe Glaser reports already an increasing demand for return tour of 1-niters.

individual citizens. P. K. Walsh, chairman of the Chamber fire prevention committee, announced recently.

Purpose of the campaign is to educate the public to recognize and remedy fire hazards in homes, public buildings and places of business. "During 1940 10,000 lives were lost and property damage of more than a quarter of a billion dollars occurred because of avoidable fires in the United," Mr. Walsh stated. "Now, with problems of national defense confronting the country, the conservation of human and physical resources is vitally important."

Plans of the committee include the distribution of 800 self inspection blanks to business and manufacturing establishments so that they may check their own fire hazards. The committee will also arrange displays of fire apparatus throughout the city during Fire Prevention Week; talks by members of the Speakers' Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce to clubs and other groups, special "fire prevention" stickers for outgoing mail and for automobiles and store window displays.

Special emphasis will be placed on a campaign throughout grade and high schools in Omaha. In addition to fire prevention talks at assemblies and convocations, arrangements are being made by the Chamber of Commerce to show a fire prevention film.

The Chamber of Commerce will also sponsor a contest among the Omaha fire stations for the best fire prevention exhibit.

GEN. DAVIS FILES REPORT ON FORT BRAGG, SUGGESTS REMEDIES
Washington, Sept., 26—(ANP) Gen. Davis' report on the situation at Fort Bragg, N. C., in its preliminary form, covers 600 pages and is in the hands of officials of the war department. It was reported last week.

Associated with the General in his investigation of conditions at the camp about the recent disturbances in the camp and among the recommendations are the following:
The dispatching of an experienced officer, trained in police work, to be provost marshal at

Battle For Racial Freedom At Home More Important Than European Wars
(by Richard Haines)

NEW YORK (NNS)—If it is true that it is an "Ill Wind That Blows Nobody Good" then it may be that out of the muddled morass of this World War, with its conflicting and confusing issues some good may come to the colored race as a whole, and the 15 million Negroes of America in particular. That good will not come by itself, however. IT MUST BE FOUGHT FOR. Fought for not on some distant, inglorious battlefield, in Europe, but in the cities and towns, the farms and swamps, the slums and little Harlems of these United States.

The BATTLE that must be fought is the age-old one against the forces of white intolerance, PREJUDICE and BIAS must be wiped out, once and for all time. And it may well be that the new and pressing need for NATIONAL UNITY will provide us with the key long needed to open wide the door leading into the life for which we have labored so long—a life of EQUAL RIGHTS, EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES AND—MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL—EQUAL VOICE IN THE GOVERNMENT OF OUR COUNTRY!

Not only by DEMANDING our rights may we obtain them. Three years ago, for instance, the feudal fanaticism of suspender snapping tobacco chewing ignorant Governor Talmadge of Georgia would have passed almost unnoticed by the white press of the country. To die down or be forgotten. Every can turn our press matters over to a competent person, whom I believe we already have.

At present, there is much concern over the organization due to a leak in the committee by which certain deliberations were given out before the matter was entirely settled.

The usual procedure in such matters is to wait until all persons concerned have been cleared, approved and certified before any announcement is made. Because of the unusual manner in which information reached the public there is some doubt as to whether a much desired worker will be assigned to the FEP.

Miss Paul is anxious to have as many as possible to begin with in her evening classes. Miss Paul feel that people who really need the instruction do not understand that these classes are absolutely free and paid for by the Board of Education and she wants to especially render services where it is needed most. Everybody is welcome to enlist for this training and receive this instruction free of any charge.

pay attention. Already, White House leaders are disturbed. Three years ago, for example, had a Negro soldier shot a white officer, in some mix-up, there is no question who would have been blamed, who would have been punished. NOT the white man! But today Washington officials are quick to demand a THOROUGH investigation WHY?

They KNOW, the men in power today, how MPORTANT the attitude of 15 million colored citizens is in an hour of stress. They KNOW that national unity can be only a myth, a bit of political mumbo-jumbo, as long as ONE TENTH of the population of the country is EXPLOITED and oppressed.

But beginning today, there CAN be one kind of UNITY. That is the UNITY of the colored people—united solidly, unswervingly, in the demand for their RIGHTS.

The first battle to be fought is HERE—and not in EUROPE!

FEP BREAKING BARRIERS, CRAMER SAYS

Washington, Sept. 26—(ANP)—Lawrence Cramer, executive secretary of the Fair Employment Practices committee, in a discussion of a group's work said last Monday that the committee in the shortest had been in existence had accomplished a very astonishing amount of good in breaking down the prejudicial barriers against Negro employment in defense industries.

"However," Mr. Cramer continued, "I would much rather wait until our staff is completely organized and functioning before giving out any statement to the press as to what we have accomplished. "I feel that the greater amount of good can be accomplished if we didn't try to say too much at a position to do much talking—present. Then again, we are not in aren't even organized completely.

"My desk is cluttered with correspondence which I am just getting around to and our quarters are too small. When we are settled in larger quarters, we will know which way we are going and can turn our press matters over to a competent person, whom I believe we already have."

Mr. Cramer is pleased with the reception given the committee by Negro newspapers and feels that they will exert a potent force to bring about desired results if the papers will string along with the committee until it is formally and completely organized.

The soldiers, recently transferred from Fort Ontario, N. Y. to Camp Edwards, Mass., had left the camp for a week end excursion, but the 13 car New Haven train was running ahead of schedule, being due at the terminal at 7:24 a. m. The four car White Plains local was due at Woodlawn station at 6:06.

The local had just passed the junction when the troop train's locomotive crashed into one of the local's cars. However, the impact was slight and both trains were halted without derailment.

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madame C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular from their withstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

The birth of a glorious smile midst a shower of tears is as beautiful and as gladdening as the sight of a colorful rainbow at a storm's end. I know, because it was just yesterday that a young friend came to me to fearfully explain that her heart was breaking because her young man had to leave for the Army.

Lonesome and heartsick, she sought her wisdom in refusing a surly-up wedding just before his departure. Instead she had chosen to wait until he returned.

I think she did exactly right! I told her that she had chosen wisely. That the year's delay, if viewed wisely, could be a tremendous blessing to both of them. . . could probably help them to find greater happiness when they did marry.

Here is why I argued as I did. I wanted to give her the best counsel and advice I could summon. I wanted to give her some thought to comfort her during the 12 months of loneliness separated from the man she loves. Patriotic duty? Yes! But also, there is a terrific element of personal duty.

The young man will return from his 12 months of service much more of a man than when he began, bringing greater maturity, and more mental and physical strength into the marriage.

The young woman will have 12 months in which to prepare herself for marriage, and its obligations and duties. Dreaming, scheming and planning for that marriage. . . anxious lest something happen to interfere with it when the young man returns to civil life, she will waste no time in preparing for a marriage and a home—something she did not have time to do before he left for the Army.

Suppose they had married hurriedly. Wedding bells, a taste of marriage bliss—and none of its comery and reality—and then de parture! For 12 months there would
