K. J.—When we first started. I was nothing but "peaches" and he always carried me out once or twice a week. We were engaged to marry about last Christmas and he broke the engagement and yet he says he still loves me. Do you think I should fool with him any longer?

Ans: No, I really do not. People who are in love do not break engagements and act indifferent as your beau is acting. . . he has grown tired of you I think. Why don't you begin making some new friends as you are no longer engaged and he has no right to expect you to go with him only.

G. L.—What is wrong with me and what can I do?

Ans: Go to the doctor and let him look you over thoroughly. He will have a very pleasant surprise for you I fear.

P. J. J.—My cousin is interested in getting me to move into the house with her. Do you think this would be the best plan for me?

Ans: At the present time you seem so well satisfied where you are and I really can't see where you would profit any at all to go to the extra expense of moving. Stated as you are now, you have no one to worry you and you can go and do as you like. . . If you were to move with your cousin, there is always that possibility of you two not getting along.

C. B. D.—How can I get rid of my husband? My doctor tells me that he isn't good for my health. My husband said he had rather see me dead than to give me up so please give my problem your very best thought.

Ans: Aren't you jumping at conclusions a bit. . . why isn't healthy for you to live with your husband you married him, to take him for better or worse and any doctor that would advise you to leave him because of his health surely must not realize that you still love your husband and that would be a cowardly thing to do. If your husband isn't well. . . take him to the city clinic and see if he can't be helped. Do not run off and leave him right now.

W. C.—want to marry but I don't know whether my job will hold out or not? I wouldn't want to be married and get out of a job. Help me.

Ans: Very few people are able to know definitely that their jobs are safe. but the company you are with is reliable, and you have been with them three years so I would assume that it was permanent. As long as you do your work well. . . you will be able to hold your job.

SHARPLY WORDED PROTEST ADDRESSED AGAINST "INEXCUSABLE" DELAY IN HOUSING NEGRO WORKERS

New York, N. Y., October 19.—The National Urban League addressed a sharply worded protest to John M. Camody, Federal Works Administrator, against "inexcusable delay" in providing defense housing accommodations for Negro workers. Lester B. Granger, Assistant Executive Secretary of the League, stated in a letter addressed to the Washington official that "in many communities, it appears that housing for Negroes is deliberately withheld while facilities are being provided for white workers with the utmost speed." "These facts, if true," the Urban League executive declared, "present an intolerable situation in view of the proven need for housing of Negro workers and the allocation of funds for that purpose by the Federal Government." Granger charged that plans for a project in Buffalo, N. York, which were approved nearly three months ago have been sabotaged by a ring of local politicians reflecting the sentiment expressed in mass meetings held in Polish neighborhoods adjacent to the sites chosen for a Negro defense housing project. Congressman Belter and Mayor Holling were specifically named as among those who have conspired to block action. Characterizing these activities as "local politics on a ward heeler level," Granger urged that the Federal Works Administrator refuse to be "influenced by provincial intolerance." He commended the Federal Works Agency for a hitherto fair policy in dealing with American citizens of all racial groups, but warned that "retreat from an established position because of political intrigue and racial prejudice worthy of Hitler's Germany" would really constitute sabotage if a vital defense program.

At the offices of the National Urban League, officials pointed out that in the usual defense housing project, actual construction is begun within thirty to forty days after initial plans have been approved. In the case of the Buffalo project for Negro workers, no progress can be reported after nearly three months negotiation, although the Federal Works Agency has had ample authority for having begun construction many weeks ago. Reference was made to the refusal of United States Senator Mead to take a public stand in this matter. Negro citizens in Buffalo, in fact, charge that Mead has actually used his influence secretly in support of Belter and Holling.

It was pointed out, also, that the Buffalo situation is only a reflection of similar conditions that have developed in other parts of the country. In Detroit, Michigan, local priests have whipped up their white congregations to a storm of protest against the housing of Negro workers in any suitable site. In many of these cases, the sites chosen by the Federal Government have actually been on vacant land far removed from neighborhoods where opposing petitioners reside. "There is no doubt," declared League officials, "that secret influences are being exerted against Housing Negro workers who have obtained jobs in national defense. It is the second line of battle established by those who wish to bar Negro citizens from making their proper contribution to the cause of National defense. In a number of cases, it appears that the opposi-

THE PRICE OF KINSHIP

(by William Henry Huff for ANP)

Are you charging me for being kin to you?
That would be rather funny thing to do
Yet that is the way it seems,
Must I be in debt to you for that I never bought?
Is a kinship with such low foreboding fraught?
Such is far beyond my dreams.
If I have to pay because you're kin to me
Let us set aside that kin and strangers be;
I believe that is the cure
For, by every twinkling star that shines above,
There is no one rich enough to purchase love—
Perfect love which will endure

tion is organized by one or another of the 'hate groups' which have consistently opposed national defense and national unity."

Marie Downing BEAUTY AND ROMANCE
SPONSORED BY LARIEUSE BEAUTY BUREAU

The Larieuse Beauty Bureau was established by the Godefrey Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving women's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

A friend of mine once told me that the only time she really rested was in bed when she was recuperating from an illness. Then, forced by circumstances, she actually relaxed and made the most of her opportunity to forget—only for a few days—the duties and cares that occupied her waking hours every day. She was a smart woman because she had learned to turn tedious moments into benefits. Here's how she did it:

First, she cleansed the polish off her nails. Next, she applied a good hand lotion to her hands, and little pads of cotton saturated with oil to her nails to soften the cuticle so that when she again was ready to be seen in public, her hands would be smooth and feminine-looking, her nails pliable and in good condition.

For ten or fifteen minutes three times a day, she lay napping with small squares of cotton wetted with warm boric acid solution on her eyelids. The soothing effect derived from this trick resulted in brighter eyes, with no red or blood-shot streaks to detract from their beauty. Moreover, because her eyes were encouraged to rest, the fatigue lines and circles around them gradually disappeared completely.

She tried giving herself simple facials and found them quite successful and easy to administer. She used a good cream, and allowed it plenty of time to seep into the pores. Then while she slept, while her body regained the strength it needed, she let these little beauty methods do their work—AND WITH AMAZING SUCCESS!

After only a few days of convalescing, my friend went back to her daily duties not only with her health fortified but with her beauty improved too. Wise woman!

It is, indeed, a simple and easy procedure—it worked with excellent results for a woman over forty-five and it can do the same for you. Frankly, the benefit accruing therefrom far exceeds the amount of effort put into it.

Next time you are indisposed to the point of having to go to bed, don't fret and fume because you think you are wasting time, or because life at the moment is tiresome and tedious. It needn't be if you make good use of it in trying to improve upon your appearance; if you do the little things that make for beauty and loveliness.

There are many ways of making yourself attractive—they just take time, that's all. So, when the opportunity practically falls into your lap, take advantage of it.

I'm sure some of my readers can add to my friend's beauty plan and, if so, I should like to hear from them.

What are your beauty problems? Write: Marie Downing, Larieuse Beauty Bureau, 3509 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, Mo., and she will be glad to answer them. Be sure to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

AMERICAN GUIDE WEEK SCHEDULED; BOOKS IN WPA SERIES THAT TREAT NEGRO IN AMERICAN LIFE

Washington, D. C.—With the nationwide observance of American Guide Week scheduled for November 10th to 16th, Alfred Edgar Smith, Staff Advisor on Race Relations of the Federal Works Projects Administration, called attention to the pertinent and interesting facts on the Negro in American life which are to be found in many of the books making up the American Guide Series of the WPA's Writers' Program.

There is a Guide book for every state, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and Alaska. A number of these books contain whole chapters or passages which recount the historical, economic and cultural facts concerning the Negro.

American Guide Week marks the climax of an effort started in 1936, when the WPA Writers' Program was initiated with the purpose of gathering and publishing the important historical, economic and cultural facts of all states. Several thousands authors whose names will remain unknown compiled and wrote the books in the American Guide Series. Each book was sponsored by a State or local organization and printed by private publishers.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt has endorsed the American Guide Week Observance. "Take Pride In Your Country" is the slogan for the week which will be marked with radio broadcasts, public addresses and exhibits. All Americans will be urged to refresh their knowledge of their country and strengthen the sinews of national unity. Complete plans for the week's celebration are being made by the WPA in cooperation with a committee of publishers and the American Booksellers' Association.

While the Writers' Program is best known for its Guide Series, it also has some 1,200 other publications recording the American scene to its credit. Research workers and writers engaged on the Program are now gathering and editing material for the life in America series.

Mr. Smith listed the following American Guide Series and other WPA Writers' Program books concerned with the Negro or which include sections dealing with Negro life, together with the publishers or organizations from which they can be obtained:

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madame C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price of these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Glossine, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and refreshing time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.

Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct. Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
