A few years ago a group of Omaha's leading citizens seeing the need of an organization that would stand for the best there was in entertainment, organized themselves into an organization that they called the Jolly Twenty Club.

Since that time they have inaugurated an annual July 4th picnic at which time the Club entertained several hundred persons. About three years ago they inaugurated another annual social event the housecoat frolic. Last year the event was held at the Music box—750 guests were entertained. On November 3, they entertained at the same Music Box. Each of the 20 members had 35 guests.

Lloyd Hanters orchestra furnished the music.

Mr. Adolph Hicks of 2422 Erskine St. was surprised by his wife, Esther Hicks, with a birthday party. He also was surprised by his two huge birthday cakes. Mr. Hicks received many beautiful gifts from his comrades and near friends. Mr. Hicks has been in poor health for over a year and this party has cheered him very much. Everybody present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. He wishes to thank his friends for the most useful presents received. While being in Cincinnati, Mrs. Long was the house guest of Bishop and Evangelist Ross, who really showed her their hospitality.

MY SCRAP BOOK

by LUTISHA—SOMETIMES

If times are hard and you feel blue, Think of others worrying too—Just because your trials are many Don't think the rest of us haven't any, Life is made up of smiles and tears Joys and sorrows mixed with fears And though life seems to us one sided, Trouble is pretty well divided, If we could look into every heart, We'd find each one had its part. And those who travel fortune's road— Sometimes have the biggest load.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun of Pawnee City, are here enroute from Chicago, Ill., visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William Parker 2825 North 24th St.

HE'S IN THE ARMY NOW!

Mr. Booker Washington had planned to leave for Baltimore, Maryland, where he would hear Miss Helen Trubel sing his arrangement of "Were you there when they Crucified My Lord"—on October 30th. On the day Mr. Washington was leaving, he received his draft paper. So Mr. Washington will not go to the east but to the army.

Mr. Clarence McDavis will leave soon for the United States Coast Guards.

Toasty Under-Coat Protector
Pretty, quilted rayon vest, filled with soft warm wool. Double-breasted for extra protection—and so smart looking.

HI NEIGHBOR! Once again this week, we'll see what's the main spill that's going on these days around' and about the Avenue: in the hash joints; the drug stores and other hangouts during this time of the year when the weather is very frone and etc.

IT WAS MORE AMUSIN' THAN CONFUSIN'

Why it should snow for the first time on Halloween for a long time. Many were surprised to see those large white snowflakes fall down to the good earth. Although some were almost praying that it would quit, but mother nature had better plans, and so it snowed all night.

THE MIDNITE SHOW

At the Ritz last Saturday night was tops, yes indeed. Why it was jammed and everyone got their 27c worth and you can bet everything was on.

CALLIN' ALL CARS—CALLIN' ALL CARS

Brown Skinned cat with dark hair, brown eyes, weight about 175 pounds, very comical indeed, was seen pushing a fine black sedan roaster—answering to the name of Raymond Alexander.

"OH! A MILITARY CHEST" SEEMS TO SUIT THE LADIES BEST

Yes my frans!—that well known Cat Jimmy Lazine was spotted along the stroll. Altho he was sharpened down in a whole Uncle Sam outfit he's yet breaking the women's hearts. This time it was between Velma Murrell and Charlotte Preston.

A SQUARE DEALER

Blondie is quite upset—his girl friend down yonder in Ala. wrote him a letter, asking him to send her a time keeper for Xmas. . . . better start savin' that small change R. L.

SLOWLY BUT SURELY—

W. M. is gradually winding up his way back to a certain Chck, like a spider making himself a web What's your story W?

Marcus Douglas left for Illinois last week, also left word to tell the many. . . that he would be back to his ole stompin' grounds Christ mas!

DEFENSE NEEDED

Fighting on the streets has become youth's ambition today. A group of Nazi Germans attacks the enemy and all of them beats him up. That is exactly what happened after the free dance last week. It was the second gang fight since the other dance. Floyd Webb happened to be the enemy. Altho war is going on in the European countries, and all of you boys have the will to fight, including your draft cards, please don't fight on the streets or in Dance halls. If you want publicity, the boxing ring is yet open.

THREE IS NOT A CROWD

At least that's what George Station thinks. He is having a heck of a time trying to choose between M. J. and C. S. So he paid both their ways to the dance. The only trouble was, he couldn't dance with but one at a time.

MAN ADVANCED

Viewing the situation from a glance it seems that David Hughes is second man to the major. At last he has struck the luck with a race business man for his boss.

OMAHA U GOSSIP

Well it seems that those quarters are not coming in as fast this year as those dimes did last year. The crowd all had comfortable seats and the strutters that strut around all night, had no hard time going around the large noisy circle. The soldiers occupied half of Over on our left we spotted Blick, looking fine as ever and trying that same line on a stud. Charlotte Jamerson was in high spirits. She actually fought five boys at once. Little Frampton got the most and worst licks. Mac Franklin was going around in circles with a grip full of team clothes. Laura F. was sitting under the clock with Herman Peachie Mease was engrossed in army men. Mabe she wanted someone to protect her at the midnight sho! Jimmy Lazine was carrying a red army compact not knowing whether to give it to Charlotte Preston or Velma Murrell. Johnny Lee was breakin' some studs heart. Anabelle King was attracting the little Johnson boy's attention. Emmett James was looking for someone who would bet on a team. Looking down at the players. The two Preston boys were pretty swift, if they keep it up they'll be great stars someday. The usual players were playing around looking fine. Maybe things will be more livelier the coming week, because when everyone buys their cards everyone will be there.

Flash your gleamers upon Wendell Jenkins fine black and white draped hat. It is really the lick; and do the Chicks give him credit for picking such a becomin' hat.

Modelling a pea green turban, we spotted the former Lyndell P. Her reason for wearing this cute green turban is so confusin' cause she's never been accustomed to wearing turbans!

It must be love—Edgar Alford sent Gloria Monday a pint of ice cream Sunday. Ain't many Cats that will do a good thing like that.

WEINER SHOP—
24th and LAKE ST.
Going north on 24th Street, we find ourselves at the American Weiner Shop. Just in time to see a mix-up. A bad black thunder boat with an Ill. license drove up and two half high Cats entered this shop. The waiter with the dead beat machine and lend the music their listeners; then, the manager ordered them to sit down! This insulted them and after introducing themselves as FBI men, started after their shooting irons; but on the second thought they spun around the block, and came back and spoke their peace. After the scrap was over, the manager ordered everyone out that was thru spending their Uncle Sam. Whatta world!!!
