

WAITERS' COLUMN
 (BY H. W. SMITH)

We contacted the streamlined headwaiter of the Paxton Hotel. Mr. Corbert by phone and he was just as active as a machine gun on the firing line and also continuing to have a pleasant way of talking and he is always ready to lend a helping hand where it is needed and with the live wire crew of his Capt. Booth, Mr. Isiah Jones, Mr. Gaiters, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Owens, Mr. Andrews, Mr. Fisher, the wide awake room service man and the others of the quick stepping crew, giving modern efficient service—they are way out in front.

The White Horse Inn boys are doing a good job—Mr. Branch, Mr. Dave Buss, Mr. Louis White and the other waiters are going places and giving good service at all hours.

Mr. John Evans of the Rome Hotel is the man of the hour at all times and he looks like any other Wall St. business man when you meet him on the street. All right brother John. Hats off to you as you a winner at all times.

We had the pleasure of spending Sunday afternoon and having dinner with our good friend Bro. Charley Trimble and his family, his good wife and mother and his musical son Von Richard. This writer whom they always look upon as one of the family, enjoyed the dinner amidst the beautiful surroundings of their lovely home.

FLASH!
 The Omaha Guide should have all the waiters names for one year's subscription at this time. It has all the latest news. Now you boys come on and get in the groove along with us, there's.

We had a very pleasant visit with the music headwaiter and the wide awake chef cook at the Chamber of Commerce, and we were informed about the good success they have accomplished in erving the banquet of the Agricultural Club of about 800 and I told them it was no surprise to me as serving 1,000 would have been a very small affair for them to carry on with and get nice compliments.

That beautiful Cotontwood room at the Blackstone hotel is going over the top and Mr. C. C. Jones and Mr. Tommy Wilson and the ever fast stepping crew of waiters are taking good care of the high class trade at all times.

We talked at great length with Mr. Gip Gordon of the Cave in the Hill hotel and he is very active and always moving around with a very quick step taking care of everyone.

The Fontenelle hotel waiters are on the job giving quick, modern service to the high class trade and Mr. Underwood and Mr. Reed and the fine crew of waiters are out in front on modern streamlined service and the two front doormen Mr. Donlevy and Mr. Shropshire are up to the minute.

FLASH AGAIN!
 The Nelson real estate will take good care of your rentable property and we have some very nice homes for sale. Come in the office and we will take time out to tell you all the particulars about payments. Shall we expect you?

SOCIAL NOTES
 Mrs. Chas. M. Wiley of 2875 Ohio St., is confined to a local hospital.

Mrs. Eva Foster, sister of Mr. S. Foster died at a local hospital this week.

Mr. Arthur Newland who has been visiting his brother, Mr. J. O. D. Newland of 2917 Grant St., has left for his home in Atchinson, Kansas.

Doris Newland is in her second year at Bennett College in Greensboro, North Carolina. She hasn't been home since. She worked last summer at school but will be home this May when school is out. She plays Bass violin in the orchestra, and sings in the chorus under the direction of Nathaniel Dett. The choir travels through the month of April. She is majoring up in Sociology. She is taking a teachers course to. We'll all be glad to see Doris, when she does get home.

Double Help for WOMEN

What do you do when headache, nervousness, cramp-like pain, lack of energy and appetite, or some other form of periodic, functional distress begins to make you miserable? Why not do as thousands of women and take CARDUI?

There are two ways to take it: First: To help relieve periodic pains and discomfort, start three days before "your time" and follow directions. Second: To assist in building up strength, through increased flow of gastric juice which helps appetite and digestion, take it as a tonic. Women who seem to be CARDUI's most enthusiastic benefi-

SUNDAY DEC. 14, 1941
 Farewell to the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church and the City of Omaha by the Rev. F. P. Jones, pastor here for the past ten years and three months. The public is invited to share with us joyful day of sad parting. Rev. Jones will deliver special messages at three periods during the day. None of them can you afford to miss. His service among the churches of the city and community, challenges you to come and bid him Godspeed to his new field of labor in Detroit, Mich. The Church will have a farewell banquet Dec. 15th 8:00 p. m. (Tues.) You are cordially invited to attend.

 Service throughout the day was enjoyed by all. Our pastor preached a wonderful message both morning and night.

Sunday night at the church there was an all request program rendered by the Choir. The guest of the evening will be the Mysterious Five quartet, also a number of other local talent.

Saturday at the home of Mrs. Eva Johnson 2110 Ohio St., there will be a chattering supper the price is 25c. Visitors are always welcome.

The Salem Baptist Church
 Invites you to be present Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. Dec. 14. The Bethel Baptist Church, South Omaha will worship with us. Their pastor Rev. C. Q. Hickerson will bring the message. You are always welcome at Salem.

Mt. Moriah Baptist Church
 Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
 F. Burroughs, Reporter
 They came to us with beautiful records, there was naught clinging to the skirts of their garments and today that record is still unspotted.

Their lives stand out in the city at large as a beacon light guiding humanity to the fact that there is a reality in right and righteousness. He is sincere and honest about "My Fathers Business" and was not afraid to preach pure unadulterated gospel and then he practiced what he preaching. Bible living and Bible giving was his slogan.

They have sacrificed to make Mt. Moriah a church that the Community could point to with pride and they have not failed. They have served well and we the members have learned to love this man of God and his companion and as they leave to go to another field of labor, our hearts are burdened within us. The church not only loses a pastor whose value to us can never be estimated but a loyal friend and a true brother in Christ.

We wish for them success in their new field and may God's choice blessings be theirs.

The church is honoring Rev. and Mrs. Jones with a farewell testimonial banquet Tuesday December 16, at 8 p. m.

LINCOLN NEWS
 by Johnnie Reed

We had visiting in the city the past week, Mrs. Mable Hawkins and Mrs. Sonny Jones of Chicago. They were the guests of Mrs. Mable Galbreath. During their stay they were entertained by Mrs. J. Edwards, Mrs. Delmar Woods, Mrs. Maude Johnson, Mrs. Marie Copeland, Mrs. Leona Dean and Mrs. Alex Morris.

We have on our sick list, Mrs. Melvin Shakespeare, Mr. Wm. Woods and Mr. W. Edwards.

The Senior and Junior girls reserves will have their Annual Vesper December 14, at the YWCA. Hear the Girls Octette sing "Green Cathedral" and "Go Tell It On the Mountain". The time will be 4 to 5. Mrs. Delmar Woods and Miss Roberta Burch sponsors.

De Lisa Deb News
 The De Lisa Deb Club is now two years old. The girls celebrated their anniversary with a dinner held at the Urban League. Last week the club held their meeting at the home of their sponsor Roberta Burch. A demonstration of table etiquette was given. Several new members were given the club oath at a candlelight ceremony. The new members are: Henrietta Botts, Betty Patrick and Pasy Dean. A club code was adopted at the last meeting. It was written by Ruby Hubbard. Loyalty and honor. That's our goal— Reaching toward the tops Till it's time to fold. Greater, better and wiser We grow. De Lisa Debs will reach their goal.
