Money Back—If This Recipe Fails
Good news travels fast—many of the thousands of folks who now take lemon juice for rheumatic pain—have found that by adding two tablespoons of Allenru to one tablespoon of Lemon Juice in a glass of water, they get faster relief for the aches and pains caused by rheumatism, lumbago, etc. It's no surprise either, for Allenru is a 15 year old formula to relieve rheumatic aches and pains. In fact—if it does not help—your money back. What could be fairer? Get Allenru today at any live druggist. Only 65 cents—30 is $1.95.

MY NEW 1942 ASTROLOGY READINGS ARE READY!

I. B.—I was taking up time with a married man who is separated from his wife and now I have gone back to my husband. But I am in love with this other man and he wants me to see him again. Do you think I should take up with him again? I don't know though whether he really cares for me or not?

Ans: I see no purpose in taking up the romance with this man where you left off. He is separated from his wife but they are not divorced and he has no intentions of getting a decree. Why waste your time on a romance that offers no future. You will only succeed in tangling your affairs up like you did once before. Let your past experience with this man be a lesson to you. In fairness to your husband why not forget this other fellow.

H. L.—I have been out of a job now for about six months. Please tell me where I can find work?

Ans: Your biggest trouble my friend is simply that you do not know how to look for a job. Looking for a job requires more than just wishing. It takes work and planning. I will be glad to help you plan a campaign for work if you will write to me privately. In the meantime follow these few hints: 1. Get your friends and relatives to help you look for work. 2. Get your past employers to help you find a job. Go from place to place looking for a job as though you were selling something. These three suggestions will keep you busy until I have had a chance to work out a more complete campaign for you.

S. M. H.—Please tell me what is wrong with me as I can't get a husband and I do want to marry because I'm tired of living alone. I want a mate. I need someone real bad. Can you tell me what my problem is?

Ans: Sure I can. Your trouble is that you give yourself away the very first time you date a boy. You let him know right off the bat that you are very much interested in getting married and that you need a husband more than anything else in the world. The result is that you scare the boys off. Men don't like to be roped into matrimony. They like to make up their own minds about that question. You can help them to make up their minds but don't go about it so crudely. Most of your troubles can be traced to your lack of personality. You can do something about this if you only will.

A. G.—I have been a special reader of your column. I want to know must I fool with the lady I just fell in love with or keep the one I got?

Ans: Look at it this way. The girl you have already has proven her love for you and you know as well as I that you still love her dearly. So why take up time with this other girl. She is deliberately throwing herself at you to win away from your regular girl. Better handle this latest love affair with caution for you could get yourself in a heap of trouble.

A. S.—This is me again Dr. Abe. You remember old "A. S." the one you told to throw his wife's kinsfolk out the door and lock it after them. That is exactly what I did Dr. Abe and bless my soul if me and my wife haven't been as happy as two juncos ever since. I have in mind to sell my little farm and move to the city and want to hear what you have to say about it?

Ans: I'm against the idea A. S. Tell you why: You can live 100 percent cheaper right where you are than you can in the city and you are not so far out that you cannot come to town occasionally. You have your farm in better financial shape than its ever been, don't be a sucker and let some other fellow profit from all the hard work you put in building up to what you have now. My advice is to stay where you are and plant the biggest crop ever next year.

NATIONAL TROPHY

DeKalb, Ill., —Pixpage— Miss Beverly Braudigan, admires the national trophy which was given away on Nov. 24th to the winner of the DeKalb Agricultural Association's National Corn Growing Contest. Over 10,000 farmers from fourteen mid western states entered in this nation wide hybrid corn growing competition from which state and county trophy winners were selected by the judges. Last year's winner was William Mentjes of LeCenter, Minnesota, with the record breaking yield of 157.69 bushels per acre.

SUCCESS OF SEAL DRIVE IS IN YOUR HANDS

Success of the 1941 Christmas Seal Sale in this state which has just opened and continues through Christmas is now entirely in the hands of residents of Nebraska. Their response to this year's appeal decides the extent of the Nebraska Tuberculosis Association's fight against tuberculosis in this state during 1942.

If enough generous Nebraskans show by buying and using Christmas Seals that they are interested in eradicating this dread disease from the state, then the association's year-round "home defense" program will continue on the high

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.
The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madame C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.
Mme. C. J. Walker's Gossamer Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.
The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct. Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
