TRUTH VISIONS

MY NEW ASTROLOGY READINGS ARE READY.

L. G. R.—I'm a constant reader of your column, and I enjoy it very much. I am going with a young man who is married, and I am married also. But separated from my husband. His wife seems to know everything we do, by receiving letters from someone who is forging my name to them. Could you tell me if she is doing the writing herself?
Ans: Your question is besides the point. The point is that you are deliberately going with another woman's husband. When you know in your heart it is wrong. Do you realize that you are ruining your good name by your selfishness. You can expect nothing but trouble from our affair with this man. Be fair with yourself. Is it worth the price?

W. F.—My uncle has requested me to write to you for him. My uncle got drunk a few Saturday nights ago and he went to a lady's house and he had ten dollars in his pocket and this lady took the money and she won't give it up to him. Please help us?
Ans: Tell your uncle for me that there is no use of crying over spilt milk. Tell him further that I said he got his ten bucks worth and if he was too drunk to appreciate it, why then that's his tough luck. He is old enough to know that mixing whiskey and women is dangerous business.

F. M. C.—I have a question. It is! I have spit a (you know what) and I want to know what to do? Will this boy marry me?
Ans: Better pay a visit to the family doctor... he will set the record straight for you. Have an understanding with your friend.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL.

G. D.—I am selling less in my business and my business is very dull. I tried to borrow some money from my boss man to rent the place and he didn't let me have it, so I'm down and out. My luck is clear gone from me, please help me.
Ans: Madam, there are two things that don't mix in this world and they are business and gambling. Your boss knows this. He knows you are a poor business risk, because you take "big chances." You and your family would be lots happier if you put number playing and gambling out of your life forever.

Dear Readers: May Your Days be filled with the bright sunshine of God's smile and may His gracious blessing be with you throughout the New Year. Abbe Wallace.

Denver, Colo.—Pixpage—Capt. James Philpott, Lowry field flyer, disclosed he had flown an arm-pursuit interceptor plane of the P-43 type in a test flight from Denver to New York a distance of about 1800 miles, in 4 hours and 43 minutes. This means that he flew about six and one third miles per minute. Philpott also gave the plane credit for 600 miles per hour in a power dive from around 15,000 feet.
