

WAITERS' COLUMN

(BY H. W. SMITH)

The Omaha Guide wishes every one a happy new year and we hope to give the public all the latest news and more news at all times. We always feel that we are a public servant to be called upon by you at all times. Now will all of you continue to employ us and ask others to do so too. Kindly take a one year's subscription.

The Omaha Athletic Club celebrated its Fifth Anniversary on December 20th and Oh say was it a riot of extreme pleasure and merry events for the members and their friends and did Mr. Jack Alger make a great speech and how!!! The applause was tremendous and the number of congratulations that were bestowed upon him were beyond explaining. The decorations were more than beautiful and Mr. Ed Lee, the head waiter and the three captains, Mr. Buford, Mr. Sones, Mr. McFarland and the quick stepping crew with their modern service and the good old chef cook and his crew certainly did themselves proud. Also the two front door men Mr. Hiram Greenfield and Mr. Goldie Davis were tops at making the evening pleasant for all.

We noticed Mr. Chas. McWhorter visiting with the boys in Omaha's Harlem on North 24th street last week and he was jolly as usual.

We noticed quite a number of the R. R. boys turning up for the holidays. Mr. Phillips, Mr. Harry Swheim, Mr. Linwood Hall and Mr. Metoyer and quite a few others... and they all looked for the Waiters Column in the Guide. All right boys how soon can we get a years subscription from you.

Mr. John Evans is all ready for the holidays and of course a large crowd is what he can take care of at all times.

Mr. Dorsey and Mr. Pace are strangers on North 24th street as we are in midwinter, but boys we will look for you in the spring.

Will Capt. Langley please call at the office and get the photo that we have been saving for him.

We met Capt. Booth of the Paxton Hotel at the Barber shop and he had the usual Lone Star state smile. We wonder if he will spend the holidays in Dallas, Austin or San Antonio or Sherman, Texas. We talked with Mr. Simon Harold and Mr. Chester Hodges one evening last week. They were on their way to make some purchases of goods which are served in glass.

The Fontenelle hotel boys are already for the holiday season.

We are at lost to know where Mr. Frank Blackwell and Mr. Harry Frazier were enroute to the nite that they got in the motor car on the east side of north 24th street... be careful boys as we all have good eye sight.

The Omaha Chamber of Commerce in keeping with the usual holiday parties on Christmas eve, of this year, was an elaborate affair and it was one of good fellowship of all the employees and it was enjoyed to the very highest. It will go down in history as the noted Headwaiter, Mr. Simon Harold and the congenial chef cook, Mr. John Marthelwell used the very best efforts to make it a grand success. Short talks were made by Mr. Jack White, Sam O'Jorne, W. Edgerton, Chester Hodges, N. F. Lucas, Geo. Thomas, Geo. Washington, J. H. Robertson, H. Wilson, I regret very much that this writer was too busy to attend.

MY NEW 1942 ASTROLOGY READINGS ARE READY!

Worried—I have a sick son in Jacksonville, Fla., and would like for you to tell me definitely his trouble. He has been complaining for a long time. Do you think this doctor, I'm thinking of can cure him? He's a faith doctor in Ala. Is he tricked or not? Will they let him come out of the hospital now?
Ans: Your son is better off where he is then under the care of a faith doctor. Sad to say, but your boy is sick both mentally and physically and the place for him is in a hospital. As for bring him home, I don't believe it advisable to consider such a change. Your boy is in safe hands... let him take care of him and abide by the advice the Hospital doctors give in your son's case.

E. C. S.—I am only writing you asking a question about this boy I'm going with. He is very nice and I really love him. He is the only friend I have at the present. He has asked to marry me but he never set no special date. Now he has never been married before and he is very young. I have been married before, my husband

W. M. J.—I am 17 years old and very interested in school. I am in the 10th grade and next year suppose to graduate. When next year comes I had planned to go and stay with my aunt and go to school, and not graduate here. The reason is the course I want to take up in school, they don't teach it here. Mother isn't able to send me off to school. If I go with my aunt, I can take the course free.
Ans: Graduate first... then go and stay with your aunt. If you try to change schools before you graduate... you will face the risk of being put back a grade, which will set your plans back a whole year. Living with your aunt will not be like living at home... you must do everything possible to pay your own way and make things as pleasant as possible for your aunt.

TO RECEIVE LIFE SAVING AWARDS
Quentin F. Nagel, lineman and George Sisson, truck driver of the Nebraska Power Company in Council Bluffs, will receive life-saving awards from the National Safety Council for saving the lives of a man and boy overcome by sewer gas last August 15.

Notification of the awards by the executive committee of the National Safety Council was received yesterday by Ralph Walter, safety director of the company. Nagel, who revived both gas victims by applying prone pressure resuscitation, will receive a medal and Sisson, who aided in their rescue, is to receive a certificate of valuable assistance.

The accident occurred when Edward Pike, 14, assisting his father, William, 35, in cleaning a cesspool near the Union Pacific yards in Council Bluffs, was overcome by sewer gas. The father went to the son's rescue, but was overcome. They were pulled from the cesspool unconscious by John Jorgensen, a grain inspector, and Cliff McDaniels, construction worker, who came to their aid from a near by grain elevator.

When Nagel and Sisson arrived on the scene, Nagel immediately set to work applying prone pressure resuscitation. The boy was revived quickly, but he had to work longer to revive the father who was believed dead when lifted from the cesspool. After both had been revived sufficiently they were removed to a hospital where they recovered fully.

On receipt of the awards, it is expected that they will be presented to the two men by officers of the power company.

Beware Coughs That Hang On

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.
