TRUTH VISIONS
BY ABBE WALLACE

J. M. K.—I am a working man, don't drink beer or whiskey, don't use snuff or tobacco and don't smoke. Of course I do drink a little homemade wine, but never get drunk. I am now buying a home. My wife and I we both work hard, but I don't have no steady job and having lots of obligations I want you to help me get a good paying steady job.

Ans: There is something you must do even before you get a steady job... you must CUT EXPENSES TO THE BONE. You and the Mrs. are getting up in years and you must now realize that you cannot keep taking on new obligations. Buy no more on credit... from now on PAY AS YOU GO. The first step you should take in lining up a steady job is to contact every company in your town for whom you have worked in the past and ask their help and assistance in finding a steady job. You have many friends among the townspeople. There is a steady job awaiting your efforts.

S. M. W.—I have wrote you before and you answered my letters just perfect. I hope that I am not worrying you but I need your help again. I left this man I have and went to my parents and he came and cried and begged and went on so that I came back. He promised my parents to do better. We are planning to marry soon, shall I or not?

Ans: That's the whole trouble. You should have married long ago... especially since there are children to consider. Your man is sincere and he knows that it is wrong to bring up children in a home not sanctioned by marriage. He wants you and the kids to be happy... do your part. As man and wife you will find happiness together.

Puzzled—My husband and I are living with his aunt. Sometime we get along fine and again we don't get along at all. She tells me to go home and he does too sometimes. Why do they tell me that and what should I do?

Ans: The solution to your problem is a simple one. You and your husband MUST quit sponging on his aunt. It is high time that you and your husband realized that no home is big enough for two families. When friction develops in family affairs... the sooner a change is made the better for all concerned. I advise you to take the initiative... get out and find a place where you and husband can live by yourselves. All of you will be happier this way.

M. Y.—I read your column every week and I think you are wonderful. In the past few days my boy friend has been acting rather funny.

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.
The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madam C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.
Mme. C. J. Walker's Gosselin, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.
Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.
The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct. Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
