The Cottonwood Room at the Blackstone Hotel is a headliner and the waiters are giving top-notch service at all times and Mr. Avant the veteran room serviceman is appearing on North 24th St. with his Easter outfit on... let's all give him a hand.

We are going to say "Hello" to Brother John Evans some time soon as our friendship is of long standing.

FLASH! Oh say did you read the March 28th issue of the Omaha Guide. It was a headliner and as usual produced all the news.

This writer made a visit to Capt. Burns at the beautiful apt. at 2220 Charles St., and it was a few minutes of real pleasure to meet his lovely wife and mother... both were using every effort to see that during his illness, all of his wants and comforts were very well taken care of and also the star golf player, Mr. Hodges appeared on the scene and Mr. Buster Artlers, a very friendly fellow worker paid their very best respects in a very lovely fellowship way and we all hope Capt. Burns a speedy recovery.

This writer was one of the extra waiters at the Athletic Club on March 25th and 26th and the wide awake manager Mr. Jack Alger and his very friendly assistant manager, his son and the headwaiter Mr. Ed Lee and the two Captains, Mr. Buford and Mr. Sons and the rapid fire crew of waiters and cooks and the two front door men Mr. Hiram Greenfield and Mr. Goldie Davis... were all cooperating in a very fine manner.

The Railroad boys are out in the front as usual. Mr. Phillip, Mr. Artson, Mr. Luther Johnson, and Mr. Rodney Williams and Mr. Harry Swein are all top men.

We are mighty glad to see Mr. Jess Hargid again and hope to see him around with the boys for Easter.

"Massachusetts," said the governor, "is determined to contribute her utmost to our country's war program. That means complete unity of spirit among the many and various groups that compose our commonwealth. It also means complete use of our manpower."

"Our war efforts demand the employment of all loyal and qualified workers on the basis of their ability, without regard to race, color, creed, or national origin. Acceptance of this principle depends alike on the attitude of employers, workers and people generally."

It is manifest that discrimination against any classes of workers will deprive our home front of skilled hands and willing hearts. The enemy seeks to divide us by stirring up prejudice and unrest. To win our fight in defense of democracy, we must practice it sincerely and effectively. This practice must have the full support of every community. (I urge employers, workers, churches, defense councils, schools, civic organizations and others to reaffirm this principle at every opportunity.)
