BETHEL A.M.E. CHURCH Rev. E. E. Jones, Pastor

A beautiful Midget Wedding was given by the Mite Missionary Society of Bethel A.M.E. Church. There were 11 brides and their attendants. The brides wore beautiful little white formals and white veils. Each carried a bouquet of flowers. Their attendants wore formals of different colors which made a very pretty picture. The flower girls wore little tots carrying baskets of rose petals. The groom Leon Carter and the best man Leroy Paige were dressed in Tuxedos. The Preacher, Chester Scott, was also in full dress. The brides parents were dressed like groomsmen.

The church was beautifully decorated with an arch in the middle covered with roses. The bride bringing in the largest amount of money was married and also given first prize. All of the brides did well. The largest amount of money was $27.45 brought in by little Elaine Embrey of Bethel A.M.E. Church. She received first prize and also a husband. The second prize was won by little Helen Jean Gray of the Primitive Baptist Church. The third prize was won by Little Joyce Rogers of Zion Baptist Church. After the wedding those taking part were given a reception. Ice cream and cake was served.

We wish to thank the public for such a large attendance. You are always welcome at Bethel. The brides taking part were: Elaine Embrey, Helen Jean Gray, Joyce Rogers, Celestine Peters, of
