Where is Grand Island, Nebraska, C. C. One of your subscribers, Mrs. Mary Wyatt, was calling me that she recently spent a few days there, with her sons, Floyd and Leroy Wyatt, decorating the grave of one Jack Bowen who was killed in an automobile accident here in Omaha some time last year. Do you know all about it? —CCM—

Some weeks ago, C. C. some funeral report was garbled in the GUIDE. I don't remember it now but I have been reminded that there were several errors in the original report. For instance, the pastor was S. J. Watson. The church was at 868 North 27th Avenue. And, apparently, we had the husband of a Mrs. Griffin, an Elder. He was no Elder, C. C. He was a sinner. Imagine that. How did we make such a mistake? Perhaps, we were too complimentary. We must be more careful in the future, mustn't we? —CCM—

The Credit Union of the 4 C club is on the upgrade and would like for everyone to take some shares, as we are very much in need of a business concern of that kind in Omaha, and we all should put our shoulders to the wheel and be a booster. What say you? —CCM—

The Sixth annual commencement exercises at Boystown auditorium, Sunday, May 31st at 2 p. m. was a complete success. This writer was invited to attend by Mr. Chester Hodges whose son Mr. Chauncey Hodges, was a member of the graduation class. The boystown band and the choir rendered some very beautiful selections. The address to the graduates by attorney Henry Monsky, was very interesting and the valedictory address by Mr. Peter Downie was at its best and the presentation of the diplomas by Rt. Rev. Msgr. E. J. Flanagan was very impressive, and it was a very friendly fellowship greeting.

And that special delivery letter from Miami, Florida, well that was a very personal message, and a heart-breaking one, although I am used to heart-breaking messages. I've been receiving them all my life. I'll tell you the story. When I was in the British West Indies I met a little girl—I called her "The Sweetheart of the Tropics" and as such she rates a whole chapter in one of my books on foreign travels—"Grant's Town, N. P." Well, C. C. if you have travelled around you know the set-up. She was tied to a West Indian, who had plenty of influence, money, etc., but there was no love between them. I was foot-loose, travelling around, trying to forget an old love-affair (that's all I've been doing all my life) and I met her. Like two ships passing in the night we drifted together. Life was pleasant and sweet but all too short. A separation occurred but in separating the sweetheart of the tropics said, "I'll be waiting for you forever." (How many times have I heard that?) Anyway I read of the death of the mother of my tropic friend in the Miami Times, that Mr. Gilbert of the STAR, saves for me each week, and I wrote to the tropic friend, a special air-mail was received in return and here is part of what it said: "Dear Clifford: What a pleasant surprise it was to me to receive your letter yesterday. Really, I had given you up for good. Well, dear, I'll tell you all about myself. I left the West Indies, four years ago. Traveled throughout the United States, and returned to Miami when my mother died. Last year I got married to a nice fellow in St. Louis, Missouri." Need I quote further? That's me, all over, one broken romance after another. No wonder I like that song, "I guess I'll Be on My Way." —CCM—

Here's a program in front of me. I don't know how it got here and I don't know of what interest it would be to me, but it details the Sixth Annual Commencement Exercises at Boystown Auditorium, Sunday, May 31st at 2 p. m. was a complete success. A MESSAGE TO GALLOWAY (continued from page 2) —CCM— Rev. Elijah Green, 2622 Decatur Street, one of your subscribers, was stricken to his bed and at this writing is still confined there. I'm sure his friends will call upon him. —CCM—

I passed by a house and it had signs all over it: Reading: "Christian in a day like this." "Kitchen Band, Concert, and Lost Souls." What's all about, C. C? —CCM—

If I knew what to do with flowers, C. C. I can get all I want any time. Every time I pass by Edward Groomes' at 2906 Decatur Street, he always asks me to take some of his flowers with me. But what would I do with flowers? I don't know of any girl to give them to? I don't attend funerals. I never attended one in my life and expect to attend only one—that's my own—I presume I will be there when it occurs, if the devil hasn't snatched me away. You know, C. C. that Mr. Groomes raises flowers to sell to the "white folks" in Dundee wherever that is. —CCM—

I must be had luck to Mrs. Bailey Sims, 2827 Seward Street. Remember, I chronicled in these messages, some weeks ago, that I caught her working in her rock garden? Well, it seems that just as soon as I left she met with an accident. She punctured one of her ear-drums (wonder if she was trying to listen to what I thought of her) and ever since she has been under the care of highly-paid specialists. —CCM—

One of your good subscribers, Jess Roberts, formerly of 1105 North 19th Street, has gone to Portland, Oregon, to work in the shipyards. Mrs. Roberts, now of 2562 Cuming Street, rear, is still reading the GUIDE however, thanks to yours truly. —CCM—

Rev. B. E. Jones, Rev. John Adams, Sr., Rev. B. Brooks, and the Rev. E. F. Ridley, visited the Western University of the Bishop Williams School of Religion, Kansas City, Kansas, during the week. —CCM—

I called on one of your subscrip-

ers, C. C. A Mr. Harry Lewis, 2211 Miami Street, and learned that Uncle Sam grabbed him off on May 23rd and while our Uncle is the richer we are the poorer for Harry was one of those rare subscribers who paid by the year in advance. —CCM—

Idon't know whether it was James Glenn, Mgr. or Wm. H. Davis, Prop. but one day while passing The Green Lantern, 2116 North 24th Street, I smelled something mighty good to eat and of the two things I love best in the world eating is one, I stopped in and had a dinner. One of these gentlemen waited on me to eat and then escorted me to the rear of the establishment and imagine my surprise, there was a regular beach entertainment resort. I learned that they serve barbeques, and soft drinks there every night, with music and a space for dancing provided. I must come back again when the entertainment is on. —CCM—

Someone sold me a ticket (and someone is always selling me tickets or exacting pledges for some function or other) that reads as follows: Rainbow Tea For Rainbow Treasure Chest Contestants of Cleaves Temple, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Washington, 1714 North Twenty-Eight, Sunday, June 14, 1942. Hours: 3 to 7 p. m. Rev. L. A. Story, Pastor. Well, that's that. I have the ticket, but what would I be doing at a Tea? Now, if that was a Cocktail party, I might shine, or would I? —CCM—

Are you lucky? If so, call around and see Mrs. Matilda Barris, 2308 North 26th Street. She lost five dollars somewhere in her house and she is willing to divide it if anybody can find it. She has already torn the house upside down trying to find it. Maybe you are lucky, however. Try it. —CCM—

Mrs. Idell Frazier, 2514 North 27th Street, is happy because her nephew Weldon Dyson, 14, is graduating from the Howard Kennedy School.
