A MESSAGE TO GALLOWAY

Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Jr., 2715 North 28th Avenue, is giving a Shower for her friend, Miss Lillian Brown, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brown, 2722 North 28th Avenue, whose formal engagement to Ralph Orduna, of Maple Street, has just been announced.

I was over in a new community the other day, C. C. That is, new to me, but, apparently, a very old section of the city. It's over near the Railroad Yards, I believe. At least all the colored businesses I found there catered to the Railroad Workers and Sleeping Car Porters.

And there was Bertha (I think her full name is Mrs. Bertha Gardner) who runs "Bertha's-Bar-B-Que" at the corner of 11th and Pacific. She also specializes in fried chicken dinners.

But writing of railway men and railway workers reminds me, C. C., that, even though you have lived in Omaha over forty-two years, that you are not up-to-date, geographically speaking.

eight blocks, incidentally, crossing every railroad track in Omaha, I guess. If I had kept on walking I guess I would have walked into the river or whatever is down there.

When I asked him where the apartment house was, he replied: "Apartment house! Lawdy Chile, don't you know whereabouts you're at? You're in the Bottoms."

And, C. C. that other tip you gave me turned out quite peculiar too, but not as unprofitable as the tip to the "Bottoms."

Anyway, I finally got to 11th and Dodge. I asked to see the "Boss." I was taken up in the elevator to the second floor and there some more uniformed attendants escorted me into a reception room and from where a little receptionist took me into the private office of the "Boss."

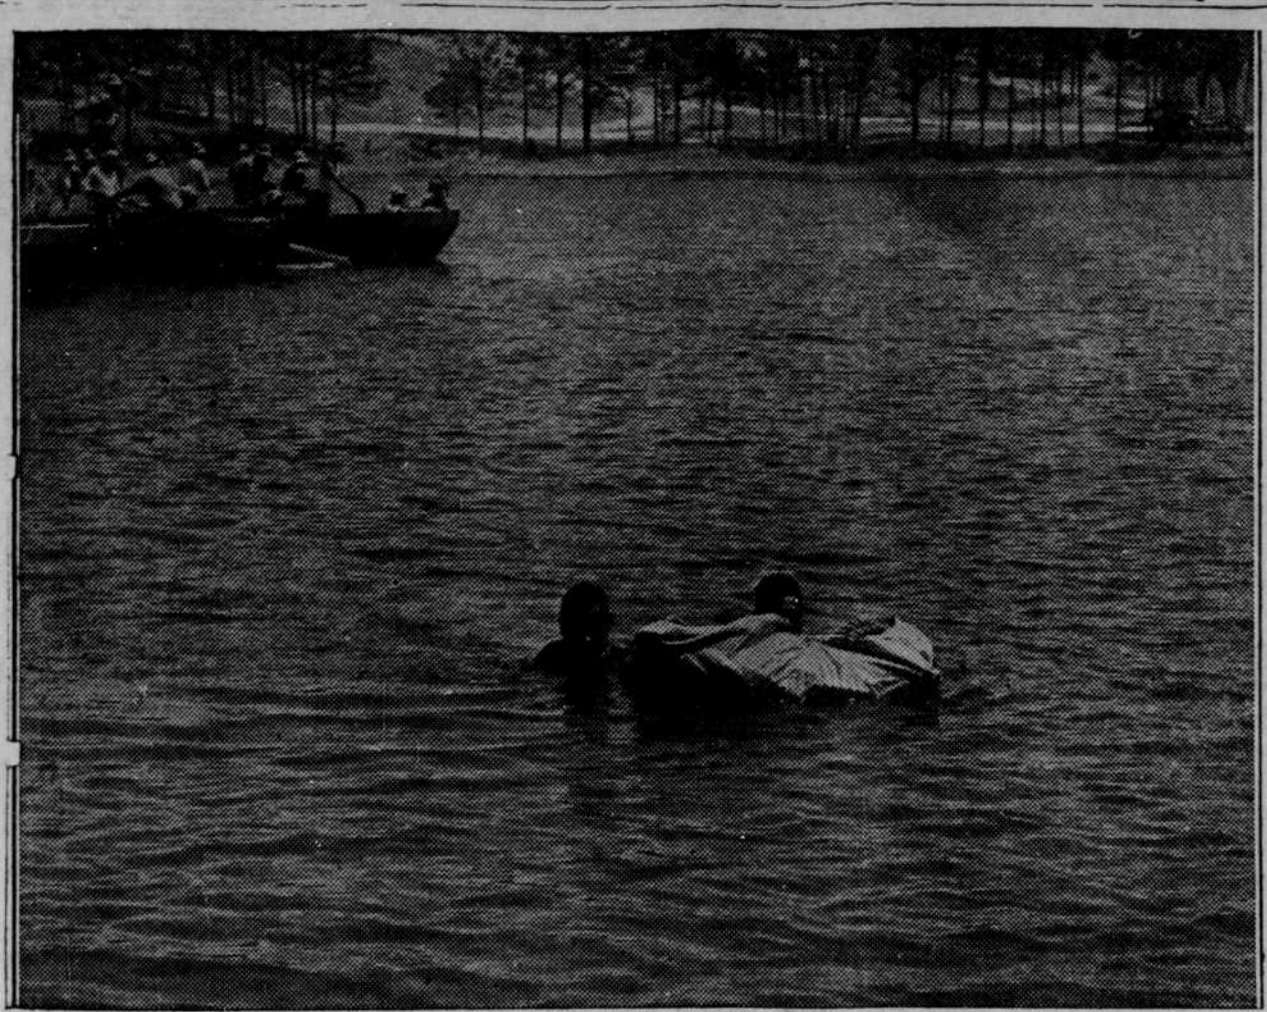

No wonder people looked at me so funny when I asked how to get to 11th and Dodge. That's the Police Station. Well, anyway, I got in and got out, and brought back more than I took it. That's something!

Another one of your subscribers, C. C. gave me a good answer when I called around to collect. She has been on your list for years but, apparently, no one ever went to collect. She replied:

Now, I call that a humdinger of an answer, C. C.
A lot of your subscribers are taking little jaunts, here and there, during these hot days. For instance Mrs. S. J. Day, 2415 S Street, is now in Coffeyville, Kansas, where she will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends.

I understand that quite a delegation of Omahans journeyed to Atlanta, Georgia, recently, to take in the National Baptist Convention. I met one of them—Mrs. Cora Haynes, 2107 North 28th Street. I believe she is the State President of the Baptist Board. Her party included the Moderator, the Rev. C. Q. Hickerson.

The Murrell's of 2851 Binney Street have as their house guests old friends from Muskogee, Oklahoma, I believe. And if I forget not their names are Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Davis.

Official U.S. Treasury NEBRASKA WAR BOND QUOTAS FOR JUNE

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1.—Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury, today made known June War Bond Quotas for the 3,070 counties in the nation to all State and County War Savings Staffs.
The June quota for the State of Nebraska is $4,562,000.
The county quotas, based upon a substantial increase over May quotas, are expected to reach ten per cent of income when the nation goes on a billion-dollar-a-month War Bond quotas for the 3,070 counties in the nation to all State every pay day, ten per cent," is the battle cry throughout the country. You can buy War Bonds at your Bank, Building & Loan Association, Post Office and at many department stores.

Table with columns for county names and their respective War Bond quotas for June. Includes Adams, Antelope, Banner, Boone, Boyd, etc.

Street, and contrary to recently published reports he has not quit his regular job as clerk in the county court, being appointed by Judge Charles J. Southard.
Mr. McPherson was given a leave of absence for the duration of the war plus six months in order to take up training, and later, active work, in the Signal Corps and Communication Department of the Army.

One of your subscribers—he told me not to mention his name—but he did tell me to remind you of an incident that occurred several years ago. The way he tells it you called him, and another chap, (two who were supposed to have been avowed infidels) into your office and that you tried to convert them but when they got through with you they changed your beliefs instead. No doubt, he exaggerated the tale but at any rate he told me to remind you of it.

Mrs. Margaret Smith, 2815 Seward Street was telling me that she had been too busy to know of any news. When I asked what she had been doing she replied that she had been visiting a sick friend, Mrs. Edith Williams, I believe, 1617 North 29th Street, who just gave birth to a boy and girl twins. Too busy for news, eh?

And Mrs. Sally Sells, 2705 Hamilton Street, really was too busy for news. I forgot the name of her lively friend—Margaret somebody—were just getting ready for a little house party. Sorry, I couldn't stay and attend but Monday nights are never free with me.

And, Sunday, C. C. be sure and attend the Mt. Calvary Community Spiritual Church, next door, the Rev. Holmes—the former "Sunshine Sammy" of the Movies, but now a nationally known Evangelist will preach. I think he will be at the morning services—eleven o'clock.

Do you know a Mrs. H. Madison, C. C.? I believe that is her name. Apparently, she is a well-known music teacher and director. She is the one who will direct the musical given by the Improvement Club, of which Mrs. Z. Edden, is the president. Miss Bertha Reed, secretary. The musical will be at the Hillside Presbyterian Church, 30th and Ohio, on Sunday, July 12th, at four in the afternoon.

One of my old Michigan friends writes a long interesting letter. He reads your GUIDE too, C. C. for he was telling me that if the rubber situation gets much more serious he would have to put his car up and ride in "Shank's Mare" and he refers to it in this manner:

"***** But now, or as soon as the rubber gives out, I'll have to see her as many more will, even yourself in Omaha—ride "Shank's Mare." You see Cliff I read every word of your "Message to Galloway" and got a kick out of your complaint in the last issue about the amount of footwork you have to do, but I know that as long as the cobbler has sole leather you'll play along and do your daily stint for the OMAHA GUIDE and its subscribers. I note by your writings that you are getting into the swing of things there. I read each word in my GUIDE, ads and all, and then pass it around to others and it is then read until it is virtually shopworn. *****"

Thanks, Mr. R. E. Stetekuh for such a long and interesting letter, of which I have just quoted a paragraph.

When I asked what she had been doing she replied that she had been visiting a sick friend, Mrs. Edith Williams, I believe, 1617 North 29th Street, who just gave birth to a boy and girl twins. And, congratulations, to the "We're All Americans" committee, back in Michigan. While I can't pick up your weekly radio program I do read your scripts each week. That new character—"The Rumor Man"—you have written in must be tops. Remember, I heard him when he auditioned, just a night or two before I left Michigan, and the part he is now playing is a "natural."

And thanks to T. F. McAllister, editor and columnist—"Of Many Things"—for including the following squib in a recent column in THE SPECTATOR— Michigan's Leading Weekly:

I must be quitting, C. C. Will you be reading next week?
