

"Nominate Galloway"

Elmer Thomas

To my Friends in the Fifth Legislative District:

One of the candidates for the Legislature from your District is C. C. Galloway. I have known him for more than 20 years. He is the editor of the Omaha Guide, the colored weekly newspaper.

Mr. Galloway has martyr blood in his veins. He never learned such words as defeat and discouragement, although he has carried a heavier load than anyone I know. The Hebrew children who were cast into the burning, fiery furnace attained immortality for their brave act of a single day. For 20 years he has gone through the furnace and the smell of fire is not upon his garments.

He is the guide of his people. I hope to see him receive one of the two nominations in your District. He is able, fearless and stands for the right. May I ask you as friends of better government to give him your vote on the Primary day next Tuesday, August 11th?

ELMER E. THOMAS.

The Way to Elect A State Senator In the 5th District

BY H. J. PINKETT

First, vote for C. C. Galloway; if not for him, then another colored man and thus nominate two colored men.

The sentiment among whites, as well as colored persons, is that a colored man should be elected. All good Americans believe that should be done.—"IN THE NATION'S HOUR OF TRIAL."

For nearly forty years C. C. Galloway has served the colored people and the community through good and bad days, without complaint and without price. He asks your votes on August 11th that he may continue that service even more helpfully.

Mr. Galloway knows the problems of workers and business men. He has come all the way as Farm worker, hotel worker, Restaurant proprietor, Real estate operator, newspaper publisher and civic worker. He has been a leading spirit in every effort for race and community betterment in Omaha and the state for all the years of his manhood. Whenever and wherever possible he has always helped the persons who stood most in need of his aid, no matter how lowly.

In his thinking on public matters he is a liberal, a friend of the workers and a champion of economic and social progress. He has "The strength to serve and the Patience to Suffer", and still go on.

If elected, I believe the Fifth District will have a Senator who will work for the common good, not forgetting anyone, no matter what his creed or his color or race.

We cry aloud for DEMOCRACY. Let us prove our faith in it by electing C. C. Galloway, the best qualified aspirant in the District.

—H. J. PINKETT.

ENDORSES GALLOWAY FOR REPRESENTATIVE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAM

Chicago, Illinois,
C. C. Galloway, 2420 Grant St.,
Omaha, Nebr.,

I endorse you as a most worthy candidate for State Senator in the Nebraska State Legislature election. I don't believe there is a man in the great State of Nebraska, who is more familiar with the problems of all the people in the State than you. I know what you stand for... Fair Play for all the people in all walks of life.

TO BE A REPRESENTATIVE STATE SENATOR IN THE 5TH LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT

The aspirant should be educated in practical politics, through the one and only school, The School of Experience.

He should have the courage to fight for the principles of true advancement and not to be a Horn Tooter or a Band Wagon Hitchhiker.

He should be aggressive, but not vain or egotistical. He should be honest and trustworthy.

He should have the respect and cooperation of the men he will be associated with in the event he is elected, otherwise the whole purpose is lost.

He should have the semblance of being a Native Son, that his True Record and past, whether good, bad or indifferent, may be thoroughly known to the Voting public.

He should not be selfish or ap propriative. One way rides are out. He should be willing to make personal sacrifices in the interest of public welfare, rather than to sacrifice public welfare in the interest of personal gains. Whosoever he may be who assumes and magnifies the glory and responsibility for worthwhile efforts and achievements of a group or groups and disclaims any personal responsibility for the failures, is an appropriate person and not qualified for leadership.

He should have courage and determination, he should have the courage to carry on when the cards are stacked against him and not be a quitter. He should be able to accept defeat with a smile and victory with grace.

He should put the interest of the public high and above the Dollar Sign interest. It takes a strong man and even a stronger character to do this. You can ballot on this one item alone and never go wrong.

A candidate having the "Should not be or have" qualities can be elected by applying such methods decisively on an unsuspecting public. A candidate having the "Should be or should have" qualities can be defeated by not keeping the public on the alert.

Some of the "Should have" and some not have or be" qualities can perhaps be found in any of the several candidates for this office. But there is one who stands out from the rest in the "Should be and should have" qualities.

GOOD DEEDS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES

It would take volumes to enumerate the good deeds and works of C. C. Galloway, but they have seldom been broadcasted. He has a distaste for bragging and fourflushing. When there is a JOB TO BE DONE, he doesn't stop to take the second look to make sure that he has an audience, nor does he ring cow bells or blow Fog Horns to get an audience. Is such efforts he thinks he is only doing his duty... a duty to his people, something that any other upstanding man or woman would do under similar circumstances. And not to gloat over... His only object being to "take our boys and girls from behind dust cloths, dish rags, mops, brooms and out of ditches.... to give them a chance along with other qualified boys and girls."

READY TO DO BATTLE

Whenever and wherever in the State of Nebraska, the welfare of the Colored people has been at stake.... You have always found C. C. Galloway in the Front line or in the Front seat.... calm, fearless, and unafraid; Ready to do battle "For my People". No matter what the sacrifices would be to his personal fortune. Fighting Times Require Fighting Men. Elect a fighter, proven and true blue.

NO CRAWDADDING

If C. C. Galloway had his youth today and whatever freedom his people did have was being threatened by an egotist like Hitler and if he had no tangible dependents he would not be seeking a cause to remain on the home front. C. C. Galloway is a fighter for your rights, with or without pay or reward, it is part of his being.... his life. This is the kind of leadership we can't get enough of. We have slept too long Voters, 'Tis deeds we want, not noise.

GLAD TO MAKE SACRIFICES

C. C. Galloway has sacrificed an unbelievable personal fortune in an effort to better the lot of his people. But yet, even if he had to walk ten miles to defend a woman, or man, who had been unjustly mistreated. He would do it, He has done it.

Remember the Race trouble in 1919. Remember the Teamster's Strike.... Times like these call for men. C. C. Galloway didn't hide in the cellar.... He helped to calm the situation. There's been similar situations before and after. C. C. Galloway was there. He didn't blunder, he knew most nearly what to say and how to say it.

A FAITH UNSHAKEN

There is no Better Proof of C. C. Galloway's qualifications for public office than the fact that he holds the respect of most of Nebraska's public officials, friend and foe alike. They respect him because they know that he is Honest and Sincere in his Desire to advance the welfare of his people. They know that any man who has remained unshaken in his faith and convictions for more than 40 years is entitled to respect whether he gets it or not.

HOW WE HELPED TO FRAME GALLOWAY

As an example of what we mean by sacrificing personal wealth, we refer you to the Testimony of Tom Crawford at one of Omaha's Biggest Trials. "How we helped to frame Galloway". There was a lot of money tied up in that deal Ten suburban Acres and a $30,000 bid.... and it all came about because C. C. Galloway wanted better living conditions for our boys and girls and consistently refused to play ball with the boys who wanted to pawn souls for personal gain....

Others succumbed under the pressure, but C. C. Galloway and a few more strong men stood their ground and finally won out: making Omaha a better place for you and your loved ones to live in. But in spite of the vile and underhand propaganda that has been used by his enemies to break his spirit and to discredit his deeds, he has come through like the Veteran Warrior he is; and today heads the largest first and only complete publishing house or manufacturing concern of its kind in the State. Visit it and see for yourself.

You can get good legislation only from the man who puts your interest above everything else. Elect C. C. Galloway. He is sincere. He is capable. His unwavering courage should be rewarded.

TAXPAYER FOR YEARS

C. C. Galloway is a life long resident of Omaha and here to stay, to share with you The Storms as well as the Sunshine. His enterprises have paid thousands of dollars in taxes and salaries. He is one of the pioneers in the building of Omaha and making it a better community in which to live. There is not one park bench, cobble stone, corner light, or grain of alfalfa paid for through local taxation that does not have some percent of his tax mills invested therein.

NOT A GRANDSTAND PERFORMER

Some of C. C. Galloway's outstanding efforts in behalf of his race will never be known, because of their confidential nature. C. C. Galloway works with or without an audience. His heart is in his work. He is a sincere Race Man.

My Dear C. C.—

I see you are yet campaigning for State Senator, that I am proud of and I hope when the votes are counted, it will be Senator C. C. Galloway Square.

I hope to get some write ups from the U.S.O. and send to you. The U. S. O. is grand.

I have a very nice job here, the work is pleasant, and so are the surroundings.

ACTION NOT WORDS

An example of his ACTION and NOT WORDS deeds was brought to light a few years ago when jobs were hard to get. A large placement of girls were made in desirable jobs. A year later the manager of the store asked the girls if they knew who was responsible for their placement.... They didn't know.... even after a year. C. C. Galloway was responsible. The men who organized Omaha's first worthwhile Community House, say that C. C. Galloway was the prime figure in bringing it about. He has not grasped this as a means to glorify himself. When there is a labor shortage, as is the case during the present 'work or fight' era, he has dozens of calls for help placement but he does not try to impress those hired that they are obligated to him.

When he was president of the NAACP it ran up a membership in four figures.... he was working for the uplift of his Race the same as the rest of the members.

An active Race deputy sheriff in Douglas County was only a distant dream to many people until C. C. Galloway took the "bull by the horns". As you know, he has been an outspoken exponent of Pro-rata employment for 40 years. The first question asked by him of any candidate who asks him for assistance is Not "How Much Money Can You Let Me Have...." But "How many of 'my people' will you employ?" Ask the candidates.... It would take volumes to enumerate the deeds of C. C. Galloway.

A HUMANITARIAN

A veteran Omaha merchant said recently: C. C. Galloway would be a wealthy man had he not chosen to be a humanitarian.... Countless times C. C. Galloway has bent over backward to help those who were down and out. He has taken money badly needed by his own business and against the advice of friends and used it to clothes, house and feed those who had asked him for assistance. The recipients have shown their appreciation in different ways.... some have been grateful while others have just forgotten about the whole thing, while others have turned and bit the helping hand, with vehemence. Some of far as to justify themselves by spreading tales which more aptly describes themselves. C. C. Galloway simply says "A person needing help has been helped, you can never tell what they will do when they get up on their feet and get their bearings again. I don't want anyone to feel obligated to me, that is not the spirit of assistance, we all need help at some time or another." C. C. Galloway is a public spirited man in fact, he is interested in the problems of the individual and collective public. Let's help to elect him State Senator from the 5th District. He will give unselfish and unstinting public representation. Vote for C. C. Galloway.

THE INVINCIBLES ARE SHALLO

He who claims to be perfect is not trustworthy.

C. C. Galloway puts forth no such claims. But never in his long career has he committed any premeditated misdeeds or errors calculated to advance his own cause at YOUR EXPENSE. He has never offered any SELFISH PROPOSITIONS or accepted any in an effort to elevate himself to public office. And you may rest assured Mr. and Mrs. Voter, that if ever elected to office, it will be down the straight path and through the power of your vote.

Will Give C. C. Galloway Their WHOLE-HEARTED SUPPORT

Mr. Joe Tretjak and Son-in-Law, inspecting the appearance of Mr. C. C. Galloway's from a newspaper clipping that Mr. Tretjak's had cut from a local newspaper. Mr. Tretjak stated to friends and acquaintances he had known Mr. Galloway for 27 years, and that he considered him one of Omaha's greatest citizens and that he was going to give Mr. Galloway his wholehearted support in his campaign race for the State Legislature Representative of the 5th District.

Mr. Tretjak is a successful business man, he is the proprietor of the Omaha Jobbing Company at 317 So. 15th St. He has been in business in Omaha for 31 years. Mr. Tretjak, his wife, 2 daughters, and son-in-law are out plugging 100 percent in the interest of Mr. Galloway's election.

BETTER EQUIPPED TO SERVE

C. C. Galloway IS FROM THE RANK AND FILE of everyday working people and proud of it. All of his worldly goods have been earned through Sweat-Toll and Proven merit. He is not a Diploma Waving, Better Than Thou, Soft Berth Seeker. He has won his spurs on the Proving Grounds of life itself. He does not have the feeling of stooping below his dignity in solicitude, when he shares with you, your joy and sorrows. Your problems are his problems. He understands the problems of labor as well as business, because he came up the Hard way.... From the Fields, through the Kitchens, until at 32 years of age he was proprietor of the 2nd largest Hotel cafe in Metropolitan Omaha. That was years ago.... he has continued to grow with the times and to make the best of his positions of trust. His City and State wide contacts and acquaintances have qualified him to better serve you.

Vote For C. C. GALLOWAY

Herman Friedlander

"He has always stood and fought for what is right"

(BY HERMAN FRIEDLANDER)
3211 Myrtle Avenue

Mr. C. C. Galloway is a candidate for State Senator of the 5th District. Mr. Galloway not only deserves our vote, but we should take it upon ourselves to see that our friends and neighbors go to the polls and vote for him alongside of other deserving candidates.

I have known Mr. Galloway more than 25 years. He has always been interested in civic affairs and contributed much of his efforts to make Omaha a better place to live in for all of us.

C. C. Galloway was not always on the winning side but he stood for what he thought was right. Let me cite you a few instances as an illustration of his good judgement of his farsightedness.

Many years ago and now, he was an ardent supporter of Senator Norris and his predictions that Senator Norris will go down in history as a great champion and exponent for human liberty. His prediction came true when the Senator introduced the unicameral system. Mr. Galloway supported this plan and brought the Senator to a meeting on north 24th street, but people did not care to listen to him—they feared the unicameral system would prevent a colored man to be elected to the Legislature. Mr. Galloway knew different and the results a Negro has been elected ever since.

Mr. Galloway enjoys the respect of many prominent citizens all over the city too numerous to mention. How well do I remember his devotion to his good friend H. B. Zimmerman when the Brandeis store declined to give the jobs for elevator operators to colored girls. I don't know who claimed the credit but I do know that only through Mr. Galloway's influence with Mr. Zimmerman was it accomplished.

The Community Center of which I also was a sponsor, may not have been here, were it not of the assistance and effort of Mr. Galloway and had Mr. Galloway been retained as head of the Center, we would have had a larger Center today.

Mr. Galloway is also a great friend and supporter of the candidacy of Senator Wherry for United States Senator. A promising leader in America's present and future destiny.

I have only mentioned a few of the many points why Mr. C. C. Galloway deserves the support of every true American.

In this crisis which our country is facing, it is our duty more now than ever before, to pay attention to our elections. It is our duty to exercise our right to vote—to encourage our friends to vote and above all to find out who the candidates are before we go to the polls.
